102 Can you provide information about accredited mediators?

Since the Mediation Act entered into force in December 2004 and the regulatory acts for its implementation were adopted in June 2005, the procedure of accrediting mediators is on-going. According to the Mediation Act and to the Rules Pertaining to the Unified Register of Mediators, a Unified Register of Mediators is established and maintained by the Ministry of Justice. Inclusion in the MOJ Register is a precondition for practicing as mediator.

Bulgaria has already almost 9 year experience in the field of out of court mediation. Court-referred mediation has been practiced since 2004 in the town of Plovdiv (the second town in Bulgaria) and, recently (since autumn 2005), in Stara Zagora and Vratsa. Court-referred mediation is planned for 2006 to be practiced as well by newly created mediation centres in the towns of Vidin, Assenovgrad, Bourgas (within agreements with the relevant courts).

According to the general opinion, the Mediation Act and the new Civil Procedure Code (which is expected to be submitted to the Bulgarian Parliament in May 2006) are the pre-conditions for a wider and successful implementation of court-referred mediation in Bulgaria.
