

Ministry of Justice of Georgia

Data Exchange Agency

Legal Entity of Public Law

DEA

info@dea.gov.ge

Data Exchange Agency

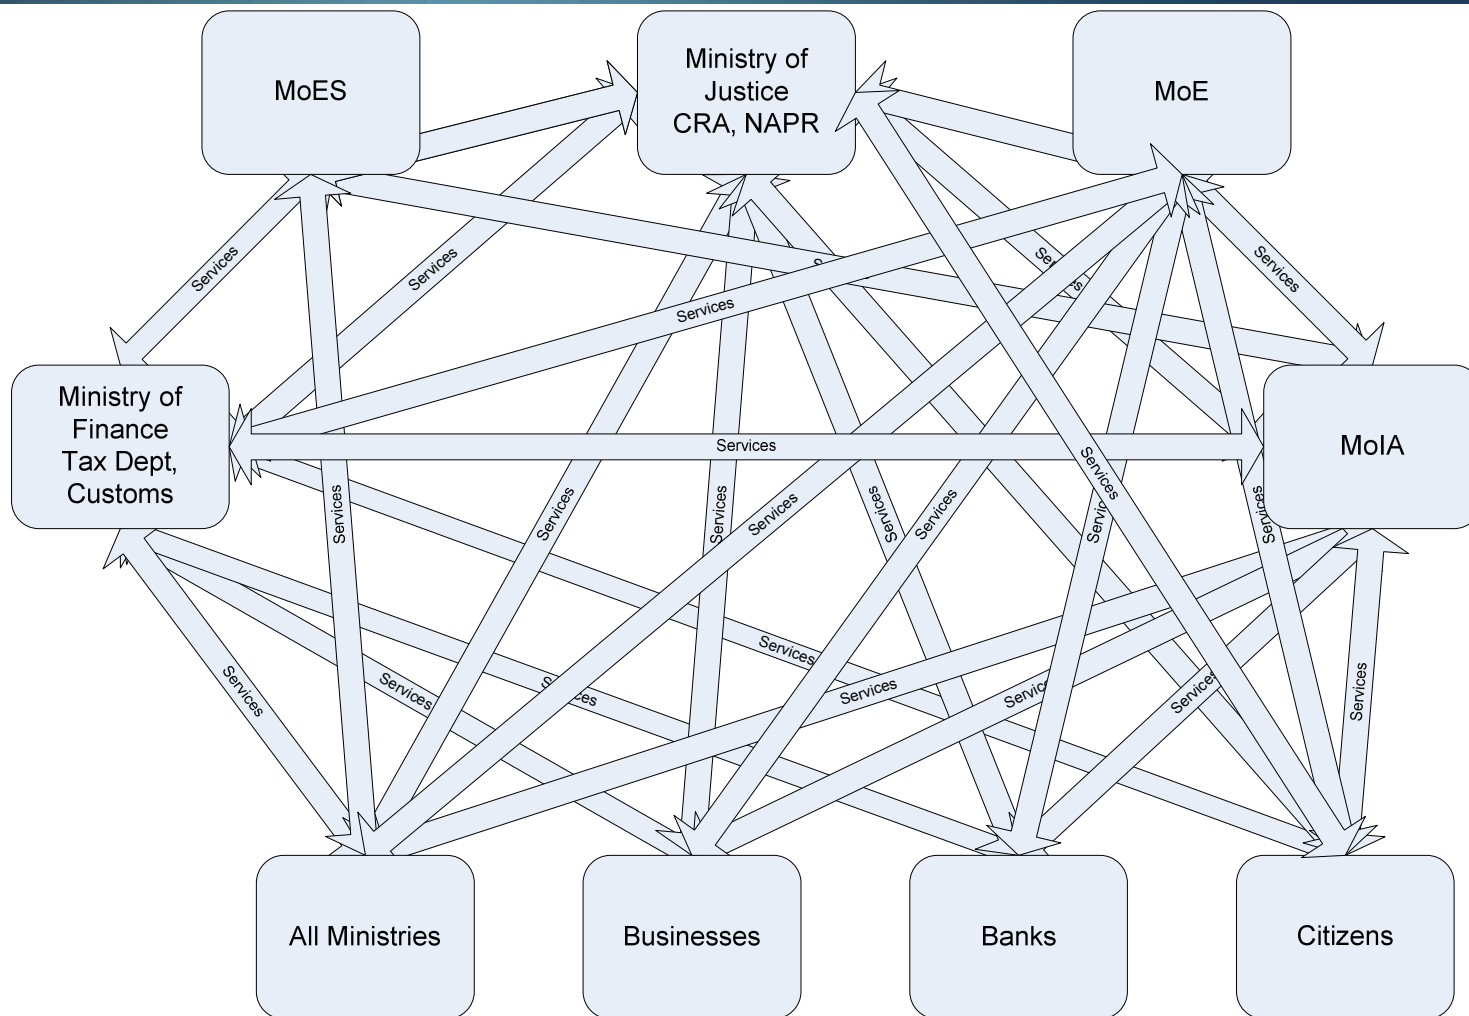

Our Responsibilities

E- Government Development Coordination

Data Exchange
Infrastructure

Information
Security

Current 'architecture' of Government e-services

Data Exchange Agency

Key business objectives

- Increased transparency;
- Improved government-to-government (G2G), Government-to-business (G2B) and Government-to-citizen (G2C) services;
- Increased efficiency of Government spending;
- Improved cooperation between Government Agencies;
- Effective information sharing;
- Improved data quality;
- Standardized data;
- Improved quality and accuracy;
- Unified security standards;
- Increased compliance with international standards.

Future Projects

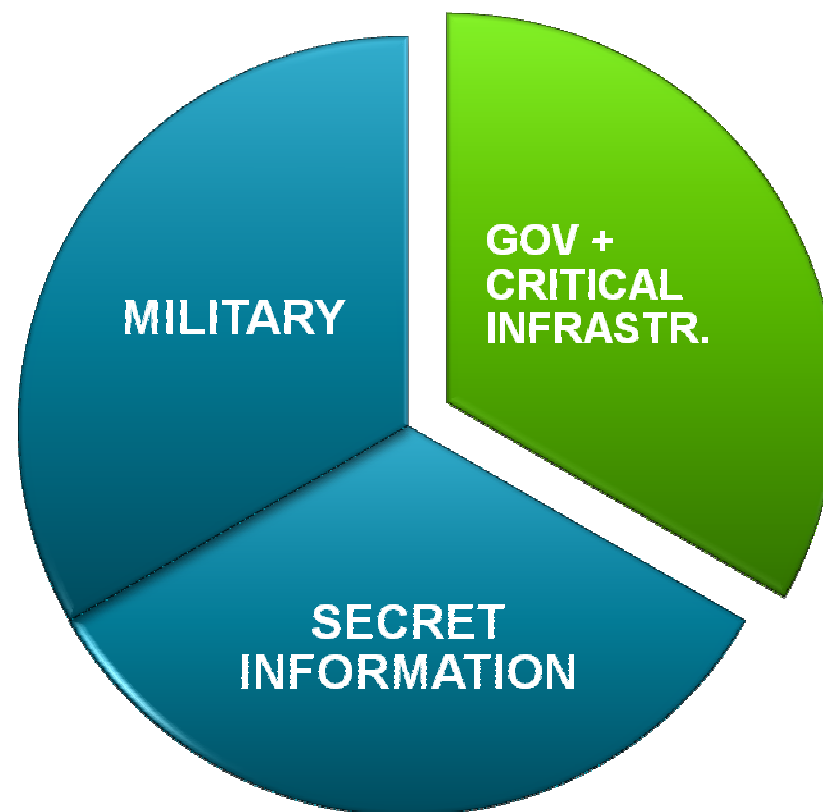

- Unified Document Exchange System
- Correspondence e-delivery system
- Citizen Portal

Information Security

There are IT systems, uninterrupted operation of which is critical for the country.

Their stability and safety requires corresponding attention.

Area of Responsibility

Implementation mechanisms of Information Security

- Development of security standards
- IT Standards
- Safety of Infrastructure
- Raising educational level
- CERT.GOV.GE – Computer Emergency Response Team

Information Security Policy

- Development of the Policy in compliance with NATO and EU standards.
- Introduction – Monitoring – Audit – Support – Training.
- Legislative framework.
- Information Security Audit.
- Educational Activities.

CERT.GOV.GE

Computer Emergency Response Team

- Monitoring of the Georgian Governmental Network (GGN).
- CA security monitoring.
- Analysis of incidents.
- Responding to cyber attacks.
- Enhancing information security.

Contact Information

Ministry of Justice of Georgia
LEPL Data Exchange Agency

Rustaveli ave. 30, Tbilisi, Georgia

Phone: +995 (32) 14 39 81

Mail: info@dea.gov.ge