- elected six members to the Bureau: Ms Brigitte Myle (Belgium), Mr Alfredas Jomantas (Lithuania), Mr Kimmo Aulake (Finland), Mr Roger Higginson (United Kingdom), Ms Anita Bergenstrahle-Lind (Sweden) and Ms Erminia Sciacchitano (Italy);
- appointed Ms Brigitte Myle (Belgium) as a rapporteur on equality between women and men [CDCPP (2012) 30].

4. EXCHANGE OF VIEWS ON THE MEDIUM-TERM MISSION OF THE CDCPP

[CDCPP (2012) 2]

The Committee:

- discussed the document on the CDCPP's medium term mission and instructed the Bureau to draft a follow-up strategy.

5. IMPLEMENTATION OF THE PROGRAMME OF WORK FOR 2012-2013

[CDCPP (2012) 16]

5.1 Cultural Policy and Action

5.1.1 Proposal to organise a Council of Europe Ministerial Conference on Culture in the Russian Federation (2013).

The Committee:

- decided to recommend to the Committee of Ministers the organisation of a Council of Europe Conference of Ministers of Culture on "Governance of culture – promoting access to culture" and thanked the Russian Federation for their initiative to host this conference in spring 2013 in Moscow;
- supported the proposal to set up a small working group composed of three members of the CDCPP Bureau and three experts to further develop the concept and prepare the conference in the light of discussions held, reporting progress to the Bureau;
- asked the Secretariat to ensure adequate follow-up with the Council of Europe's Committee of Ministers;
- asked its Bureau to ensure detailed follow-up of progress on the Conference dossier at its autumn session and keep the CDCPP informed of developments.

5.1.2 Revision of the European Convention on cinematographic co-production

[CDCPP (2012) 18]

The Committee:

- noted the study on "Evaluation and Proposed Revisions of the European Convention on Cinematographic Co-production", as well as the Explanatory Report on "Proposals for Modernisation of the European Convention on Cinematographic Co-production";
- decided on the basis of the recommendations set out in these documents, to proceed with the review of the Convention, subject to approval by the Committee of Ministers;
- decided to set up a group of national experts subject to approval by the Committee of Ministers;
- asked its Bureau to follow closely the revision process.

5.1.3 Council of Europe Cultural Routes: update on the Enlarged Partial Agreement and decisions to be taken concerning the evaluation of the Cultural Routes and approval of new Cultural Routes

[CDCPP (2012) 32]

The Committee:

With respect to the 2011-2012 cycle of evaluation:

– agreed with the Governing Board of the Enlarged Partial Agreement's decision to approve the following four networks of routes certified before the adoption of Committee of Ministers Resolutions (2007)12 and Res(2010)52:

- the Viking Heritage Route and the Via Regia, which complied with the criteria set out in Committee of Ministers Resolution Res(2010)52. These routes will be reassessed for compliance in three years' time. With respect to the Via Regia, the Secretariat was instructed to continue its research into legal status for associations with members in European Union and non-Union countries;
- the Route of Wenzel and Vauban and the Santiago de Compostela Pilgrim Routes, which would be re-evaluated after one year in order to confirm the functioning of new networks established to manage these routes;

– agreed with the Governing Board's decision to confirm certification of the following six routes, which complied with the provisions of Committee of Ministers Resolution Res(2010)52:

- the Route of Cluniac Sites in Europe, the Route of the Olive tree, the Route of Jewish Heritage, the Transromanica Route, the Pyrenean Iron Route and the Heinrich Schickhardt Route, which would be evaluated for compliance in three years' time;

– agreed with the Governing Board's decision to withdraw the certification of the following seven routes, as despite the one-year periods for compliance already given by the CD-CULT in 2008, 2009 and 2010, these networks still did not comply either with the provisions of Committee of Ministers Resolution Res(2007)12 or with the criteria set out in the Appendix to Committee of Ministers Resolution Res(2010)52:

- Via Carolingia, the Route of the Castilian Language, Parks and Gardens and the Route of Don Quixote with respect to all the provisions of Articles II and III of the Appendix to Resolution Res(2010)52 (priority fields of action and criteria for networks);
- the Central European Iron Trail with respect to the provisions of Article II, in particular paragraph 3 (Cultural and educational exchanges for young Europeans) and the provisions of Article III (multidisciplinary networks, democratic operation) of the Appendix to Resolution Res(2010)52;
- Saint Michael's Ways with respect in particular to Article II paragraph 3 (Cultural and educational exchanges for young Europeans), and Article III (legal status, European network) of the Appendix to Resolution Res(2010)52;
- the Route of Migration Heritage which did not comply with Article III of the Appendix to Resolution Res(2010)52 (absence of a European network);

– took note of the Governing Board's decision to postpone to the 2012-2013 evaluation cycle its decision with respect to the route of Hansa sites, routes and monuments, which was not in compliance with the provisions of Resolution Res(2010)52, but for which further discussion and examination was considered necessary;

– took note of the Governing Boards findings that the three following routes did not comply with the criteria set out in the Appendix to Resolution CM/Res(2010)52. Under the Resolution, routes found for the first time not in compliance are given one year to remedy the situation, therefore the routes concerned would be requested to submit an action plan over nine months to the European Institute of Cultural Routes, to be accompanied by regular progress reports:

- the Route of Saint Martin of Tours, with respect in particular to Article II paragraph 3 (Cultural and educational exchanges for young Europeans), and Article III (legal status, European network) of the Appendix to Resolution Res(2010)52;
 - the Route of El Legado Andalus, with respect in particular to Article III (European network) of the Appendix to Resolution Res(2010)52;
 - the Route of the Phoenicians, with respect to Article III (legal status, European network, democratic functioning) of the Appendix to Resolution Res(2010)52;
- agreed with the Governing Board that certification as a Council of Europe Cultural Route should be awarded to the European Network of Casa Dei sites and to the Route of Cities with Industrial Ceramic Heritage;
- agreed with the Governing Board that certification should be postponed for the Odyssey, Sea and Land Route and the Route of Artists in Europe.

With respect to activities and priorities for 2012-2013:

- took note of the start of work of the Executive Secretary to the Enlarged Partial Agreement on Cultural Routes (EPA), based in Luxembourg, on 2 November 2011;
- thanked the authorities of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg and the European Institute of Cultural Routes for the excellent organisation of the Advisory Forum held on 23-24 November 2011;
- thanked the authorities of France and Spain for their offers to host the 2012 Cultural Routes Advisory Forum in November in Colmar or in Bilbao and congratulated France whose proposal was finally chosen;
- welcomed the support of the European Commission and the European Parliament for cultural routes and especially of the Joint Programme 2011-2013 on capacity-building for cultural routes;
- thanked once again the European Institute of Cultural Routes for its competent work and the Luxembourg authorities for the major financial support provided to the Institute;
- urged those member States and signatories to the European Cultural Convention not having already done so to sign the Enlarged Partial Agreement in order to ensure its continuation after the 2011-2013 pilot phase.
