TASKs for Democracy - transversal attitudes, skills and knowledge
COMPETENCES FOR DEMOCRATIC CULTURE
Living together as equals in culturally diverse democratic societies

Developing competences for democracy: 60 activities to learn and assess Transversal Attitudes, Skills and Knowledge (TASKs) is a handbook for practitioners in formal and non-formal educational settings, developed within the Pestalozzi Programme Community of Practice.

TRANSVERSAL ATTITUDES,
SKILLS AND KNOWLEDGE
FOR DEMOCRACY

Physical education and Sport for Democracy and Human rights (SPORT)

This is a trainer training course organized by the Pestalozzi Programme of the Council of Europe in cooperation with the Enlarged Partial Agreement on Sport (EPAS) of the Council of Europe (2 modules).

- We worked with tools and methods that empower education professionals and improve their transversal attitude skills and knowledge in the field of Physical education.
- We worked for more than 18 months.
- We created 21 Training Units

Our training activities seek to develop transversal attitudes, skills and knowledge to maintain and develop democratic societies that develop the following competences of educators:

- critical observation from different perspectives;
- actions based on respect for human rights and dignity;
- the ability to act democratically and to co-operate;
- understanding of diversity and the ability to live in diversity;
- understanding of the past and the present, and the ability to project oneself into the future;
- the ability to communicate across all kinds and types of borders;
- critical, responsible and beneficial use of the media environment;
- the ability and readiness to continue to learn throughout one's life;
- principles of tolerance in any form and situation.

Building empathy

We can:

- Explore identity
 - Establish fairness
 - Raise awareness of stereotypes
 - Develop tolerance, respect, acceptance
 - Cultivate curiosity
 - Challenge prejudice
 - Inspire action and social change
 - Listen hard and be vulnerable with an open-mind
