

MONTAIGNE CENTRE

MONTAIGNE CENTRE FOR JUDICIAL ADMINISTRATION AND CONFLICT RE

Universiteit Utrecht

In partnership with: Lappeenranta University of Technology (LUT)
University of Debrecen (DU) University of Limoges (UL), The Institute of Research of Judicial Systems, Bologna, (IRSIG-CNR)

with the financial support of European Commission, Directorate General Justice and Consumers
Grant JUST/2015/JACC/AG/QUAL/8547

Website: www.lut.fi/hwc

Thursday November 9 arrival of participants

18.00 hours Collection of participants at the Malie hotel for diner at restaurant
Mori, Lange Nieuwstraat 21, 3512 PB Utrecht

HANDLE WITH CARE! Expert meeting, 10 November 2017

Venue: Faculty club, Kanunnikenzaal and Sterrecamer, Achter de Dom 7, 3512 JN Utrecht,
The Netherlands.

Draft Programme

- | | |
|------------|---|
| 9.15-9.30 | Welcome Philip Langbroek
Introduction Francesco Contini. |
| 9.30-11.00 | National and comparative reports (issues)
Some research findings [30 min]
Caroline Foulquier: setting the scene, general trends
Petra Pekkanen Budgeting and workload based systems (NL, FI, FR) versus historical series (IT, HU). Advantages and criticalities of new workload based budgeting mechanisms.
Francesco Contini: Balancing individual and organisational evaluation
The experts' perspectives [50 min].
Question and discussion [10 min] |

Primary scope of the session: validation

11.00-11.15 Coffee/Tea break

11.15-13.00 Innovative practices

The researchers' picks [30 min]

Organisation of Knowledge (NL), Rovaniemi (FI), Debrecen Model (HU), Common Practice - Osservatori (IT), Role of the School of the Magistracy in improving judicial writing (FR).

Comments and integrations from the field [60 minutes]

Feedback and conclusions from researchers [15 min]

Primary scope of the session: validation and joint reflection

13.00-14.15 Lunch

14.15-15.45 Methodologies and approaches to evaluation in judiciaries

Philip Langbroek and Mátyás Bencze [30 min]

Feedback from experts and joint reflection [60 min]

Primary scope of the session: joint reflection

15.45-16.00 Coffee/Tea break

16.00- 17.30 Innovation in developing the quality of justice: the role of EU, COE and research

Round table [45min max]

We can organise this session as a round table Niovi Ringou (or another DG Justice representative), Simona Granata Menghini (Venice Commission and other instances of COE), Laetitia Brunin (CEPEJ), Philip Langbroek and Marco Fabri (the role of research). About 10 minutes per speaker.

Open discussion [45 min max],

Primary scope: joint reflection and validation of the research results and of the role of research, exploration of possible forms of collaboration.

17.30 Drinks

19.00 Dinner at restaurant De Artisjok, Nieuwegracht 33, 3512 LD Utrecht.