Overview & Strategy

What is End Violence?

Overview

Target 16.2 and other violence-related targets of the SDGs, commit to end abuse, exploitation, trafficking, torture and all forms of violence against children by 2030.

The Global Partnership to End Violence Against Children will support actions that realize this commitment.

The End Violence approach is...

- Rights-based
- Child-centred
- Universal
- Based on the conviction that violence is preventable, not inevitable.

Strategy

Vision

A world where all children – girls and boys alike – grow up free from violence and exploitation

Mission

To prevent violence, protect childhood and make societies safer for children

Operating Principles

As a multi-stakeholder partnership and financing facility contributing to the realization of the Sustainable Development Goals, End Violence is:

Rights focused | Child Centered | Universal and Inclusive | Results Oriented | Transparent | Evidence Based

Strategy

Consultations

- The Partnership held a second round of consultations, meetings and events to obtain an in-depth reflection on the current zero draft strategy.
- So far, input has been received from over 1500 children in 22 countries and over 200 individuals, groups and agencies.
- A high-level strategy retreat is also anticipated, which will be an opportunity for stakeholders to take stock, reflect together and assess and refine the zero draft strategy.

Our Approach

How will the Partnership work?

Approach

Focusing on solutions

Experts across sectors have come together to develop an evidence-based package of interventions that will sit at the heart of the Partnership's strategy and drive action at the national level.

Pathfinder countries

The Partnership will support a small group of pathfinder countries that have demonstrated a strong commitment to accelerating efforts to make children safe.

Sharing knowledge

The Partnership will create a broad-based platform for sharing knowledge that can support pathfinder countries' engagement on an on-going and virtual basis.

Expanding the global movement

As a global platform for advocacy, the Partnership will use its convening power to help to expand the global movement against violence both within and between countries.

Pathfinders

Pathfinder countries

The strategy envisages that a group of pathfinder countries will make a central contribution to the partnership, based on their wish to be leaders in ending violence against children and delivering SDG16.2 and related targets.

In Europe, Sweden and Romania have officially made expressions of interest to join the Partnership as Pathfinder countries.

Solutions

An Integrated & Strategic Approach to Ending Violence

Solutions Summit

Sharing knowledge

The Partnership will run a Solutions Summit in 2017 on best practices, promising initiatives and proven strategies to address violence, and then move towards a regular forum for all those working to end violence against children.

Solutions Package

The End Violence Solutions Package

Teach positive parenting skills

Help children develop social-emotional skills and stay in school

Raise access to health, child protection and support services

Implement and enforce laws that protect all children

Values and social norms that protect children
