Information on the implementation of Article 2 (e.g. interpretation of “by fleeing to”):	Serbia interprets “ by fleeing to” in a broad sense in order to allow the enforcement of a sentence imposed abroad in the country of nationality.

Information on the implementation of Article 3 (e.g. interpretation of the requirement of a consequential link between the decision on expulsion and the sentence):	According to Article 88 of The Criminal Code of the Republic of Serbia, the court may order expulsion from the territory of Serbia of a foreigner who committed a criminal offence for a period of one to ten years. The court shall take into consideration the time and gravity of a committed offence, motives for committing of the offence, manner of commission and other circumstances for declaring the foreigner a persona non grata in Serbia. The period of expulsion commences on the day the decision becomes effective, and the time spent in prison shall not be credited to the term of this measure. The expulsion shall not be ordered against an offender enjoying protection pursuant to the ratified international treaties.
