

Towards the development of effective cybercrime legislation in Eastern Africa

Dr Maureen Owor

mhowor@gmail.com

Fellow, African Centre on Cyberlaw and Cybercrime Prevention

Paper presented at the Octopus conference, 4th Dec 2013, Strasbourg

The African Centre on Cyberlaw and Cybercrime Prevention

- Who we are
- What we do
- Where we are

The East African project

Incidence of cybercrime

- <http://allafrica.com/stories/201311270364.html>
- 26 NOVEMBER 2013

- regional responses to cybercrime
- Domestic responses to cybercrime

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE SO FAR

African Regional initiatives (drafts)

- EAC Legal framework for Cyberlaws EAC 1 and EAC 2 (2008)
- ECOWAS Directive CIDIR. 1/08/11 on Fighting Cybercrime (2011)
- COMESA Cybersecurity Draft Model Bill (2011)
- African Union Convention on the Establishment of a Legal Framework Conducive to Cybersecurity in Africa (2012)
- SADC Model Law on Computer Crime and Cybercrime (2012)

What is wrong with the legal response?

- Disproportionate focus on e-commerce laws
- Insufficient safeguards and conditions regarding procedural powers
- Inconsistency with international treaties, regulatory framework

What is wrong with enforcement measures ?

- Lack of resources
- Inadequate criminal justice strategies
- Skills training

The participants

Proposals –legal

- Ratification on the Budapest Convention, regional and international conventions-;
- Use existing treaties like United Nations Convention against Transnational Organised Crime, 2000;
- Amend substantive laws to deal with emergent forms of cybercrime;
- Amend procedural laws to include electronic or other intangible evidence of cybercrime.

Proposals- strategies

- enhance transborder cooperation ;
- initiate extradition, mutual legal assistance;
- collaboration with Council of Europe;
- schemes for compensating victims;
- form an East African cyber police unit;
- Enhance capacity building training;
- Narrow the digital divide.

proposals for ACCP

- facilitate awareness-raising programmes;
- conduct research into the status and impact of existing initiatives in cybercrime legislation;
- ensure prompt implementation of recommendations of the workshop.

Budapest convention 2001- the challenges of harmonisation

- reflect experiences of majority rural African population at the normative level?

Updates from the 5 states

- Burundi
- Kenya
- Rwanda
- Tanzania
- Uganda

Thank you!

<http://cybercrime-fr.org/index.pl/accp>