Eurimages Support Decisions January 2025

Film Marketing & Audience Development Support

The results of the first call for Eurimages' new Film Marketing & Audience Development Support Programme have just been announced.

Launched in the 2nd half of 2024, this new programme aims to encourage the early stage use by producers of innovative marketing solutions to develop audiences for films already supported by the Fund's Co-production Support Programme.

Further to recommendations made by a panel of experts, the Executive Committee of Eurimages has decided to support 15 feature films, including 2 documentaries and 4 animations, with a total of €729 900.

The successful applications were made by the lead producers of the following projects:
