

CoE/EU Project on Cybercrime in Georgia

Rusudan Mikhelidze
Ministry of Justice of Georgia

Ministry of Justice of Georgia

- CoE/EU Project (June 2009, May 2010) - Policy Advice
 - Main counterparts - Ministry of Justice and Ministry of Internal Affairs of Georgia.
 - Project aims at assisting Georgian Government in the following areas:
 1. Legislation
 2. Institution Building
 3. Training
 4. Law enforcement/ISP cooperation

- Legislative Developments:

- Expert opinion on existing cybercrime legislation prepared.
- Working Group on Cybercrime Legislation established under the Decree of the Minister of Justice.
- Draft law elaborated by the WG in December 2009.
- Expert opinion on the Draft provided.
- Parliamentary procedure to be initiated in nearest future.

- Draft Law on Cybercrime - Amendments in:
 - Criminal Code of Georgia
 - Criminal Procedure Code of Georgia
 - Code of Administrative Offences of Georgia
 - Law on Operative-Investigative Measures
 - Georgian Law on Electronic Communications
 - Georgian draft law on Mutual Legal Assistance in Criminal Matters.
- Draft Law on Data Protection

• Institution Building

- Expert opinion on the establishment of High Tech Crime Unit, 24/7 contact point in the Ministry of Internal Affairs.
- Overall needs indentified, creation of unit agreed with the relevant authorities.
- 3 persons designated for cybercrime investigations, received trainings within the framework of the project.
- Formal establishment of Unit will take place after the entry into force of cybercrime legislation. However, it will not be fully operational initially.
 - Equipment, software, trained human resources are not available yet.

- Training Policies and Modules

- Analysis of training needs for investigators, prosecutors and judges made.
- Concept Paper translated into Georgian.
- Concept Paper incorporated in the program of national training institutions.
- Two and a half day training of trainers held for investigators, prosecutors and judges with specially developed training modules.

- Law Enforcement/ISP Cooperation

- Workshops held with active participation of LEA/ISP.
- Proposals for the cooperation developed and presented during the workshops.
- CoE Guideline translated.
- Creation of WG of LEA/ISPs on this topic is planned.

- Future Challenges and Needs

- High Tech Crime Unit
 - Equipment, Hardware, Software
 - Extensive trainings on practical aspects of cybercrime investigation, computer forensics etc
 - Digital Forensics Section Capacity
- Support to the National Cyber Security Strategy
- Capacity building to assist effective operation of CERT...

MINISTRY OF JUSTICE OF GEORGIA

Thank You for Attention!

Rusudan Mikhelidze

Deputy Head of Analytical Department/Head of Legal Research and Analysis Unit

rmikhlidze@justice.gov.ge