

ANTI-CORRUPTION COUNCIL OF GEORGIA

WORKSHOP

ON

REVISION OF THE NATIONAL ANTI-CORRUPTION STRATEGY AND DEVELOPMENT OF THE ACTION PLAN

HOTEL AMBASADORI

2 MAY, 2014

AGENDA

The first session of the workshop aims at discussing the new Monitoring Methodology and Evaluation Report of the Implementation of 2010-2013 Anti-Corruption Action-Plan prepared by Secretariat of Anti-Corruption Council (ACC). The Report evaluates the progress made by the Government of Georgia in realizing the commitments of the Anti-Corruption Action Plan, achievements and challenges in relation to each Action Plan priority area.

The second session of the workshop aims at revising the Anti-Corruption Strategy based on the new Strategic Priorities of Fight against Corruption for 2014-2016 approved by ACC, the Evaluation Report, international recommendations, researches and analysis of local/international organizations. In addition, Council of Europe experts will present the result based indicators for 12 Strategic Priorities with the aim to assist ACWG in developing outcome/output oriented rather than process/input oriented indicators that ensure efficient assessment of implementation of objectives set by the Strategy and Action Plan.

The outcomes of the workshop will be new Methodology for Monitoring, revised Evaluation Report and the logical framework for revised Anti-Corruption Strategy with the indicators for the results to be achieved during the next years.
