Espagne	www.boe.es www.justicia.es www.cgae.es, www.fiscal.es	www.poderjudicial.es www.tribunalconstitucional.es	www.justicia.es www.poderjudicial.es www.cgae.es The Ministry of Justice's website leads to the Department's Virtual Head Office. The most used formalities are the ones related to family matters (marriage, birth and death certificates). Moreover, the Virtual Head Office gives access to the Electronic Register, which allows citizens to submit forms for certain administrative procedures via electronic signature and to check the status of the application. The General Council of the Judiciary's website provides citizens an online form to submit a claim, make a complaint or a suggestion concerning the running of justice administration. Finally, the General Council of Bar Associations' website allows any citizen to access an application which calculates moratory interests or compensations. Besides, it is linked to an information portal (www.ventanillaunicaabogados.org). Lawyers and citizens find information about the functioning of the Bars (check annual reports or code of ethics, boards calendar) or carry out procedures such as applying for a discharge from a Bar or making a claim. It is also aimed at bar associates and clients who wish to make a claim or complaint against a lawyer or aNother bar associate.
