

Autobiography of Intercultural Encounters

Module 1

Activity 3: The Who I am section of the AIE

Imad's Who I am

How would you define yourself?

Think about things that are especially important to you in how you think about yourself and how you like others to see you.*

I am first and foremost a human being. My name is Imad. I am 22 years old and I was born and currently live with my mother in a small country in the Middle East. I am the youngest brother to two loving guys and currently a student of Public Health and Development Sciences. I hope to achieve a lot during the course of my life by making a difference, starting with myself and then reaching to others in various communities around the world.

*Here are some elements you may wish to include if you find them to be an important part of your identity: your name, age, gender, nationality, ethnic group, country, region or community where you live or come from, religion, languages, etc. Or you could include being a son/daughter, brother/sister, school student, member of a sports team, member of any other type of club, etc.