Report registered by the Secretariat on 24 September 2012

CYCLE 2012

CLARIFICATION ON THE QUESTIONS RAISED BY EUROPEAN COMMITTEE OF SOCIAL RIGHTS

The relations associated with, and terms determined for performance of military service are regulated by the laws of the Republic of Armenia "On Military Service" and "On military Liability". According to the requirements of Armenian "Law on military service" the conscription (statutory military service) is composed of mandatory and contractual military services.

Two categories of conscripts are liable for mandatory military service: 1. Individuals at the age of 18-27, who have not performed military service; 2. Officers of medical service within the 1st group of reserve, under the age of 35 (who have completed military training during their studies at higher medical educational establishment). The term of mandatory military service in the Armed Forces for these two categories of individuals is defined as 24 months. Before the expiration of this period the above-mentioned individuals can be discharged from military service only due to health conditions, or because of family circumstances, which are determined by the Law.

The terms of contractual military service are established as 3, 5, or 20 years. The military servicemen, who have signed a contract for 3 or 5 years can, by own initiative (submission of report) terminate the contract before its term is expired and be discharged from the Armed Forces. Contracts stretching for 20 years are signed by those, who, based on the order by Armenian Ministry of Defence, study at Armenian or foreign military educational institutions. This term includes both the period spent at military educational institution and post-education contractual (professional) military service. These individuals are also eligible to terminate the contract by own initiative (submission of report) and be discharged from the Armed Forces, with a reservation that if such an initiative is displayed during the first 10 years of the period, following the completion of education, they must reimburse the expenses of education. Moreover, the overall sum to be reimbursed for education diminishes by 10% on a yearly basis for each year spent in contractual military service.

Questions addressed to Armenia

Article 1§2 (prohibition of discrimination in employment/ forced labour/ right to earn one's living in an occupation freely entered upon):

- What is the length of, if any, compulsory minimum period of service required of those serving in the professional armed forces?
- Are there circumstances, such as specialised training or specific operational requirements, which entail a different compulsory minimum term of service in the professional armed forces and under what conditions may the persons concerned leave the service before the expiry of this term?
