LAUNCHING OF THE COURSES ON FIGHT AGAINST RACISM, XENOPHOBIA, HOMOPHOBIA AND TRANSPHOBIA AND DATA PROTECTION IN SPAIN.

BARCELONA, SPAIN MADRID, SPAIN 27/07/2016 02/11/2016 04/11/2016

No to populism and fear and legal enforcement of European values of non-discrimination were the key conclusions of the European Seminar on the "Fight against racism, xenophobia, homophobia and transphobia" organised by the EU-CoE HELP in the 28 Programme in July 2016. Building on this, and again in collaboration with the Spanish School for the Judiciary in Barcelona, a dedicated course was launched in November for mainly judges and prosecutors.

Within the same week, a HELP in the 28 course on Data Protection and Privacy Rights was launched in Madrid for a group of mainly lawyers, in collaboration with the Spanish Bar Association.
