

Constitutional Court (1)

Supreme Court (1)

Senate of the Supreme Court

(Cassation instance)

Department of Criminal Cases

Department of Civil Cases

Department of Administrative Cases

Supreme Court Chambers

(Appellate instance for those cases where first instance court is a regional court)

Chamber of Criminal Cases

Chamber of Civil Cases

Structural units of the Prosecution Office are not attached to particular courts. However, within the internal hierarchy of the Prosecution Office there is an appropriate division of competences. Prosecutors are i.a. competent to present the case in the court, propose a sentence to the judge, appeal etc. Prosecutors have a role in certain civil and administrative cases.

Departments of the Gereneral Prosecution
Office

Regional Courts (5)

Appeals courts; first instance courts in some cases.
Criminal and civil jurisdiction, limited administrative jurisdiction
(some administrative penalties).

Administrative Regional Court (1)

Appeals court.
Administrative jurisdiction.

Regional Prosecution
Offices (6)

District Courts (35)

First instance courts.
Civil and criminal jurisdiction, limited administrative jurisdiction
(some administrative penalties).
Jurisdiction to hear cases regarding divorce, employment dismissal, robbery and intentional homicide.

Administrative District Court (1)

(5 regional branches)

First instance court.
Administrative jurisdiction.

District Prosecution
Offices (37)