Welcome to the Council of Europe

The Secretariat of the Schools of Political Studies warmly welcomes the over 500 participants from the Schools who are here in Strasbourg for the Sixth World Forum for Democracy.

- The Forum intends to be a place where you – young democratic leaders – are exposed to cutting-edge ideas and first-rate discussion on issues relating to democracy. This year's forum will focus on the role of political parties and media in the context of rising populism in Europe and beyond.
- The Forum is a place to exchange your experiences and to address your questions on the topics under review. We encourage you to share your knowledge and to use this event as an opportunity for mutual learning.
- In addition to the main Forum programme, a series of meetings and events has been designed specifically for the Schools. This brochure provides information on the following elements:

- ▶ Networking lunches;
- ▶ Meetings between participants from different Schools;
- ▶ Visits to the European Court of Human Rights;
- ▶ The Diploma ceremony and the "family photograph";
- ▶ Side Event in the City: Debate by the Association of Schools of Political Studies (ASPS)

- You will also find an insert with a list of the Schools' participants at the Forum. Please use it to meet people from other Schools and to network.
- The Schools' Secretariat looks forward to meeting you and hopes you will take full advantage of all these events as well as the Forum itself. Enjoy, network, and help build a brighter future!

Networking Lunches

The Networking Lunches are open only to those participants who have registered in advance. They will take place on Wednesday 8 November 13.15-15.00, Thursday 9 November 13.00-14.30, and Friday 10 November 12.30-13.30 in the Restaurant of the European Parliament.

The idea behind the Networking Lunch is to create an informal environment in which you can meet other young professionals from other Schools with similar interests and ambitions. You will have the chance to share experiences of democracy in your own country as well as to exchange opinions on the topic of this year's forum. Tables in the European Parliament cafeteria will be organised by language and by field of activity.

You have been assigned to a table in the European Parliament for one of the dates mentioned above. Please consult the table plans when you enter the restaurant.

All other participants will have lunch in the main part of the restaurant.

Populism: a force for good or ill?

Speakers:

Catherine Lalumière (France) – President of the Association of Schools of Political Studies and former Secretary General of the Council of Europe

Ana Gomes (Portugal) – Member of the European Parliament

Krzysztof Bobinski (Poland) – President of the Unia & Polska Foundation in Warsaw

Emil Pain (Russia) – Professor of economics, National Research University in Moscow

Quentin Peel (United Kingdom) – Fellow of the Europe Programme at Chatham House

Moderator:

Fernanda Gabriel (Portugal) – Radio-Televisão Portuguesa

Over the past few years, populist parties have cemented their place in the European political spectrum and are increasingly dominating public debate. Can such a movement, which is often based on simplistic versions of reality and the myth of giving power back to the people, ever have a positive effect on democracy? Or is it a force for evil, destined to distort the democratic functioning of modern states?
