Now look at Part 2

Listen to a woman talking to her son, Chris, about the things he has to do.

What will he do at each time?

For questions 6 – 10, write a letter A – H next to each time.

You will hear the conversation twice.

Pause 15 seconds

Mum Chris, remember at eleven o'clock this morning you have to call your grandparents.

Chris Yes, Mum.

Mum At twelve, can you do something for me? Can you take Fiona to the pool in my car. She's meeting a friend there.

Chris OK. I wanted to watch some TV but it can wait.

Mum Can you get some stamps too? The post office closes at one o'clock, but you'll be there at twelve thirty if you go straight from the pool.

Chris OK. Anything else?

Mum There are some library books to return, but I'll do that on Monday. Can you wash the car? If you do that at the garage at one o'clock, you'll be back here at lunchtime.

Chris Alright. So I'll see you at half past one and we'll eat then.

Mum Yes, don't be late.

Chris I won't be, because at two o'clock there's a football match - it's a really important game - I can see it on television. After that, can I use the car to visit some friends?

Chris Yes, OK.

Now listen again.

This is the end of Part Two.
