

The protection of the unique historical landscape types - The village of Liptovská Teplička (Slovakia)

Historical view of the wooden timbered farm buildings (barns), centre of the village and terraced fields

Traditional way of agricultural landscape – terraced fields management in the past

New house construction within the municipality (second half of the twentieth century)

Birds eye view of the rural settlement surrounded by historical landscape structures – terraced fields

Birds eye view of the village of the Liptovská Teplička cultivated mainly by agricultural cooperative

Grazing cattle on the fields around the village of the Liptovská Teplička

Hay production by modern technique

Folk festival: Under the Kráľova hoľa peak © Jaroslav Kičák

Traditions by young generation © Jaroslav Kičák

Organic products offer © Jaroslav Kičák