

Good morning Ladies and Gentlemen,

I am very grateful for this gesture. This is a golden opportunity for me and I want to say a few things about the women in Pakistan and whatever I have done for them and that it has been appreciated by the whole world.

First of all, I have given top priority to education. I now have two schools, one for girls and one for boys and the total strength is around 1000 students. They are given free education, free school uniforms, free books and free transport (pick and drop services).

With limited resources I have done a lot for the empowerment of Pakistani women and I still intend to do more. It is of great importance that with this work there has been a dramatic change in the life of Pakistani women in the field of domestic violence and denial of education. Now women are getting courageous and asking for equal rights, equal freedoms and equal education. Now there are women's shelters where they are getting legal aid. All the victims of mental torture are being treated. I have constructed a hospital for the poor people, there is a free camp for them and they get treated by the doctors.

There are baseless allegations, personal enmity and senseless killing for one's honour. I want to stop all this and I am doing my best to fight injustice meted out to such victims. I am fighting for my own case which is still pending in the Supreme Court of Pakistan.

I want to thank all of you.

My motto is to eradicate injustice and social evil from its roots through education.

Thank you very much.