— Portugal and the European Social Charter —

Signatures, ratifications and accepted provisions

Portugal ratified the European Social Charter on 30/09/1991 and the Revised European Social Charter on 30/05/2002, accepting all of its 98 paragraphs.

It accepted the Additional Protocol providing for a system of collective complaints on 20/03/1998, but has not yet made a declaration enabling national NGOs to submit collective complaints.

The Charter in domestic law

Under Article 8§2 of the Constitution: "Rules provided for in international conventions duly ratified or approved, following their official publication, apply in municipal law as long as they remain internationally binding with respect to the Portuguese State."

II. Reporting system³

Reports submitted by Portugal

Between 1993 and 2022, Portugal submitted 9 reports on the application of the Charter and 16 on the application of the Revised Charter.

The 16th report, submitted on 25/01/2021, concerns the follow-up given to the relevant decisions of the Committee in the framework of the collective complaints procedure.

The assessments of the Committee on the follow-up to decisions in complaints have been published in March 2022.

The 17th report, which was to be submitted by 31/12/2021, should concern the accepted provisions relating to thematic group 3 "Labour rights", namely:

- the right to just conditions of work (Article 2);
- the right to a fair remuneration (Article 4);
- the right to organise (Article 5);
- the right to bargain collectively (Article 6);
- the right to information and consultation (Article 21);
- the right to take part in the determination and improvement of the working conditions and working environment (Article 22);
- the right to dignity at work (Article 26);
- the right of workers' representatives to protection in the undertaking and facilities to be accorded to them (Article 28);
- the right to information and consultation in collective redundancy procedures (Article 29).

Conclusions with respect to these provisions will be published in March 2023.

³ Following a decision taken by the Committee of Ministers in 2006, the provisions of the Charter have been divided into four thematic groups. States present a report on the provisions relating to one of the four thematic groups on an annual basis. Consequently, each provision of the Charter is reported on once every four years.

Following a decision taken by the Committee of Ministers in April 2014, States having accepted the collective complaints procedure are required, in alternation with the abovementioned report, to provide a simplified report on the measures taken to implement the decisions of the Committee adopted in collective complaints concerning their country. The alternation of reports is rotated periodically to ensure coverage of the four thematic groups.

Detailed information on the Reporting System is available on the relevant webpage. The reports submitted by States Parties may be consulted in the relevant section.

Situations of non-conformity ⁴

Thematic Group 1 “Employment, training and equal opportunities” - Conclusions 2016

According to the applicable rules, Conclusions 2020 only refer to the information submitted by the Portuguese Government on the follow-up given to the relevant decisions of the European Committee of Social Rights in the framework of the collective complaints procedure (see above).

For the most recent Conclusions adopted concerning the relevant Articles, see Conclusions 2016.

► Article 1§1 - Right to work - Policy of full employment

The employment policy efforts have not been adequate in combatting unemployment and promoting job creation.

► Article 1§2 – Right to work – Freely undertaken work (non-discrimination, prohibition of forced labour, other aspects)

The Merchant Navy Criminal and Disciplinary Code provides for prison sentences against seafarers who abandon their posts even when the safety of the ship or the lives or health of the people on board are not at stake.

► Article 10§4 - Right to vocational training - Long term unemployed persons

It has not been established that special measures for the retraining and reintegration of the long-term unemployed have been effectively provided or promoted.

► Article 10§5 - Right to vocational training - Full use of facilities available

It has not been established that foreign nationals, lawfully resident have equal access to financial assistance for studies.

► Article 18§1 - Right to engage in a gainful occupation in the territory of other States Parties - Applying existing regulations in a spirit of liberality

It has not been established that the existing regulations are applied in a spirit of liberality.

► Article 25 - Right of workers to protection of their claims in the event of the insolvency of their employer

The average time to satisfy workers’ claims in case of insolvency of their employer is excessive.

Thematic Group 2 “Health, social security and social protection” - Conclusions 2017

According to the applicable rules, Conclusions 2021 only refer to the information submitted by the Government on the follow-up given to the relevant decisions of the European Committee of Social Rights in the framework of the collective complaints procedure (see above).

For the most recent Conclusions adopted concerning the relevant Articles, see Conclusions 2017.

► Article 3§3 – Right to safe and healthy working conditions – Enforcement of safe and healthy working conditions

- Measures taken to reduce the number of accidents at work are insufficient;
- The labour inspection system does not have sufficient human resources to adequately monitor compliance with occupational health and safety legislation.

► Article 12§1 – Right to social security – Existence of a social security system

The minimum level of sickness benefit is inadequate.

► Article 12§4 – Right to social security – Social security of persons moving between States

- Equal treatment with regard to social security rights is not guaranteed to nationals of all other States Parties;
- Equal treatment with regard to access to family allowances is not guaranteed to nationals of all other States Parties.

⁴ Further information on the situations of non-conformity is available on the HUDOC database.

► Article 13§1 – Right to social and medical assistance - Adequate assistance for anyone in need

- The level of social assistance paid to a single person without resources is inadequate;
- Nationals of States Parties are subjected to a length of residence requirement of one year to be entitled to social assistance.

► Article 14§1 – Right to benefit from social services - Promotion or provision of social services

It has not been established that there is an adequate number of staff and that staff have sufficient qualifications.

Thematic Group 3 “Labour rights” - Conclusions 2014

According to the applicable rules, Conclusions 2018 only refer to the information submitted by the Portuguese Government on the follow-up given to the relevant decisions of the European Committee of Social Rights in the framework of the collective complaints procedure (see above).

For the most recent Conclusions adopted concerning the relevant Articles, see Conclusions 2014.

► Article 2§2 – Right to just conditions of work – Public holidays with pay

Work performed on a public holiday is not adequately compensated.

► Articles 2§4 – Right to just conditions of work - Elimination of risks in dangerous or unhealthy occupations

Not all workers exposed to residual risks are entitled to adequate compensatory measures such as reduced working hours or additional leave.

► Article 4§1 – Right to a fair remuneration – Decent remuneration

The minimum wage for private sector workers does not ensure a decent standard of living.

► Article 4§2 – Right to a fair remuneration – Increased remuneration for overtime work

Police officers on active prevention (prevenção activa) duties and shift duties (serviço de piquete) do not receive increased remuneration as required nor even remuneration equivalent to their basic hourly pay.

► Article 4§4 – Right to a fair remuneration – Reasonable notice of termination of employment

- The notice periods applicable to probationary periods in the private sector are insufficient below four months of service;
- The notice periods applicable to probationary periods for fixed-term, seasonal or show contracts in the private sector are insufficient;
- No provision is made for notice of the termination of duties during probationary periods for tenured civil servants;
- The conditions governing the termination of the duties of tenured civil servants are left to the discretion of the parties.

► Article 4§5 – Right to a fair remuneration – Limits to wage deductions

Guarantees in place to prevent tenured civil servants and civil service contractual staff from waiving their right to limitation of deduction from wages are insufficient.

► Article 5 – Right to organise

The criteria used to determine representativeness are not adequate.

► Article 6§1 – Right to bargain collectively – Joint consultation

The criteria used to determine representativeness in respect of joint consultation are not adequate.

► Article 6§3 – Right to bargain collectively – Conciliation and arbitration

- Compulsory recourse to arbitration in the private sector is permitted in circumstances which go beyond the limits set out in Article G of the Charter;
- Compulsory recourse to arbitration in the public sector is permitted in circumstances which go beyond the limits set out in Article G of the Charter.

► Article 6§4 – Right to bargain collectively – Collective action

- The right to call a strike is primarily reserved to trade unions, and the establishment of a trade union is subject to an excessive timeframe;

Thematic Group 4 “Children, families, migrants” - Conclusions 2019

► Article 7§1 - Right of children and young persons to protection- Prohibition of employment under the age of 15

- The duration of light work permitted to children under the age of 15 during school term is excessive and therefore such work cannot be qualified as light;
- The legislation on the prohibition of employment under the age of 15 is not effectively enforced.

► Article 7§3 – Right of children and young persons to protection – Prohibition of employment of children subject to compulsory education

The daily and weekly working time during school term for children subject to compulsory education is excessive.

► Article 7§5 - Right of children and young persons to protection – Fair pay

It has not been established that young workers wages are fair and apprentices allowances are adequate.

► Article 16 – Right of the family to social, legal and economic protection

The situation is not in conformity on account of the substandard housing conditions of Roma families.

► Article 19§10 – Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance - Equal treatment for the self-employed

The ground of non-conformity under Article 19§12 applies also to self-employed migrants.

► Article 19§12 – Right of migrant workers and their families to protection and assistance - Teaching mother tongue of migrant

It has not been established that the teaching of the mother tongue to migrant workers’ children is adequately promoted and facilitated.

► Article 31§1 - Adequate housing

The measures taken to improve the substandard housing conditions of Roma in Portugal are inadequate.

► Article 31§2 – Right to housing - Reduction of homelessness

- It has not been established that there is adequate legal protection for persons threatened by eviction;
- The law does not prohibit eviction from shelters or emergency accommodation without the provision of alternative accommodation.

► Article 31§3 – Right to housing - Right to affordable housing

It has not been established that the provision of social housing is sufficient.

The Committee has been unable to assess compliance with the following rights and has invited the Portuguese Government to provide more information in the next report in respect of the following provisions:
