

Council of Europe
The Secretary General

Strasbourg, 13 May 2013

Dear Minister,

On behalf of the Council of Europe I should like to express my deepest condolences for the horrific loss of lives in the bomb attacks in Reyhanli. I should also like to assure you of our support and solidarity with the people of Turkey in this difficult moment. I am confident that the perpetrators of this vile act of indiscriminate violence against innocent people will be identified and brought to justice. I should be grateful if you could convey our message of solidarity to the families of the victims and the people of Reyhanli.

Yours sincerely,

Thorbjørn Jagland
