

- Clear description of the links between the offence and the person and between the offence and the evidence/measures/criminal assets sought in the requested State.

In addition, it is crucial to describe clearly and precisely the facts of the case in connection with the person concerned and the evidence/ measure/ criminal assets requested. It should be explained how the evidence, measures or criminal assets sought are linked to the proceedings conducted in the requesting state.