

- Summary of the relevant facts indicating time, place and manner of commission of offence
-

It is important to clearly and briefly describe any available and relevant information concerning the offence, containing at least the time, place and manner of the commission of the offence as well as the suspected author.