

“The Albanian authorities, media and the public opinion have condemned the shooting at the family house of the journalist Klodiana Lala, on August 30-th, 2018.

The Albanian authorities as well as the Union of Albanian Journalists and Civil Society, have strongly condemned the attack and have asked for a thorough and over-all investigation of the motives behind the assault and send the perpetrators to justice. An investigation process has already started.

Albania remains committed to defend and support media freedom, because it is our strong belief that a free and an independent media constitute a pillar for democracy, rule of law and country’s over-all progress.”
