а.	Examination of the draft overview of reservations to Council of Europe treaties within the remit of the PC-OC and proposals for follow up
	During its 22 nd meeting, the PC-OC Mod examined the catalogue of reservations to Council of Europe treaties within the remit of the PC-OC and of relevance to the fight against transnational organised crime as well as the overview of these reservations prepared by the Secretariat. The PC-OC Mod agreed that for the purpose of the fight against TOC not all treaties falling within the remit of the PC-OC were relevant. It was felt however that the Convention on the Transfer of Sentenced Persons and the Additional Protocol thereto were important in this regard. Experts considered that it was sometimes difficult to distinguish reservations from declarations since the difference depended on the interpretation by the Parties of the content of declarations.
	As regards the reservations made to the Convention on the Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds of Crime (ETS No. 141, 1990), the PC-OC Mod agreed with the Secretariat proposal that the reservations made to this Convention should be analysed together with those made to the more recent Council of Europe Convention on Laundering, Search, Seizure and Confiscation of the Proceeds from Crime and on the Financing of Terrorism (ETS No.198, 2005).
	The PC-OC Mod decided to:
	-instruct the Secretariat to complete the catalogue and the overview with the reservations made to the Convention on the Transfer of Sentenced Parsons and the Additional Protocol thereto; -instruct the Secretariat to liaise with the Secretariat of the Conference of Parties to this treaty (COP 198) in order to explore possibilities for co-operation between the PC-OC and COP 198 so as to issue joint conclusions in this particular field;

6. a.	Convention on the Transfer of Sentenced Persons Discussion on possible amendments to the Convention (ETS n° 112) in a Second Additional Protocol
	During its previous meeting, the PC-OC considered the proposals by the PC-OC Mod to amend Article 17 of the Convention, agreed on some amendments (as contained in Doc PC-OC (2016)03rev) and decided to discuss this proposal further at its next meeting, together with the other possible amendments proposed by the PC-OC Mod.
	During its 22 nd meeting, the PC-OC Mod further discussed proposals on possible amendments to the Convention on the Transfer of Sentenced persons and in particular:
	- the possibility of introducing time limits for the revocation of consent by the sentenced person:
	The majority of PC-OC Mod members agreed on a proposal to amend Articles 4 and 7 of the Convention by introducing conditions to revocation of consent while at the same time giving an incentive to States to finalise the proceedings within a reasonable delay.
	The PC-OC Mod decided to bring the proposal, contained in Doc PC-OC Mod(2016)10, to the attention of the plenary for further discussion.
	- the widening of the scope of the Convention to persons who returned voluntarily to their country of origin before having served their sentence:
	The PC-OC Mod agreed that the draft Protocol amending the Additional Protocol to the Convention on the Transfer of Sentenced Persons provided an acceptable solution to this problem.
	- the non-payment of fines or compensation of victims:
	The PC-OC Mod confirmed its opinion that this issue could not be addressed by a binding instrument but could be addressed by updating Recommendation R (92)18 by the Committee of Ministers which also addresses the issue of fines.
	It was decided to inform the plenary of its proposal to finalise its work on the Draft Second Additional Protocol to the Convention before considering the development of a new recommendation which could update the existing ones and address issues that were not suitable to be regulated by a binding instrument.
	- the provision of information on the execution of the sentence by the administering state:
	The majority of PC-OC Mod members saw no compelling reasons to amend Article 15 of the Convention which contains an obligation for the administering State to provide information to the sentencing state. If an amendment is to be envisaged, further discussions would be necessary in the plenary.
	The PC-OC Mod decided to inform the plenary of its findings.
	The PC-OC is invited to further discuss possible amendments to the Convention in a Second Additional Protocol, taking into account the findings and proposals made by the PC-OC Mod.
