The Ministry of Culture and Media of the Republic of Serbia confirms its commitment to strengthening the overall protection and safety of journalists and building trust and enabling environment for journalists and media workers. The project entitled Media Freedom and the Safety of Journalists in Serbia prepared by the Independent Association of Journalists of Serbia in cooperation with the OSCE was cofinanced by the Ministry on its open call in the field of media professionalization in 2016 and 2017. At the conference, the main findings of the research Indicators for the level of media freedom and the safety of journalists in Serbia were presented to journalists, media workers, representatives of the prosecution and international journalist associations.
