COMMITTEE OF EXPERTS ON ISSUES RELATING TO THE PROTECTION OF NATIONAL MINORITIES
(DH-MIN)

ANNOTATED ORDER OF BUSINESS

8th meeting
15 – 16 October 2008

Strasbourg
Council of Europe
Room G.2, Agora Building

WEDNESDAY 15 OCTOBER 200810:00 – 12:30*Item 1: Opening of the meeting and adoption of the agenda*Item 2: Examination of the potential added value of elaborating guidelines on procedures for developing relations between a state and kin minorities residing in a different state

In its reply to the Parliamentary Assembly Recommendation 1735 (2006) on the concept of “nation”, adopted on 20 February 2008, the Committee of Ministers invited the DH-MIN, to start considering at its next meeting in October 2008, the potential added value of guidelines on procedures for developing relations between a state and kin-minorities residing in a different state, taking into consideration the work currently carried out in this field, notably by the Venice Commission, the Advisory Committee on the Framework Convention, the Expert Committee of the European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages and the OSCE High Commissioner on National Minorities.

Mr Brendan F. Moran, Director in the OSCE Office of High Commissioner on National Minorities will present the recently adopted Recommendations of the High Commissioner on National Minorities of the OSCE on the role of states on establishing and maintaining links with minorities abroad.

Mr Bogdan Lucian Aurescu will outline the findings and conclusions of the Report on the Preferential Treatment of National Minorities by their Kin-State adopted by the Venice Commission in 2001 and subsequent developments in relation to protection of national minorities by their kin-states.

Mr Rainer Hofmann, 2nd Vice-President of the Advisory Committee on the Framework Convention will present the Advisory Committee’s findings on kin-state relations in the context of the Framework Convention.

Mr Joerg Horn-Aps, Administrator in the Secretariat of the European Charter for Regional or Minority Languages will present the findings on kin-state relations in the context of the Charter.

Delegations from those Member States, which adopted legislation on kin-minority relations, are invited to make presentations on their domestic legislation and practice concerning their kin-minorities.

Following these presentations, the Committee will exchange views on the potential added value of elaborating the Council of Europe guidelines on procedures for developing relations between a state and kin-minorities residing in a different state and will provide the Secretariat with guidance on the possible future work on this theme.

14:30 – 17:30Item 3: Examination of the theme of the promotion of use of native languages in minority communities

At its last two meetings, in October 2007 and March 2008, the Committee heard testimonies on good practices in the field of the promotion of use of native languages in minority communities in the Slovak

Republic, Romania, Serbia and on the “Position of France on the use of languages of origin and mother tongues in the field of education”.

The Committee decided to continue to examine this topic and to invite other States, to introduce their case-studies of good practices in this field at the forthcoming meetings.
