STAFF REGULATIONS

Preamble

The Staff Regulations set out the fundamental conditions of service and the basic rights, duties and obligations of the Council of Europe staff. They enshrine the broad principles of staff policy for the guidance of the Secretary General in the staffing and administration of the Secretariat. The Secretary General, who is responsible to the Committee of Ministers for the work of the Secretariat, shall adopt and enforce Rules as necessary for the effective implementation of the Staff Regulations and for the management of staff in a manner consistent with these Staff Regulations. The Secretary General may delegate such of her/his powers, including the powers to adopt legally binding texts, as she/he considers necessary for the effective implementation of the Staff Rules.

These responsibilities and powers shall be exercised by the Secretary General in accordance with the principles and ideals promoted by the Organisation, and in particular the rights and principles of the revised European Social Charter and the European Convention on the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms, insofar as these are applicable to an international organisation. In the management of staff, the Secretary General shall endeavour to guarantee staff members' rights and fundamental conditions of employment, in accordance with the general principles of international civil service law.

These Regulations shall apply to any person who, under the conditions set out herein, has been appointed as a member of staff ("official") of the Council of Europe. They shall not apply to temporary or local staff, trainees or seconded officials, unless the Secretary General has rendered certain provisions applicable to them by way of a Rule.

STAFF REGULATIONS

ARTICLE I

Duties, Obligations and Privileges

1.1 Staff members of the Council of Europe are international civil servants. By accepting appointment, staff members of the Council of Europe pledge themselves to discharge their duties and to regulate their conduct with the sole interests of the Council of Europe in mind.

1.2 Each staff member shall subscribe to the declaration below in writing. The declaration shall also be made orally before the Secretary General by staff members of grades A6 and A7:

“I solemnly declare that I shall exercise the duties entrusted to me as an international civil servant of the Council of Europe in all loyalty, discretion and conscience, respecting the confidence placed in me and with the sole interests of the Council of Europe in mind. I will not seek or accept any instructions in regard to the performance of my duties from any government or other party external to the Organisation.”

1.3 Staff members are subject to the authority of the Secretary General and to assignment by the Secretary General to any of the activities or duty stations of the Council of Europe. They are accountable to the Secretary General in the exercise of their functions.

1.4 Staff members are responsible for carrying out the tasks entrusted to them. They shall comply with the instructions of their managers, except where the instruction given is manifestly unlawful. Where the instruction given is lawful but the staff member considers it to be unethical or has serious concerns about its possible consequences for the Organisation, the staff member shall act in accordance with procedures to be established by the Secretary General.

1.5 Staff members shall abide by these Regulations and all other Regulations adopted by the Committee of Ministers, and by the Code of Conduct and all Staff Rules, Instructions and Policies issued by the Secretary General or through the exercise of delegated authority.

1.6 Staff members who become aware of any action which they consider to be wrongdoing affecting the public interest shall make a report in accordance with the Organisation’s reporting policies.

1.7 In the performance of their duties, staff members shall neither seek nor accept instructions from any government, authority, non-governmental organisation or other third party.

1.8 No staff member shall accept or hold any office, or engage in any occupation, which is incompatible with their status as an international civil servant.

1.9 Any staff member who becomes a candidate for public office of a political character, including at the local level, shall be placed on unpaid leave. A staff member who is elected and accepts the office shall resign from the Secretariat.

1.10 No staff member shall accept any honour, decoration, favour, gift or remuneration from any government, or from any other source external to the Organisation, if such acceptance is incompatible with their status as an international civil servant.

1.11 Staff members shall conduct themselves at all times in a manner compatible with their status as international civil servants. They shall avoid any action and in particular any kind of public statement which may adversely reflect on the Organisation or on their status. While they are not expected to give up their national affiliation or their political or religious convictions, they shall at all times bear in mind the reserve and tact incumbent upon them by reason of their status.

1.12 Staff members shall exercise the utmost discretion with regard to all official matters. They shall not communicate to any person any information known to them by reason of their official position which has not been made public, except in the course of their duties or by authorisation of the Secretary General. At no time shall they in any way use to private advantage information known to them by reason of their official position. These obligations do not cease with termination of service.

1.13 The privileges, immunities and facilities attaching to the Council of Europe by virtue of Article 40 of the Statute of the Council of Europe and the General Agreement on Privileges and Immunities are conferred solely in the interests of the Organisation and not for the personal benefit of staff members. These privileges and immunities provide no excuse to staff members for non-performance of their private obligations or failure to observe laws and regulations.

1.14 All rights in any work or intellectual property created by staff members as part of their official duties shall be owned by the Organisation.

STAFF RULE ON DUTIES, OBLIGATIONS AND PRIVILEGES

110. CONFLICT OF INTEREST

110.1 All staff members shall endeavour to avoid conflicts of interest, whether actual, potential or perceived, in the performance of their duties. Where conflicts of interest do arise, they must be declared as soon as they are known in line with the applicable procedures, in order that they can be effectively identified and managed.

110.2 Conflicts of interest arise where a staff member has a personal interest which is such as to influence, or appear to influence, the impartial and objective performance of their duties. A personal interest includes any advantage to the staff member; to their close relatives² or others with whom the staff member has a close personal relationship; or to persons or organisations with whom the staff member has, has had, or may expect to have, business or other connections. It also includes any liability, financial or civil, on the part of the staff member or the above-mentioned categories of persons or organisations. A conflict of interest may also arise where a staff member is involved in a decision-making process regarding a person in respect of whom, for whatever reason, they are unable to be entirely neutral and objective. If in doubt as to whether a conflict of interest may arise in a particular situation, staff members may consult the Ethics Officer for advice.

- 110.3 Staff members involved in procurement, grant awards and recruitment must take particular care to avoid conflicts of interest, since these pose a particular risk where a staff member is responsible for deciding on whether third parties will benefit from the Organisation in some way, whether through a contract, a grant, employment by the Organisation or another advantage.
- 110.4 No staff member shall work in the same entity or line of authority as a close relative. Furthermore, no staff member shall be involved in any decision-making process concerning a close relative, person with whom they are or have been in a close personal relationship, or any other person with respect to whom they are unable to be entirely neutral or objective, for whatever reason. In the event that two staff members already working in the same entity or line of authority subsequently become romantically involved, they shall inform their management in order that the situation can be addressed and managed appropriately.
- 110.5 Staff members shall recuse themselves from any decision-making process in which they may be involved which could give rise to a conflict of interest for any reason.
- 110.6 In respect of any conflict of interest that is declared, the Organisation will take appropriate measures to mitigate the risk, which may include, where necessary, the substitution of an affected staff member in a decision-making process or the transfer of one or more staff members to a different entity within the Organisation.

120. DECLARATION

- 120.1 Upon taking up their duties, all new staff members shall subscribe, in writing, to the declaration set out at Article 1.2 of the Staff Regulations. New staff members may, in addition, be invited by the Secretary General to make the declaration orally.
- 120.2 All staff members newly appointed to a job carrying grade A6 or A7 shall be invited by the Secretary General, or person to whom the Secretary General has delegated authority in such matters, to make the declaration orally. Such a declaration shall be made as soon as practically possible after the staff member takes up their duties at grade A6 or A7.

130. ACCOUNTABILITY TO THE SECRETARY GENERAL

- 130.1 Staff members are accountable to and subject to the authority of the Secretary General.
- 130.2 Staff members to whom authority has been delegated shall exercise it in compliance with the General Delegation Framework and with the terms of the instrument by means of which authority has been delegated to them.

140. INSTRUCTIONS WHICH ARE UNLAWFUL, UNETHICAL, OR RAISE SERIOUS CONCERNS

- 140.1 Where a staff member receives an instruction from a manager which the staff member considers to be manifestly unlawful, the staff member shall not act upon the instruction but shall notify the manager who gave the instruction as well as the manager's hierarchical superior of the reason why.
- 140.2 Where a staff member receives an instruction from a manager which the staff member considers to be unethical, or to raise serious concerns regarding its possible consequences for the Organisation, the staff member shall inform the manager who has given the instruction of their concerns in this regard, in writing if preferred. Where the staff member considers the instruction received to be possibly unethical, they may seek advice from the Ethics Officer prior to notifying their hierarchy of their concerns.
- 140.3 If a manager, who has been notified of a staff member's concerns regarding an instruction in accordance with the foregoing paragraph, confirms the instruction, the staff member may transmit their concerns to the manager's hierarchical superior. If the manager's hierarchical superior confirms the instruction, the staff member shall act upon it.

150. REPORTING OF WRONGDOING

- 150.1 A staff member who becomes aware of, or suspects, wrongdoing affecting the public interest must report it in accordance with Speak Up: Council of Europe Policy on reporting wrongdoing and protecting those who report.

160. OUTSIDE ACTIVITIES

- 160.1 For the purposes of this Staff Rule, an outside activity shall be understood to be an activity engaged in outside of a staff member's duties within the Organisation. A staff member's trade union activities or activities relating to staff associations subsidised by the Council of Europe shall not be considered as an outside activity.
- 160.2 No outside activity which is incompatible with the aims and values of the Council of Europe; which could bring the Organisation into disrepute or be otherwise prejudicial to the Organisation; or which conflicts with a staff member's duties or ability to carry out their work to the best of their abilities, may be undertaken. If in doubt as to whether an outside activity would comply with this paragraph, staff members may consult the Ethics Officer.
- 160.3 Where authorisation is required for an outside activity, the staff member concerned must seek such authorisation in good time. If no decision on the request for authorisation is notified to the staff member within 30 days of the submission of such a request, authorisation for the outside activity shall be deemed to have been granted.
- 160.4 Any requirement to seek authorisation prior to engaging in an outside activity shall apply equally to staff members on leave.

Outside activities relevant to the work of the Council of Europe

- 160.5 Outside activities which benefit the Organisation as a whole or the staff member in their professional capacity, as a result of their relevance to the activities of the Council of Europe, may be undertaken with the prior authorisation of the concerned staff member's direct hierarchical superior and the Head of their Major Administrative Entity or person to whom authority in such matters has been delegated. A staff member who is the Head of a Major Administrative Entity shall seek authorisation under this paragraph from the Secretary General, or person to whom authority in such matters has been delegated. Where the outside activity in question is a presentation, lecture, or similar, authorisation shall be obtained before agreeing to give it. Where the activity consists of the publication of a written work, authorisation shall be obtained before publication.
- 160.6 Staff members shall not accept remuneration for outside activities falling under the foregoing paragraph, with the exception of contributions to non-Council of Europe publications in any format, which may be remunerated.

Other outside activities

- 160.7 Outside activities which have no bearing on the Organisation's activities and are remunerated may be undertaken only with the prior authorisation of the Director of Human Resources.

170. HONOURS AND DECORATIONS

- 170.1 Staff members must seek the prior authorisation of the Secretary General before accepting an honour or a decoration from a representative of a State, whether the State is a member State of the Council of Europe or not.
- 170.2 Staff members may accept an honour or a decoration from a non-State body, institution or person, provided that such acceptance is compatible with their status as a staff member of the Council of Europe and the Organisation's values. The obligation to ensure compatibility does not cease with termination of service. If in doubt as to whether a specific honour or decoration may be accepted or not, staff members or former staff members may consult the Ethics Officer.

180. GIFTS AND OTHER FAVOURS

- 180.1 Staff members shall not, in the performance of their duties, seek or accept any gifts, favours or advantages (including fees, cash or cash equivalents) for themselves or any other person. Token or souvenir items, which are of low value and offered for promotional purposes, shall not be considered as gifts for the purposes of this Staff Rule.
- 180.2 Staff members who are not involved in procurement or grant awards may exceptionally accept gifts, the value of which is reasonably estimated at 50 Euros or less, where the giving of a gift is consistent with normal practice and it would be impolite to refuse. Where a tangible gift, the value of which is reasonably estimated at more than 50 Euros, is offered, it shall be refused or, where this is not possible, immediately returned. Staff members may seek the advice of the Ethics Officer if unsure about a gift that has been offered or received.

- 180.3 Staff members who are involved in procurement or grant awards may not accept any hospitality or gift from any person or entity in a contractual relationship with, or in receipt of a grant from, the Council of Europe, or who might reasonably be expected to seek to enter such a relationship or to obtain such a grant. Any gift, of whatever nature, shall be refused or, where this is not possible, immediately returned. Any hospitality shall be refused.
- 180.4 A staff member who accepts any gift, regardless of its value, shall declare it in line with the relevant procedures, in order that it can be recorded in a centralised register of gifts to ensure transparency.

190. STATEMENTS TO THE MEDIA AND ON SOCIAL MEDIA

- 190.1 Staff members of grade A5 and above, as well as Heads of Offices, may make statements to the media relating to the Organisation and its activities.
- 190.2 Other staff members shall obtain the prior authorisation of their closest superior of grade A5 or above or, in the case of staff members assigned to an external office, of their Head of Office, before making statements to the media.
- 190.3 No staff member shall make any statement to the media or on social media which is incompatible with their status as a staff member or with the values of the Council of Europe, or which could be prejudicial in any way to the Organisation.

1100. EVIDENCE IN LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

- 1100.1 A staff member shall not, without the consent of the Secretary General, make use in legal proceedings, for any purpose whatever, of information within the meaning of Article 1.12 of the Staff Regulations. Consent shall be given by the Secretary General provided that there is no danger of prejudice to the overriding interests of the Council. This prohibition shall continue after termination of service.

1110. PRIVILEGES AND IMMUNITIES

- 1110.1 In the event that privileges and immunities pursuant to Article 1.13 of the Staff Regulations are invoked, the staff member concerned shall immediately inform the Secretary General.
- 1110.2 Staff members may not themselves relinquish their immunities without the permission of the Secretary General, who shall if necessary take the decision to waive them.

220.3 Each staff member shall have a personal administrative file, kept by the Directorate of Human Resources, containing:

- All documents concerning the staff member's administrative status as well as all reports or other documents relating to the staff member's performance or conduct; and
- Any comments on such documents by the staff member.

220.4 The personal administrative file shall not contain any document which is unknown to the staff member concerned.

220.5 Staff members shall be entitled to access their personal administrative file upon request. They shall be entitled to comment on any document contained therein.

220.6 A staff member's personal administrative file shall be confidential. It may be accessed, where necessary to carry out duties arising from the Staff Regulations or Staff Rules by the Secretary General and any person exercising authority delegated directly by the Secretary General; the Director of Human Resources; and the Director of Internal Oversight and any persons tasked with carrying out an investigation in conformity with the Rule on Investigations.

220.7 Access to a staff member's personal administrative file may furthermore be granted to the Administrative Tribunal of the Council of Europe and the Joint Advisory Committee on Discipline upon request by those entities.

220.8 Persons other than those mentioned in the preceding two paragraphs may be granted access, by the Director of Human Resources, to such elements of a staff member's personal administrative file as are necessary for the accomplishment of their tasks. Such access shall be granted on a strict need-to-know basis.

220.9 The Appointments Review Committee may be granted access to any documents in the personal administrative file of a staff member whose employment situation is under consideration by the Committee, in conformity with its mandate, concerning that staff member's performance or conduct.

220.10 Each staff member shall also have a medical file, which shall be kept by the Medical Service. The medical file shall be confidential and shall not contain any document which is unknown to the staff member concerned, who shall be able to access their medical file upon request to the Medical Service.

230. RIGHT TO STRIKE

230.1 For the purposes of this Staff Rule, a strike shall be understood as a collective planned work stoppage of any duration, conducted in a peaceful manner, which is aimed at furthering the interests of staff members of the Organisation when social dialogue has failed.

230.2 Staff members who intend to strike shall notify the Staff Committee as soon as possible, and in any event in sufficient time to permit the Staff Committee to adhere to the deadline in the following paragraph.

- 230.3 The Staff Committee shall notify the Secretary General of any planned strike. This notice shall be given at least five working days before the planned strike; shall specify the grounds for the strike; and shall state precisely how and when the strike shall be carried out.
- 230.4 The Director General of Administration, in consultation with the Staff Committee, shall prepare a list of jobs which are indispensable for the safety and security of persons or property. Holders of such jobs shall not participate in a strike.
- 230.5 Subject to the foregoing paragraph, no hindrance or pressure shall be placed upon staff members in deciding to strike or not to strike. Staff members who decide not to strike shall be guaranteed free access to the workplace.

Heads of Major Entities shall, on the basis of such notifications, submit a list to the Director General of Administration of staff members intending to strike, within three days of the notice of strike.
- 230.7 The Director General of Administration shall decide, in consultation with the Staff Committee, whether any staff members who have given notice of their intention to strike in accordance with the foregoing paragraph are indispensable at the time of the planned strike for the safety and security of persons or property. Such staff members shall be notified accordingly and shall be required to perform their duties as normal. The Staff Committee shall be informed of the names of all staff members requisitioned in accordance with this paragraph.
- 230.8 The proportion of their basic salary corresponding to the time spent absent from their duties shall be withheld from staff members participating in a strike. In the event of a strike which has not been organised in compliance with the foregoing paragraphs, the minimum amount withheld from participating staff members shall be half a day's basic salary. The Secretary General may, in the interests of the Organisation, decide to waive the aforementioned deduction of salary.
- 230.9 Staff members may be required to report their participation in a strike upon resumption of their duties, in order to facilitate the effective implementation of the foregoing paragraph.

240. RIGHT TO PROTECTION IN OFFICIAL CAPACITY

- 240.1 Staff members may seek the assistance of the Secretary General to protect their material or non-material interests and those of their close relatives where these interests have been harmed, by reason of their being a staff member of the Council and without fault or negligence on their part, by actions directed against them by persons or authorities external to the Organisation.
- 240.2 The Secretary General shall decide whether the conditions in the foregoing paragraph are met; what form of assistance shall be provided; and the amount up to which costs incurred in the defence of the interests referred to above shall be paid by the Organisation, including the costs of any legal action.

- 240.3 If the Secretary General decides that legal action in defence of the interests referred to above may result in harm to the Organisation, the persons concerned may be requested not to take such action. If the persons concerned accede to such a request, the Organisation shall make good the damage suffered by them, provided that they assign their rights to the Organisation.

3.3 Appropriate arrangements shall be made by the Secretary General for the classification of jobs and staff according to the nature of the duties and responsibilities required.

3.4 The Secretary General shall make provisions to enable passage between categories.

STAFF RULE ON CLASSIFICATION OF JOBS

310. CLASSIFICATION PROCESS

310.1 Job classification shall ensure compliance between a grade and the level of duties and responsibilities assigned to a corresponding job, promote coherence of grades within categories across the Organisation and contribute to the sound management of jobs.

310.2 Evaluation is a systemic approach to fit a job into the established job structure comprised of categories and grades. It shall be carried out in accordance with the Council of Europe's job classification methodology and reference jobs.

320. EVALUATION PROCEDURE

320.1 Evaluation shall be conducted under the authority of the Director of Human Resources.

320.2 Evaluation will be carried out when a vacancy is to be advertised, or a new job established.

320.3 When reorganisation of a Major Administrative Entity substantially changes the responsibilities of jobs within the Major Administrative Entity concerned, the overall grade structure of this Major Administrative Entity will be evaluated.

- 320.4 An overall job classification review may be carried out when deemed necessary in light of the way in which a job family, or job families, have evolved in the labour market.

330. EFFECT OF RE-GRADING ON A JOB HOLDER

- 330.1 When, following an evaluation procedure the grade of a job moves down, the incumbent shall maintain their category and grade.
- 330.2 When, following an evaluation procedure, the grade of a job moves up to A6 or A7, the incumbent shall maintain their category and grade.
- 330.3 When, following an evaluation procedure the grade of a job moves up, the Secretary General shall decide, based on a recommendation by the Appointments Review Committee, whether or not to promote the incumbent to the grade of the job.
- 330.4 Any promotion of the incumbent shall take effect on the date when the job was upgraded, with the exception of staff members undergoing a probationary period for whom the effective date shall be the date of their confirmation in employment.
- 330.5 If the Secretary General considers that the incumbent does not meet the requirements for promotion, the job shall be opened for internal competition in accordance with the relevant rules after the incumbent has been appointed to another job.

340. PASSAGE BETWEEN CATEGORIES

- 340.1 A staff member who holds an open-ended contract or an indefinite term contract, and has been employed in the same category for at least six years, is eligible to apply to participate in an internal competition in respect of a vacancy in a category other than that to which they are currently assigned.
- 340.2 A trial period shall be obligatory for all staff members who change category following an internal competition.
- 340.3 If, at the end of the trial period, the Secretary General decides not to confirm the staff member's appointment, they shall be assigned to a job at the grade held prior to such appointment.
- 340.4 When a staff member successfully participates in an internal competition for a job advertised at C1/C2, B1/B2, L1/L2 or A1/A2/A3 level, the staff member's grade shall be determined by application, mutatis mutandis, of Article 440 of the Staff Rule on entry into service.
- 340.5 The salary of a staff member who changes category following an internal competition shall be determined by comparing the salary scales corresponding to the category of the new job and the job held by the staff member prior to assignment to that job. If the basic salary corresponding to the highest step of the grade to which the staff member is assigned is lower than the basic salary corresponding to the highest step of the grade held by the staff member prior to assignment, the staff member shall be placed at the step in the new salary scale which results in the smallest possible reduction in basic salary. If the basic salary corresponding to the highest step of the grade to which the staff member is assigned is higher than the basic salary corresponding to the highest step of the grade held by the staff member prior to assignment, the staff member shall be placed at the step providing an increase in basic salary equal to at least the amount that would have resulted from one step advancement at the grade they held in the previous category.

STAFF REGULATIONS

Only citizens of member States shall be eligible for appointment as staff members. Due regard shall be paid to the importance of recruiting staff members on as wide a geographical basis as possible and of achieving gender parity.

4.3 Selection shall be made on a competitive basis, without discrimination, in a manner that ensures the fairness and transparency of the process.

4.4 Staff members shall initially be appointed for a fixed-term period defined by contract. The Secretary General may decide to extend a fixed-term appointment for a further fixed term, once or several times, for a total duration of service not exceeding four years.

420. NON-DISCRIMINATION

420.1 Specific conditions for appointment, including but not limited to age, physical capacities, language skills, and citizenship of a particular member State, may be set in respect of vacancies provided that such conditions have an objective and reasonable justification.

420.2 The Secretary General may decide that candidates who have expressed opinions that are manifestly incompatible with the fundamental principles enshrined in the Statute of the Council of Europe and the European Convention on Human Rights shall not be recruited.

430. EQUALITY OF OPPORTUNITY

430.1 At the time of appointment, preference between suitable candidates shall be given to the candidate of the gender which is under-represented in the relevant grades within the category to which the vacancy belongs.

430.2 A gender is under-represented when the proportion of staff of that gender in the relevant grades within the category to which the vacancy belongs is below 45%.

430.3 The Council of Europe shall implement measures to facilitate access to recruitment procedures for candidates who have disabilities.

440. BEGINNING OF CAREER APPOINTMENT

440.1 Beginning of career appointment shall be made to the category and grade as advertised in the corresponding vacancy notice.

STAFF RULE ON TERMINATION OF SERVICE

610. FIXED-TERM APPOINTMENTS

610.1 Fixed-term appointments shall end on expiry, unless renewed.

610.2 A fixed-term contract shall not be renewed if, inter alia:

610.2.1 the staff member's knowledge, skills and competencies are no longer needed to fulfil needs identified by the Organisation;

610.2.2 there is no secured funding; or

610.2.3 the staff member's performance or conduct have been unsatisfactory.

610.3 Non-renewal of a fixed-term contract shall not give rise to any right to payment of an indemnity.

610.4 At least three months prior to the expiry of their fixed-term contract, unless the contract is renewed, the staff member concerned shall be given written confirmation that their contract will end on expiry.

620. RESIGNATION

620.1 A staff member whose appointment has been confirmed pursuant to paragraph 4130.3 of the Staff Rule on entry into service may resign by giving three months' notice, in writing, to the Director of Human Resources. The notice period shall run for three calendar months following the end of the month in which the staff member gave notice. The Secretary General may, at the staff member's request, shorten this period.

620.2 The Secretary General may refuse to accept a staff member's resignation if disciplinary proceedings against that staff member are pending at the date of the resignation or are instigated within the following 30 days.

630. UPPER AGE LIMIT

630.1 A staff member's employment shall terminate, at the latest, on the last day of the month in which the staff member reaches the age of 65 years.

630.2 The Secretary General may, on an exceptional basis and in the sole interests of the Organisation, derogate from the foregoing paragraph by asking a staff member who meets the physical requirements for the relevant job to remain in service beyond the age limit of 65 years, until at the latest the last day of the month in which the staff member reaches the age of 67 years. In such cases, the following provisions shall apply:

630.2.1 The Secretary General shall make a written proposal to the staff member concerned at least three months before the staff member reaches the age of 65 years. The proposal shall set out details of the job to be held and the activities to be carried out, as well as the duration of the prolongation.

630.2.2 The staff member shall inform the Secretary General in writing, within one month of receipt of the proposal, whether or not they accept it.

630.2.3 Staff members retained in service beyond the age of 65 years may not participate in any internal competition or be transferred. They are not entitled to take unpaid leave.

630.2.4 The other conditions of employment and remuneration of a staff member retained in service beyond the age of 65 years shall be the same as if the staff member in question had not reached the upper age limit for employment. In particular, such staff members shall continue to be entitled to step advancements, indemnities and allowances and shall also benefit from leave entitlement and part-time work arrangements under the same conditions as other staff members.

- 630.2.5 Staff members shall acquire no additional pension rights after reaching 65 years of age. No contribution to the Organisation's pension schemes shall be levied upon the staff member concerned nor paid by the Organisation for their benefit to the Organisation's or any other pension scheme. Staff members may not receive their pension under the Organisation's pension scheme during their employment beyond 65 years of age. They shall not be eligible for an invalidity pension.
- 630.2.6 The health insurance cover of the staff member concerned shall be maintained solely as regards the reimbursement of medical expenses. They shall not be eligible for benefits payable in the event of permanent total invalidity, permanent partial invalidity or death. As regards temporary incapacity, the absence of more than 90 days' duration for health reasons of a staff member retained in service beyond the age of 65 years shall constitute a ground for termination of their employment without notice and without the payment of an indemnity. In the event that employment is terminated pursuant to this paragraph, the person concerned shall become immediately entitled to their pension benefits, if applicable.
- 630.2.7 Staff members retained in service beyond the age of 65 years shall not be eligible for an indemnity for loss of job.

640. INVALIDITY

- 640.1 Where the Secretary General has decided, in accordance with the relevant Pension Scheme Rules, to grant an invalidity pension to a staff member, the employment of that staff member shall terminate at the end of the month in which the aforementioned decision is taken.

650. TERMINATION WITHOUT PRIOR NOTICE OR PAYMENT OF AN INDEMNITY

- 650.1 The employment of a staff member may be terminated without prior notice and without the payment of an indemnity on the following grounds:

Job abandonment

- 650.2 The unauthorised absence of a staff member, for a duration of more than 10 consecutive working days, shall be deemed to be job abandonment unless the absence was caused by forces beyond the staff member's control. The Organisation shall make all reasonable efforts to contact the staff member before terminating their employment. Should all such efforts fail or should the staff member indicate that they do not intend to return to work, the staff member's employment shall be terminated effective as of the first day of their absence.

Dismissal on disciplinary grounds

- 650.3 Termination of a staff member's employment as a disciplinary sanction shall be governed by the provisions of Article 12 of the Staff Regulations and the Staff Rule on discipline.

- 650.4 Where the Secretary General has decided to terminate a staff member's employment for disciplinary reasons, the decision referred to at paragraphs 1250.1 and 1250.3 of the Staff Rule on discipline shall include the effective date of the termination.
- 650.5 The final salary of a staff member whose employment has been terminated for job abandonment or on disciplinary grounds shall, where applicable, be pro-rated in accordance with paragraph 720.3 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances.

660. TERMINATION WITH PRIOR NOTICE AND PAYMENT OF AN INDEMNITY

Unsatisfactory performance

- 660.1 In the event that the Secretary General has taken a decision, pursuant to paragraph 510.11 of the Staff Rule on career development, to terminate a staff member's contract as a result of unsatisfactory performance or conduct, the prior notice period provided for at Article 680 below shall be observed and the indemnity provided for at Article 690 below shall be paid.
- 660.2 The indemnity provided for at Article 690 shall be reduced by 50% in cases where the unsatisfactory performance or conduct results from negligence or lack of willingness on the part of the staff member concerned. A decision to reduce the indemnity in accordance with this paragraph shall be taken in the same manner as provided for at paragraph 510.11 of the Staff Rule on career development.

Medically certified inaptitude

- 660.3 The fixed-term contract of a staff member, whose medically certified state of health falls short of permanent total invalidity leading to the grant of an invalidity pension, but is such as to justify the presumption that they will be unable to perform their duties satisfactorily during the remainder of their term of appointment, may be terminated subject to the prior notice period provided for at Article 680 below and payment of the indemnity provided for at Article 690 below.
- 660.4 A staff member holding an open-ended or indefinite-term contract, whose medically certified state of health falls short of permanent total invalidity leading to the grant of an invalidity pension, but is such as to justify the presumption that they will be unable to perform their current job in future, shall be redeployed as described in Article 670, provided that a job compatible with their state of health and corresponding to their experience and qualifications can be identified.

Modification of a staff member's job

- 660.5 In the event of the modification of a staff member's job in such a way that the staff member no longer has the requisite competencies, qualifications or experience, the staff member's contract shall, subject to paragraph 660.6 below, be terminated. The prior notice period provided for at Article 680 below shall be observed and the indemnity provided for at Article 690 below shall be paid.

660.6 A staff member to whom the foregoing paragraph applies and who holds an open-ended or an indefinite-term contract shall be eligible to be considered for redeployment, as described in Article 670 below.

Suppression of a staff member's job

660.7 In the event of the suppression of a staff member's job, their contract shall, subject to paragraph 660.8 below, be terminated. The prior notice period provided for at Article 680 below shall be observed and the indemnity provided for at Article 690 below shall be paid.

660.8 A staff member to whom the foregoing paragraph applies and who holds an open-ended or an indefinite-term contract shall be eligible to be considered for redeployment, as described in Article 670 below.

Reduction of staff

660.9 In the event that the interests of the Organisation require a reduction of staff, staff members' contracts may, subject to paragraph 660.10 below, be terminated. The prior notice period provided for at Article 680 below shall be observed and the indemnity provided for at Article 690 below shall be paid.

660.10 A staff member who holds an open-ended or an indefinite-term contract and whose job is affected by the foregoing paragraph shall be eligible to be considered for redeployment, as described in Article 670 below.

660.11 When redeployment of certain staff members is considered pursuant to the foregoing paragraph, the factors that shall be taken into account shall include: performance and conduct; qualifications and competencies; the prospective needs of the Organisation; length of service; geographical distribution and gender parity.

670. REDEPLOYMENT

670.1 The decision to redeploy a staff member shall be based on the interests of the Organisation and the necessity of securing the highest standards of efficiency, competence, integrity and conduct.

670.2 In cases falling under paragraphs 660.4, 660.6, 640.8 and 640.10 above, and with due regard to the foregoing paragraph, the Secretary General shall make best efforts, during the three months following the notice of termination of contract, to identify another job within the Organisation that corresponds to the competencies, qualifications and experience of the staff member concerned. If a suitable job is identified and accepted by the staff member during this three-month period, the notice of termination of contract shall be null and void and the staff member shall continue in the employment of the Organisation. If no suitable job has been identified or if the staff member has refused one or more job offers, the staff member's employment shall terminate at the end of the three-month notice period.

670.3 A staff member who is being considered for redeployment may be offered a job at the same grade as the job held, or the grade immediately below. Acceptance by the staff member of a job at the grade immediately below shall entail a corresponding change in their grade and salary. The staff member shall be placed at the step in the new grade which results in the smallest possible reduction in basic salary from that which the staff member received in their previous grade.

- 670.4 The refusal of a job offer by a staff member who is being considered for redeployment shall not preclude another job offer being made to the same staff member, should a further suitable job be identified. However, refusal of more than one job, corresponding to the staff member's competencies, qualifications and experience and entailing no change of grade or of duty station, shall be deemed to be a waiver by the staff member of the right to the indemnity for loss of job referred to at Article 690 below.

680. NOTICE PERIOD

- 680.1 The fixed-term, open-ended or indefinite-term contract of a staff member whose appointment has been confirmed pursuant to paragraph 4130.3 of the Staff Rule on entry into service may be terminated with three months' notice. The Secretary General shall, prior to giving notice of termination of contract, consult the Committee on Staff Matters in accordance with paragraph 1340.5 of the Staff Rule on staff participation. The notice period shall run for three calendar months following the end of the month in which notice is given.
- 680.2 The Secretary General may pay compensation in lieu of all or part of the notice period, where it is in the interests of the Organisation to do so. The amount paid shall be calculated on the basis of the remuneration that the staff member would have received had their contract been terminated at the end of the notice period.
- 680.3 Notice shall be given in writing and shall state the reasons for the termination of contract.

690. INDEMNITY FOR LOSS OF JOB

- 690.1 An indemnity shall be payable to a staff member whose appointment has been confirmed pursuant to paragraph 4130.3 of the Staff Rule on entry into service, and whose contract is terminated for any of the reasons listed in Article 6.5 of the Staff Regulations, unless paragraph 670.4 applies, and subject where applicable to paragraph 660.2, of the present Staff Rule.
- 690.2 The indemnity, which shall be paid in full to the staff member prior to the date on which they leave the Organisation, shall be calculated as provided in the following paragraphs, on the basis of the basic salary plus, where applicable, the household allowance or basic family allowance; the allowance for a dependent child or other dependant or the dependent child supplement; and the supplement for a disabled and dependent parent, of which the staff member concerned was in receipt on the date on which they left the Organisation. The number of years or parts of a year of service to be taken into account shall be those since the staff member's appointment, regardless of the nature of the contract held at the time of the service. Any periods of unpaid leave or interruptions between two contracts shall not be counted. In respect of any period of time in which a staff member worked part-time, a percentage corresponding to the percentage of full-time hours worked shall be applied to the time period in question.

Termination of a fixed-term contract

690.3 The amount of the indemnity for loss of job shall be equal to half the product of the staff member's basic salary plus, where applicable, the allowances referred to in the foregoing paragraph, multiplied by the number of months remaining up to the expiry of the term of the staff member's contract, provided that it shall in no case exceed:

690.3.1 Five months' basic salary (and the allowances referred to above, where applicable) in the case of a contract of three years' duration or less; or 690.3.2 Eight months' basic salary (and the allowances referred to above, where applicable) in the case of a contract of more than three and up to five years' duration.

Termination of an open-ended or indefinite-term contract

690.4 The amount of the indemnity shall be one month of the staff member's basic salary plus, where applicable, the allowances referred to at paragraph 690.2 above, per year of service. Partial years of service shall be reflected in the calculation by a corresponding fraction of a month's basic salary and, where applicable, the aforementioned allowances. The amount of the indemnity shall be subject to a ceiling of twenty-four months. Furthermore, the number of months, or fractions of a month, taken into account in the calculation shall not exceed the period which the staff member would still have to serve before reaching the age-limit specified in paragraph 630.1.

690.5 In calculating the amount of the indemnity for loss of job, account shall be taken, where applicable, of any prior years of service by the staff member concerned in other Co-ordinated Organisations and in respect of which they have not received any indemnity for loss of job, provided, however, that no account shall be taken of any years of service preceding an interruption of service or the termination of their service with any Co-ordinated Organisation for disciplinary reasons.

6100. SUBSEQUENT CONTRACTS WITH THE ORGANISATION

6100.1 A staff member whose employment with the Organisation has been terminated for job abandonment or on disciplinary grounds; who is in receipt of a pension or invalidity pension under one of the Organisation's Pension Schemes; or who has benefitted from a measure in the context of a departures scheme, shall never subsequently be offered an employment contract of any nature with the Organisation. A staff member who has received an indemnity for loss of job as provided in Article 690 above, other than in the context of a departure scheme, shall not be offered an employment contract of any nature with the Organisation in the two years following the termination of their previous contract.

6100.2 A staff member whose employment with the Organisation has been terminated for job abandonment or on disciplinary grounds; who is in receipt of a pension or invalidity pension under one of the Organisation's Pension Schemes; or who has benefitted from a measure in the context of a departures scheme, shall never subsequently be engaged by the Organisation as a service provider. A staff member who has received an indemnity for loss of job as provided in Article 690 above, other than in the context of a departure scheme, shall not be engaged as a service provider in the two years following the termination of their previous contract.

STAFF REGULATIONSARTICLE VII*Salaries and Allowances

7.1 Salary scales shall be determined by the Committee of Ministers yearly on the recommendation of the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration.

7.2 On the recommendation of the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration, the Committee of Ministers shall determine the amounts and the conditions for payment of the following allowances:

7.2.1 expatriation allowance;

7.2.2 installation (settling-in) allowance;

7.2.3 household allowance;

7.2.4 basic family allowance;

7.2.5 allowance in respect of dependent children or other dependants;

7.2.6 dependent child supplement;

7.2.7 supplement for disabled and dependent parent;

7.2.8 education allowance.

7.3 The Committee of Ministers' decisions related to staff members' salaries and allowances shall be implemented by the Secretary General who shall adopt relevant Staff Rules.

7.4 The basic salary of a staff member shall be determined by reference to the salary scale of the staff member's duty station. If no such salary scale exists, the basic salary shall be determined by the Secretary General on the basis of the salary scale adopted by the Committee of Ministers in respect of France, which shall be adapted to reflect the cost and conditions of living in the country concerned.

7.5 The Organisation shall be entitled to recover any undue payment to a staff member. The Secretary General shall establish the limitation periods and procedures for recovery.

7.6 Claims against the Organisation for payment of salary, allowances or any other sums due under the Regulations or Staff Rules, or for reimbursement of amounts unduly deducted from salaries, shall lapse two years after the date on which the payment would have been due or the amount was deducted.

STAFF RULE ON SALARIES AND ALLOWANCES

710. DEFINITIONS

- 710.1 “Basic salary” is the salary at a given grade and step established by a salary scale adopted by the Committee of Ministers. It is exclusive of any additions or deductions.
- 710.2 “Remuneration” is the sum of the basic salary and any of the allowances, indemnities or supplements duly paid to a staff member.
- 710.3 “Net salary” is the amount of the remuneration after authorised deductions such as contributions to medical and social insurance and pension schemes.
- 710.4 “Emoluments” are any payments made to staff members or their survivors by the Council of Europe, including but not limited to: remuneration; compensation for damages, including compensation ordered by the Administrative Tribunal; settlements; capital sums for death or disability; or payments relating to termination of service.

720. SALARY

720.1 Date of payment of salaries

Net salaries shall be paid at the latest by the final working day of the month.

720.2 Applicable salary scale

A staff member's basic salary shall be determined by reference to the salary scale, adopted by the Committee of Ministers in respect of the duty station of that staff member.

720.3 Pro-rata payments

Where a staff member works for less than a full calendar month, they shall be entitled to one-thirtieth of their net monthly salary for each day worked. All Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays included in the period starting with the date of appointment and ending with the last day of appointment shall be considered as days worked.

The salary of a staff member who works part-time shall be pro-rated according to their working time.

720.4 Remuneration in duty stations for which specific salary scales have not been adopted by the Committee of Ministers

- 720.4.1 The basic salary of staff members who are assigned to a duty station for which there is no specific salary scale shall be determined according to the salary scale adopted by the Committee of Ministers in respect of France, adjusted to the cost and conditions of living in the duty station concerned.

- 720.4.2 A coefficient, based on elements set annually by the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions reflecting the cost and conditions of living in the duty station concerned, shall be applied to the basic salary, as well as to any household allowance or basic family allowance, expatriation allowance, settling-in allowance and extra duties allowance payable to the staff member concerned. The resulting amount shall be paid as a cost and conditions of living allowance.
- 720.4.3 The cost and conditions of living allowance, referred to above, is not pensionable but shall be taken into account when levying the contributions to the medical and social insurance scheme of staff members in receipt of the aforementioned allowance.
- 720.4.4 Changes in the coefficient shall be applied each year, subject to a limit of 5% in the event of a decrease and 10% in the event of an increase, until the coefficient applied reaches the coefficient resulting from the elements provided by the International Service for Remunerations and Pensions.

730. EXPATRIATION ALLOWANCE

730.1 Staff members recruited before 1 January 1996

- 730.1.1 The expatriation allowance shall be payable to staff members who fulfilled the criteria for eligibility at the time of their appointment by the Council of Europe or, where a staff member is recruited from another co-ordinated organisation, at the time of their appointment by that organisation, for as long as they continue to be eligible.
- 730.1.2 The amount of the expatriation allowance shall be 20% of the staff member's basic salary for those in receipt of the household allowance and 16% of the basic salary for those who are not. The amount of the expatriation allowance shall in no case be less than that payable to a staff member in grade B3, step 1.

730.2 Staff members recruited after 31 December 1995 and before 1 January 2012

- 730.2.1 The expatriation allowance shall be payable to staff in categories A, L and B provided that, at the time of their appointment, they were not nationals of the duty country and had not been continuously resident in that country for at least one year, previous service in the administration of their country of citizenship or with other international organisations not being taken into account.
- 730.2.2 The amount of the expatriation allowance during the first ten years of service shall be 18% of the basic salary corresponding to the first step in the staff member's grade, for those in receipt of the household allowance, and 14% of the basic salary corresponding to the first step in the staff member's grade, for those who are not.

The amount of the expatriation allowance shall in no case be less than the amount payable in respect of that allowance to a staff member in grade B3, step 1.

Starting in the eleventh year of service, the allowance shall be reduced by one percentage point each year until it reaches 15%, for those in receipt of the household allowance, and 11% for those who are not.

Where a staff member is assigned to a new duty station in which they meet the criteria for eligibility, they shall be entitled to the expatriation allowance at the full rate which shall then be reduced in accordance with the foregoing paragraph.

For the purposes of the above-mentioned reduction scale, service with a co-ordinated organisation, another international organisation, or the administration or the military of the country of citizenship, which is performed in the duty country, shall be taken into account as if it were service with the Council of Europe.

730.3 Staff members recruited after 31 December 2011

730.3.1 The expatriation allowance shall be payable to staff in categories A, L and B provided that, at the time of their appointment, they:

- were not nationals of the duty country;
- had not been continuously resident in the duty country for one year or more; and
- were recruited from outside a radius of 100 kilometres from the duty station.

In the event that a staff member was employed by another international organisation, including a co-ordinated organisation, or by the administration or military of the country of citizenship immediately prior to appointment by the Council of Europe, the second and third criteria above shall not apply.

730.3.2 The amount of the expatriation allowance during the first five years of service shall be 10% of the basic salary corresponding to the first step of the staff member's grade. Beginning in the sixth year of service, the allowance shall be reduced by 2% each year until it reaches zero in the tenth year of service. The reduction to zero shall not affect eligibility for home leave, the education allowance or the expatriated child allowance, referred to at paragraph 730.4.4 below.

For the purposes of the above-mentioned reduction scale, service with a co-ordinated organisation, another international organisation, or the administration or the military of the country of citizenship, which is performed in the duty country, shall be taken into account as if it were service with the Council of Europe.

Where a staff member is assigned to a new duty station in which they meet the criteria for eligibility, they shall be entitled to the expatriation allowance at the full rate which shall then be reduced in accordance with the aforementioned reduction scale.

730.4 Provisions applicable to all staff eligible for the expatriation allowance

- 730.4.1 A staff member in receipt of the expatriation allowance, who is assigned to the country of which they are a national, shall cease to receive it. A staff member who was not entitled to the expatriation allowance at the time of taking up duties but who is subsequently assigned to a country of which they are not a national shall become entitled to it under the provisions applicable at the date of their appointment by the Council of Europe or another co-ordinated organisation, provided that they fulfil all other requirements for eligibility. In the event that, following assignment in a different duty station of the Council of Europe, a staff member returns to the duty station to which they were recruited, their entitlement or otherwise to the expatriation allowance shall be the same as at the time of their recruitment. Such a staff member shall receive, where applicable, the expatriation allowance at the rate on the reduction scales, provided for at paragraphs 730.2.2 and 730.3.2 above, applicable at the date they left the duty station of recruitment, and this rate shall continue to reduce in accordance with the aforementioned scales.
- 730.4.2 Entitlement to the expatriation allowance shall be retained by a staff member on unpaid leave although no allowance shall be payable during such leave. Time spent on unpaid leave shall be taken into account for the purposes of the reduction scales provided for at paragraphs 730.2.2 and 730.3.2 above as if it had been service with the Organisation, with the exception of any period of one year or more spent living in the staff member's country of nationality.
- 730.4.3 Where two spouses who are both entitled to the expatriation allowance are employed by the Council of Europe, or by the Council and another co-ordinated organisation, both shall receive the expatriation allowance at the rate payable to staff members not in receipt of the household allowance, and, where applicable, at the rate on the reduction scale corresponding to each staff member's length of service.
- 730.4.4 Staff members entitled to the expatriation allowance shall also receive a fixed monthly sum in respect of each of their dependent children, as defined at paragraph 760.1.1 below. The amount of the expatriated child allowance shall be determined by the Committee of Ministers on the basis of a recommendation by the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration.
- 730.4.5 The expatriation allowance shall not be payable to a staff member who is a national of a country, any point on the frontier of which is within a radius of 50 kilometres of the duty station (or 100 kilometres where the staff member was recruited after 31 December 2011), unless the staff member can prove that they have established their habitual residence in the duty country or, exceptionally and with the agreement of the Secretary General, in a third country.

730.5 Residence allowance

Staff members in categories A, L and B who were recruited before 1 January 1998 and who are not eligible for the expatriation allowance, but who at the time of their appointment were resident more than 300 kilometres from the duty station, shall be entitled to a residence allowance. This allowance shall equal the following percentage of the expatriation allowance payable to expatriated staff members appointed on the same date as the staff member in question:

- 35% for those in receipt of the household allowance; and
- 15% for those who are not.

740. SETTLING-IN ALLOWANCE

740.1 Staff members are eligible to receive the settling-in allowance, upon taking up duties following their recruitment or reassignment to a new duty station within the Council of Europe provided that, prior to their recruitment or reassignment, they had their actual and habitual residence 100 kilometres or more from their assigned duty station and can prove that they have moved their residence in order to take up their duties.

740.2 The amount of the basic settling-in allowance shall be equivalent to one month's basic salary of the staff member, up to the applicable ceiling. This amount shall be increased by the following amounts in the following circumstances:

740.2.1 By 75%, where a staff member entitled to the expatriation allowance changes the geographical zone of their residence in order to settle in the vicinity of the duty station to which they have been recruited (the geographical zones being defined as follows: Europe and Middle East; Africa; the Americas; and Asia and Pacific); or, where a staff member is assigned to another duty station within the Council of Europe.

740.2.2 By 20%, where the spouse or dependant of the staff member takes up residence with the staff member at the new duty station. By a further 10% in respect of any additional dependants who take up residence with the staff member at the new duty station, up to a ceiling of 100% of the amount of the basic settling-in allowance.

740.3 A staff member who resigns within a year of their recruitment or reassignment shall repay the settling-in allowance on a pro rata basis calculated according to the number of months remaining in the year from their recruitment or reassignment. A staff member whose contract is terminated by the Organisation within a year of their recruitment or reassignment shall not repay the settling-in allowance, unless the termination of their contract was done for disciplinary reasons, in which case they shall repay the settling-in allowance in full.

750. HOUSEHOLD ALLOWANCE AND BASIC FAMILY ALLOWANCE

750.1 Household allowance

750.1.1 Staff members recruited before 1 January 2017, who fall into one or more of the following categories, shall be entitled to a monthly household allowance equal to 6% of the staff member's basic salary, subject to a minimum household allowance of 6% of the basic salary for grade B3, step 1:

- Married staff. Where the staff member has no dependent children or other dependants, as defined at paragraphs 760.1.1 and 760.3.1 below, and their spouse has a gainful occupation, the household allowance shall only be payable provided that the spouse's income from gainful occupation is less than the basic salary for grade B3, step 1 plus the household allowance.

Where the spouse's income exceeds the basic salary for grade B3, step 1 but not the combined amount of that salary plus the household allowance, the difference between the spouse's income and that combined amount shall be payable.

- Staff members who have one or more dependent children as defined at paragraph 760.1.1 below.

- Staff members who have another dependant as defined at paragraph 760.3.1 below.

750.1.2 Where two spouses who are employed by the Council of Europe, or by the Council of Europe and another co-ordinated organisation, are both entitled to the household allowance, it shall be paid to the spouse whose resulting remuneration shall be the higher, unless there is mutual agreement to the contrary.

750.1.3 Where two current or former spouses who are employed by the Council of Europe have divorced or legally separated, each shall be entitled to payment of the household allowance provided that they each fall into one of the categories above.

750.2 Basic family allowance

750.2.1 Married staff members recruited after 31 December 2016 shall be entitled to a monthly basic family allowance, the amount of which shall be determined by the Committee of Ministers on the basis of a recommendation by the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration, provided that they meet the following conditions:

- The staff member's spouse is actually and habitually living with the staff member in a family unit established at the duty station;
and

- The staff member's spouse has an income which is less than 50% of the basic monthly salary for grade C1, step 1 plus the amount of the monthly basic family allowance.

Where the spouse's income is equal to or exceeds 50% of the basic salary for grade C1, step 1 but not the combined amount of that salary plus the basic family allowance, the difference between the spouse's income and that combined amount shall be payable.

- 750.2.2 Staff members eligible for the expatriation allowance shall be entitled to double the monthly amount of the basic family allowance.
- 750.2.3 Eligibility for the basic family allowance shall begin on the date of the staff member taking up duty or the establishment of the family unit at the duty station, whichever is the later, and continue for the period shown below or until the dissolution of the family unit or the departure of the staff member's spouse from the duty station:
- 750.2.3.1 For staff members not eligible for the expatriation allowance, for five years.
- 750.2.3.2 Staff members eligible for the expatriation allowance, who have taken up duty from within the same geographical zone as the duty station (the geographical zones being defined as follows: Europe and Middle East; Africa; the Americas; and Asia and Pacific) shall be eligible for the full allowance for five years. For the following five years the amount shall be reduced by one-fifth each year until it reaches zero in the tenth year.
- 750.2.3.3 Staff members eligible for the expatriation allowance, who have taken up duty from within a different geographical zone (as defined above) than the duty station, shall be eligible for the duration of their employment, unless the staff member is a national of a country within the same geographical zone as the duty station, in which case the allowance shall be payable as provided in the immediately foregoing paragraph.
- 750.2.4 If a staff member is assigned to a different duty country at the initiative of the Organisation, in the interests of the Organisation, the period of payment of the basic family allowance shall be reset.
- 750.2.5 Where two spouses who are employed by the Council of Europe, or by the Council of Europe and another co-ordinated organisation, are both entitled to the basic family allowance, it shall be paid to the spouse whose resulting remuneration shall be the higher, unless there is mutual agreement to the contrary.

760. DEPENDANTS' ALLOWANCES

Staff members are entitled to an allowance in respect of the following categories of dependants:

760.1 Dependent children

- 760.1.1 A dependent child is defined as a birth, adopted, step- or otherwise dependent child of the staff member, for whom the staff member provides main and continuing support. For the purpose of this Staff Rule, an "otherwise dependent" child is a child in respect of whom an adoption procedure has been initiated or an orphan dependent on the staff member, and "main and continuing support" is provided when the child is ordinarily resident with the staff member, meaning that they spend at least 50% of their time living in the staff member's household, notwithstanding absence for educational reasons.
- 760.1.2 In respect of each dependent child, one dependent child allowance (to a staff member recruited before 1 January 2017) or one dependent child supplement (to a staff member recruited after 31 December 2016) shall be paid.
- 760.1.3 Where both parents of a child are staff members of the Council of Europe, or of the Council of Europe and another co-ordinated organisation, and are living together, the dependent child allowance or supplement shall be payable to the parent who receives the household allowance, unless there is mutual agreement to the contrary.
- 760.1.4 Where both parents of a dependent child are staff members of the Council of Europe, or the Council of Europe and another co-ordinated organisation, who are not living together, the dependent child allowance or the dependent child supplement shall be payable to the parent with whom the child resides for the majority of the time. Where the child spends 50% of their time with each parent, the dependent child allowance or the dependent child supplement shall be split equally between the two parents, unless there is a court order or mutual agreement between the parents which states otherwise.
- 760.1.5 Both the dependent child allowance and the dependent child supplement shall be paid to the staff member until the dependent child reaches the age of 18.
- 760.1.6 Both the dependent child allowance and the dependent child supplement shall also be payable whilst the child is enrolled, on a full-time basis, in school or university education or vocational training, on the condition that the child is not in receipt of a monthly income which exceeds 50% of the basic salary of a staff member at grade C1, step 1, assigned to a duty station in the child's country of residence. Eligibility shall be suspended during any period of compulsory military service and shall end:

- when the child reaches the age of 26, in the case of the dependent child allowance;

- at the end of the academic year in which the child reaches the age of 22, in the case of the dependent child supplement. This period shall be extended in the event that the child has performed compulsory military or civil service, for a period corresponding to the duration of such service.

760.1.7 Staff members in receipt of the dependent child supplement who are single parents shall receive one additional dependent child supplement, regardless of the number of dependent children they have. A single parent shall be understood to mean:

- a single, separated, divorced or widowed person;
- who lives alone with one or more dependent children on a permanent and continuous basis; and
- who financially supports the dependent child or children alone, without any financial maintenance or support from the other parent.

760.1.8 The amount of the dependent child allowance or supplement shall be determined by the Committee of Ministers for each duty station.

760.2 Disabled children

760.2.1 Entitlement to benefits

The Secretary General may decide that a staff member is entitled to the benefits set out in the subsequent paragraphs, provided that the following conditions are met:

- the staff member has a dependent child who has been medically certified as disabled and who requires special care, supervision, education or training, not provided free of charge; and
- the advisory board referred to at paragraph 760.4 below, following consultation by the Secretary General, has assessed the nature and severity of the child's disability as amounting to a serious and chronic impairment of the child's physical or mental capacities.

The Secretary General's decision shall specify the duration of the entitlement, which shall be subject to review.

760.2.2 Indemnity for a disabled child/Supplement for a disabled or severely disabled child

Entitlement as defined in the foregoing paragraph shall give rise to payment of a monthly indemnity for a disabled child, in respect of a staff member recruited before 1 January 2017, or supplement for a disabled child or severely disabled child, in respect of a staff member recruited after 31 December 2016.

The amount of the indemnity for a disabled child or supplement for a disabled child shall be equal to the amount of the dependent child allowance or supplement.

For staff members recruited after 31 December 2016 whose child requires permanent care from another person, the need for permanent care being assessed by the advisory board referred to at paragraph 760.4 below, the amount of the supplement for a severely disabled child shall be double the amount payable under the immediately preceding paragraph.

760.2.3 Reimbursement of educational or training expenses

Entitlement as defined in paragraph 760.2.1 above shall also give rise to reimbursement of expenses reasonably incurred in providing the child with education or training designed to meet their needs in order to obtain the best possible functional capacity. Only such expenses as are not otherwise covered by the education allowance shall be reimbursed. The rate of reimbursement shall be 90%. Any payments of the same nature or for the same purpose received in respect of the child from another source shall be deducted from the amount of the reimbursement paid under this paragraph.

760.2.4 Dependent child allowance/supplement

Entitlement as defined in paragraph 760.2.1 above shall also give rise to eligibility to the dependent child allowance or dependent child supplement without limit of age, provided that the child is unable to financially support him- or herself.

The child shall be deemed to be unable to financially support him- or herself if their net annual income is less than 50% of the basic annual salary for grade C1, step 1, plus 100% of any expenses relating to the disability actually incurred by the child, where these are not covered by one or more health insurance schemes.

760.3 Other dependants

760.3.1 Dependent relatives

Staff members recruited before 1 January 2017, who provide main and continuing support to any ascendant of their own or their spouse, or to any relative where they are legally required to do so, shall be entitled to receive the household allowance if they are not already so entitled. Such staff members shall furthermore be eligible for an allowance equal in amount to the dependent child allowance, by decision of the Secretary General, if the following conditions are met:

- The net household income of the staff member concerned does not exceed twice the amount of the basic salary for grade

B3, step 1, having regard to the salary scale applicable to the staff member concerned;

- The dependent relative in respect of whom the allowance is claimed is over the age of retirement in their country of residence, or is unable to work due to a medically certified disability qualifying for disability status in the country of residence; and

- The dependent relative's net annual resources do not exceed 50% (70% in the case of a couple) of the basic annual salary for grade C1, step 1, according to the salary scale applicable to the country in which the dependent relative is actually resident or, if no such salary scale exists, the United Nations' salary scale. In the event that there is no United Nations salary scale for the relevant country, resources shall be assessed with regard to the cost of living in that country.

760.3.2 Disabled and dependent parents

Staff members recruited after 31 December 2016, who provide main and continuing support to their mother and/or father, shall be entitled to one supplement for a disabled and dependent parent, provided that the following conditions are met:

- The staff member's mother or father is over 60 years of age and medically certified as disabled; and

- Their overall income is less than 50% of the basic monthly salary for grade C1, step 1 according to the salary scale applicable in their country of residence; and

- The Secretary General decides, based on an assessment by the advisory board, referred to at paragraph 760.4 below, of the nature and severity of the mother or father's disability, that the staff member is entitled to the supplement.

The decision of the Secretary General shall establish the duration of the entitlement and any conditions for its review.

760.4 Assessment of disability

There shall be a Disability Board, comprising:

- The Organisation's doctor;

- the Director of Human Resources or a representative thereof; and

- the Welfare Officer.

The Disability Board shall assess the nature and degree of disability of a staff member's dependent child, for the purposes of paragraph 760.2.1; or parent, for the purposes of paragraph 760.3.2, with a view to making a recommendation to the Secretary General as to whether the relevant allowance or supplement should be paid. The Board shall also include in its recommendation its opinion as to the need for the periodic review of the circumstances of the person whose disability it has assessed.

770. EDUCATION ALLOWANCE

770.1 Eligibility

Staff members in receipt of the expatriation allowance, or whose expatriation allowance has been reduced to zero pursuant to paragraph 730.3.2 above, may request the reimbursement of certain educational costs incurred on behalf of their dependent child, within the meaning of paragraph 760.1.1 above, who is in full-time education at a school or establishment of higher education.

By way of exception, staff members who are not entitled to the expatriation allowance may receive the education allowance in respect of a dependent child, where the staff member has moved from a duty station or been recruited from another international organisation where they were in receipt of the education allowance. Eligibility for the education allowance in such circumstances is conditional upon the existence of imperative educational reasons for the child to continue with a primary or secondary educational cycle already begun at the time of reassignment or recruitment and which cannot be continued in the new duty station, and shall not exceed the duration of that educational cycle.

770.2 Expenditure

The following costs shall be eligible for reimbursement. They shall be determined as follows and the cumulative amount shall be reimbursed at the applicable rate, subject to the applicable ceiling, both as set out below, provided that the cumulative amount is higher than the annual amount of the expatriated child allowance payable.

770.2.1 Registration, examination and tuition fees

The real cost of all registration, examination and tuition fees charged by the educational establishment shall be eligible for reimbursement.

The cost of private tuition may be included under this head, provided that the tuition is in a subject not covered in the child's syllabus but included as part of the compulsory national education in the country of citizenship of the staff member; or is required to enable the child to adjust to the curriculum or language of the institution attended. Private tuition fees shall be payable for an adjustment period of maximum two years.

770.2.2 Daily travel costs

The cost of the child's daily travel to and from the educational establishment by public or school transportation shall be reimbursable, provided that such costs are actually incurred, as a lump sum amounting to 10% of the monthly amount of the dependent child supplement, payable for each month in which such costs are incurred up to a maximum of 10 months in each year.

770.2.3 Ancillary educational costs

Ancillary educational costs for compulsory uniform or required books shall be reimbursable, provided that such costs are actually incurred, as a one-off lump sum amounting to 40% of the monthly amount of the dependent child supplement.

770.2.4 Accommodation

Provided that the child does not live at the staff member's home and that the child's accommodation is not located within a 50-kilometre radius of the staff member's home or the home of the child's other parent, and provided that such costs are actually incurred, the cost of accommodation, whether inclusive of any meals or not, shall be reimbursable as a lump sum equal to the monthly amount of the dependent child supplement, payable for each month in which such costs are incurred up to a maximum of 10 months in each year.

770.2.5 Round-trip travel

770.2.5.1 The cost of two round-trips per academic year by the dependent child between the place of the educational establishment and the staff member's duty station shall be reimbursable as a lump sum per trip, the amount of which shall be determined as follows.

770.2.5.2 The lump sum per round-trip shall be calculated on the basis of the distance, as the crow flies, of a round trip between the place of the educational establishment and the staff member's duty station, and shall be capped at the distance of a round-trip between the duty station and the place of home leave. The lump sum per round-trip shall be as indicated in the following table.

Distance in km (round-trip)	Lump sum in EUR
100-300	55.17
301-600	147.12
601-1200	257.45
1201-1800	331.01
1801-2500	367.79
2501-4200	514.91
4201-5400	551.69
5401-6600	625.24

6601-7800	735.58
7801-9000	919.48
9001 and up	1 360.82

770.2.5.3 The above table shall be revised annually by the Directorate of Human Resources.

770.3 Rates of reimbursement

The reimbursement of educational expenses shall be made at the rates and subject to the limits set out below.

770.3.1 Standard rate

70% of the fees referred to in paragraph 770.2.1 above, plus the lump sums referred to in paragraphs 770.2.2, 770.2.3, 770.2.4 and 770.2.5.1 above, up to a ceiling of 2.5 times the annual amount of the dependent child supplement.

770.3.2 Exceptional rate

90% of the fees referred to in paragraph 770.2.1 above, plus the lump sums referred to in paragraphs 770.2.2, 770.2.3, 770.2.4 and 770.2.5.1 above, up to a ceiling of 6 times the annual amount of the dependent child supplement.

The exceptional rate shall apply in respect of dependent children who live with a staff member attached to an external duty station, provided that no other adequate educational establishment corresponding to the child's educational cycle is available within reasonable distance from this duty station.

The exceptional rate shall also apply in respect of dependent children with special educational needs resulting from their medically certified physical, developmental or behavioural condition, provided that educational costs incurred on behalf of the child, for imperative educational reasons, are exceptional, unavoidable and excessively high.

770.4 Calculation of the ceilings and lump sums

The ceilings and lump sums referred to in the foregoing paragraphs shall be calculated using the dependent child supplement payable in the country of study, provided that the country of study is also the duty country of the staff member, the country of which the staff member is a national or the country of which the child's other parent is a national. In all other cases, the dependent child supplement payable in the duty country shall be used for the purposes of calculating the ceilings and lump sums.

770.5 Review of the ceilings

The ceilings referred to in the foregoing paragraphs shall be adjusted in accordance with the method provided for in the appendix to the 276th report of the Co-ordinating Committee on Remuneration.

770.6 Deductions

770.6.1 Any amounts received from another source, such as scholarships, grants, State benefits or financial support, shall be deducted from the expenditure incurred for the purposes of calculating the education allowance payable.

770.6.2 The total annual amount of the expatriated child allowance payable, as provided for at paragraph 730.4.4 above, shall be deducted from the amount of the education allowance payable.

770.7 Modalities

770.7.1 Where the appointment of a staff member begins or ends during the course of the academic year, the education allowance shall be payable on a pro rata basis, for each full month of education after the staff member takes up duties or before the termination of the staff member's employment.

770.7.2 At the start of the academic year, a staff member who is eligible for the education allowance shall inform the administration of the likely expenditure for each child for that academic year (fees, daily travel costs, ancillary education costs and accommodation costs) and provide relevant supporting documents. At the end of the academic year, the staff member shall provide evidence of the expenditure (all of the aforementioned costs, plus any round-trips taken during the academic year) actually incurred over the course of the academic year still in progress, which is eligible for reimbursement. Reimbursement of costs shall be conditional upon the production of documentary evidence of the costs having been incurred, such as bills, paid invoices, tickets or receipts. The staff member shall inform the administration promptly of any change in circumstances which might affect their entitlement to reimbursement and of any allowance or reimbursement of educational costs received from any other source.

770.7.3 A staff member shall receive, in respect of each dependent child giving rise to eligibility for the education allowance, a monthly amount calculated on the following basis. The appropriate rate (70% or 90%) shall be applied to the cost of all registration, examination and tuition fees charged by the educational establishment. To the resulting amount shall be added the lump sums in respect of daily travel costs; ancillary educational costs; and accommodation, where applicable. The relevant ceiling (2.5 or 6 times the annual dependent child supplement) shall then be applied to the total amount. The resulting amount shall be divided by ten and shall be payable for the ten months following the start of the academic year. If necessary, the tenth instalment shall be adjusted to reflect any difference between the estimated and the actual expenditure and the costs of any round-trips taken during the academic year, which are eligible for reimbursement having regard to the applicable ceiling.

770.8 Beginning and end of entitlement

770.8.1 Entitlement to the education allowance shall begin on the first day of the month in which the child begins to attend school, provided that the child has reached the age of compulsory education in the national system followed by the school. Entitlement shall end at the end of the month in which the child leaves full-time study and shall in no case be payable once payment of the dependent child allowance or supplement has ceased.

770.8.2 If the child is required to perform military or civil service in the country of citizenship, eligibility for the education allowance shall be extended beyond the limit set out in the foregoing paragraph for a period of time equivalent to the duration of the compulsory military or civil service. Payment of the education allowance shall be suspended during the military or civil service.

780. OTHER ALLOWANCES

780.1 Field mobility allowance

A staff member who is assigned to a Council of Europe Office or a Council of Europe Programme Office, as Head of Office, Deputy Head of Office or Head of Operations, shall receive a field mobility allowance, payable monthly for the duration of their assignment. The monthly amount of the field mobility allowance shall be 500 Euros for a Head of Office and 250 Euros for a Deputy Head of Office or Head of Operations.

780.2 Extra duties allowance

A staff member who is called upon by the Secretary General to take on the duties attaching to a job in the same category but in the grade immediately above, due to the prolonged absence of the incumbent, shall receive, on a monthly basis from the fourth consecutive month of such assignment, an extra duties allowance equivalent to the value of one 24-month step (or, as the case may be, one 36-month step) in the basic salary scale for the grade of the staff member taking on the extra duties. A staff member shall be asked to take on extra duties pursuant to this paragraph only on an exceptional basis and in the interests of the Organisation, and the assumption of extra duties shall not exceed one year's duration.

790. HISTORIC ALLOWANCES

790.1 A staff member who receives an allowance pursuant to a legal provision which has been repealed or deleted, shall continue to receive the allowance, provided that:

- the legal instrument which repealed or deleted the legal provision providing for the allowance stipulated that the payment of the allowance would continue after the repeal or deletion; and
- the staff member continues to fulfil the conditions of eligibility for the allowance.

7100. OTHER PROVISIONS APPLICABLE TO ALLOWANCES

7100.1 Payments from another source

With the exception of the expatriation allowance; the settling-in allowance; the field mobility allowance; and the extra duties allowance, all allowances, indemnities and supplements to which staff members are entitled shall be payable after deduction of the value of any similar allowances or other assistance which the staff member or, as the case may be, their spouse, dependent child or other dependant may receive from another source, which has the same or similar purposes as the allowance, indemnity or supplement in question. The reimbursement of expenses provided for in paragraphs 760.2.3 and 770.2 above shall similarly be made after deduction of any payment or other assistance received from any other source for the same or similar purposes.

7100.2 Duty to inform the Organisation

Staff members in receipt of any of the allowances, indemnities, supplements or reimbursements referred to in the preceding paragraph shall report to the Organisation any payments or other assistance of the same nature or for similar purposes received by them, their spouse, dependent child or other dependant, and shall furthermore immediately inform the Organisation of any change in their circumstances or those of their spouse, dependent child or other dependant which may affect their eligibility to any allowance, indemnity, supplement or reimbursement of expenses. Failure to report to the Organisation any of the information mentioned in this paragraph may render staff members liable to a disciplinary sanction.

7100.3 Part-time work

Staff members who work part-time shall receive the allowances to which they are entitled pro-rated according to their working time, with the exception of the following allowances, which shall be paid in full:

- Dependent child allowance or dependent child supplement;
- Additional dependent child supplement payable to a single parent;
- Allowance in respect of another dependent relative, for staff members recruited before 1 January 2017;
- Supplement for a dependent and disabled parent, for staff members recruited after 31 December 2016;

- Indemnity for a disabled child or supplement for a disabled or severely disabled child;
- Education allowance;
- Field mobility allowance, and
- Reimbursement of educational or training expenses for a disabled child.

The minimum amounts set in respect of the household allowance or, for staff members recruited after 31 December 2016, the basic family allowance, and the expatriation or residence allowance, shall be reduced pro-rata according to the working time of staff members who work part-time.

7110. RECOVERY OF UNDUE PAYMENTS

7110.1 Limitation period

The Organisation shall be entitled to recover any sum unduly paid to a staff member. The Organisation's request for recovery of a payment must be made within two years of the date on which the payment was made.

If the overdue payment resulted from the staff member intentionally providing incorrect information or intentionally or negligently omitting to provide relevant information to the Organisation, the time limit referred to in the foregoing paragraph shall not apply.

7110.2 Mode of repayment

Repayment of unduly paid sums, as provided for in the foregoing paragraphs, may be made by way of deductions from the remuneration of the staff member concerned. In deciding upon the amount of the deductions, the Secretary General shall take into account the social and financial situation of the person concerned.

In the event that the staff member leaves the Organisation for any reason prior to an unduly paid sum being repaid in full, the outstanding amount shall become repayable immediately. Any outstanding debt shall be withheld from the staff member's final settlement. Should the final settlement be insufficient to allow the full repayment of an outstanding debt, the staff member must repay the amount due.

STAFF REGULATIONS

ARTICLE VIII

Working hours and leave

8.1 The Secretary General shall establish the working hours of staff members and adopt specific rules governing stand-by duty, shift work, part-time work and teleworking. Staff members who are required to work overtime shall be compensated according to the conditions and procedures established by the Secretary General.

8.2 When night work is required in the interest of the Organisation, necessary arrangements shall be made by the Secretary General to ensure the protection of staff members' health.

8.3 Staff members shall be allowed annual leave under conditions prescribed by the Secretary General. Special leave with pay may be authorised by the Secretary General in justified cases.

8.4 To enable staff members in receipt of the expatriation allowance to take their leave periodically in their home countries (home leave), the Organisation shall allow necessary travelling time for that purpose, under conditions prescribed by the Secretary General.

8.5 Staff members may be authorised to take unpaid leave under conditions prescribed by the Secretary General.

8.6 Staff members may not be absent without authorisation. Any unjustified absence may result in a corresponding deduction from their salaries and the institution of disciplinary proceedings.

STAFF RULE ON WORKING HOURS AND LEAVE

810. WORKING TIME

810.1 Working hours

The working week for a staff member working full-time hours is Monday to Friday, subject to official holidays, and comprises 38 hours and 45 minutes total working time. A normal working day is 7 hours 45 minutes, not including a compulsory uninterrupted lunch break of at least 30 minutes, but more or fewer hours may be worked on a given day provided that the requisite number of hours are worked over the course of the calendar month.

810.2 Flexible hours

With the exception of staff members subject to fixed and special working hours or shift work, staff members' working hours shall be flexible within the limits provided in this paragraph. Staff members shall work during 5 core hours (from 09:00 to 12:00 and from 14:30 to 16:30) each day. The remaining working hours shall be carried out during the flexible bands of each working day (from 07:00 to 09:00; 12:00 to 14:30; and 16:30 to 19:00). The lunch break shall be taken between 12:00 and 14:30. The application of flexible working hours shall be subject to the needs of the service and staff members may only adjust their hours to their personal convenience where this is compatible with the nature of their job and the rhythm of their work. The hours worked must not compromise a staff member's work or disrupt the work of their team.

810.3 Fixed and special working hours

If the needs of the Organisation or the nature of the job so require, the Director General of Administration may prescribe fixed or special working hours for specified categories of jobs, for a definite or indefinite period, having first consulted the Staff Committee.

810.4 Shift work

Shift work refers to a situation in which groups of staff members work in rotation on a schedule which differs from the usual full-time working hours set out at paragraphs 810.1 and 810.2 above. The categories of staff concerned, duration of shifts, number and duration of breaks and other special conditions shall be defined by the Director General of Administration, having first consulted the Staff Committee.

810.5 Night work

Night work, which is any work carried out between 22:00 and 7:00, may be established for specific job profiles by the Secretary General following consultation with the Staff Committee, subject to the following limitations. Night work may not be prejudicial to the daily rest of staff members, which must average at least eleven hours over the course of a working week and may not be less than eight hours in any 24-hour period. Staff members may not be called upon to perform night work regularly without undergoing a prior medical examination. In no circumstances may pregnant persons be required to do night work.

810.6 Stand-by duty

If the needs of the Organisation or the nature of the job so require, the Director General of Administration may, having first consulted the Staff Committee, prescribe periods of stand-by duty for specified categories of jobs and set out the frequency and duration of the stand-by duty as well as the manner in which such periods shall be compensated.

820. PART-TIME WORK

820.1 Modalities of part-time work

Staff members may be authorised to work part-time at 50%, 60%, 70%, 80% or 90% of full-time working hours. Work at 50%, 60%, or 70% shall entail a corresponding reduction of the normal working day or working week described at paragraph 810.1 above. Part-time work at 80% or 90% may entail a corresponding reduction of the normal working day or working week or may, in the alternative, be carried out as full-time work with the acquisition of additional days of annual leave. The salary of a staff member who works part-time shall be pro-rated, as provided in paragraph 720.3 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances. Periods of part-time work shall not affect the calculation of length of service for the purposes of Articles 530 or 540 of the Staff Rule on career development.

Authorisation

- 820.2 Authorisation to work part-time shall be sought by way of a reasoned request from the staff member to the Head of the relevant Major Administrative Entity or person to whom authority in such matters has been delegated. Such a request must be submitted three months in advance and shall be accepted provided that the part-time working arrangement is compatible with the needs of the service. Any rejection of such a request shall be made in writing and shall include an explanation of the reasons for the rejection.
- 820.3 If the request is accepted, authorisation to work part-time shall be granted for one year unless there are compelling reasons to grant authorisation for a different period. Authorisation shall be tacitly renewed on an annual basis. The staff member or the person who authorised the staff member to work part-time may end or amend the part-time working arrangement upon giving three months' notice in writing. In exceptional circumstances, where the staff member has made a duly reasoned request or the staff member and the person who authorised the staff member to work part-time have reached agreement to that effect, the three-month notice period may be shortened.
- 820.4 Notwithstanding the foregoing paragraph, where a staff member makes a request to increase their working hours, the Head of the relevant Major Administrative Entity or the person to whom authority in such matters has been delegated may, for budgetary reasons, stipulate that the increase in working hours shall only take effect at the beginning of the next calendar year.
- 820.5 Part-time work and job changes
- 820.5.1 Where, exceptionally, a staff member has been recruited to work on a part-time basis, that staff member may not request to increase their working hours unless they are promoted or transferred to a full-time job.
- 820.5.2 Part-time work shall not alter the length of fixed-term appointments or, where applicable, the maximum duration of appointments.
- 820.5.3 Where a staff member has requested a part-time working arrangement that is not compatible with the needs of the service for administrative or operational reasons, the staff member may be transferred to another job in terms of Article 570 of the Staff Rule on career development.
- 820.5.4 A staff member working part-time who is transferred, promoted or assigned to another job pursuant to Article 550 or transferred pursuant to Article 570 of the Staff Rule on career development shall require the authorisation of the relevant Head of Major Administrative Entity or person to whom authority in such matters has been delegated to continue their part-time work arrangement.

830. OVERTIME

- 830.1 In the event of urgency, excessive workload or other pressing needs of the service, staff members may be formally requested to carry out overtime. Such a request may not be refused, unless the staff member has imperative and duly justified personal reasons for their refusal. Overtime shall be understood as hours worked outside of the normal working hours. For staff members working flexible working hours on a full-time basis, any work done on Saturdays, Sundays or official holidays, or before 07:00 or after 19:00 on working days, shall be considered as overtime. For staff members working flexible working hours on a part-time basis, in addition to the foregoing, work done outside of their usual working hours or on a day on which they would not usually work shall be considered as overtime. For staff members carrying out shift work or night work, work done outside of their usual shifts or their usual working hours during the night shall be considered as overtime. Time spent by a staff member travelling to the place of duty and back shall not be considered as overtime.
- 830.2 Overtime shall be kept to a minimum. A direct manager (N+1) may request a staff member to work overtime where strictly necessary. Such requested overtime shall not exceed 15 hours per week or 30 hours per month. In exceptional cases, the monthly limit may be exceeded provided that a staff member does not work more than 40 hours of overtime in any given month or more than 150 hours of overtime in any given 6-month period. Where the requested overtime is to be worked on a weekend, a public holiday or after 19:00, the direct manager must obtain the authorisation of the staff member's N+2 before making the request.
- 830.3 The staff member shall record their hours of overtime, which must be checked and validated by the direct manager who requested such overtime before being notified to the Directorate of Human Resources.
- 830.4 Heads of Major Administrative Entities shall be responsible for ensuring that the limits in paragraph 830.2 are observed and that the manner and extent to which recourse is made to overtime is not detrimental to the well-being of staff members within their Major Administrative Entity.

Compensation for overtime

- 830.5 Any request for compensation for overtime must be made to the Directorate of Human Resources within 30 days of the date on which the overtime was worked. Provided that the overtime has been requested in accordance with paragraph 830.2, it shall be compensated as set out below. No compensation shall be made in respect of overtime of less than 60 minutes per day.
- 830.5.1 Overtime worked by staff members in categories A and L shall not, in principle, give rise to compensation. Exceptionally, where a staff member is repeatedly required to perform very substantial periods of overtime, compensatory leave may be granted.
- 830.5.2 Overtime worked by staff members in category B, holding grades B4 to B6, shall be compensated by leave. Each hour of overtime shall be compensated by one hour of leave. The compensatory leave shall be increased by 50% in respect of any overtime performed on a Sunday, a public holiday or between the hours of 22:00 and 07:00.

830.5.3 Overtime worked by staff members in category B, holding grades B1 to B3, or in category C, shall be compensated by leave as provided in the foregoing paragraph. If the needs of the service are such that the full amount of compensatory leave cannot be taken, financial compensation may be paid in lieu of up to 80% of the total monthly overtime. The remaining 20% must be taken as compensatory leave. Financial compensation shall be calculated on the basis of 0.06% of the average annual basic salary of the grade held by the staff member per hour of overtime, increased by 50% for overtime worked on a Sunday, a public holiday or between the hours of 22:00 and 07:00.

830.6 Special conditions regarding compensation for overtime shall apply to certain categories of staff. These conditions shall be fixed by the Director General of Administration, having first consulted the Staff Committee.

Overtime and official journeys

830.7 Staff members on an official journey shall work the hours necessary for the successful completion of the activity. Hours worked from Monday to Friday whilst on an official journey cannot constitute overtime.

830.8 Time worked on a Saturday, Sunday or official holiday whilst on an official journey may be compensated according to the provisions set out at paragraph 830.5, provided that the time worked exceeds half a day.

830.9 Time spent travelling when making an official journey does not constitute overtime. However, a staff member shall be granted compensatory rest time of one half-day's leave, in principle immediately following their return from an official journey, if the return journey is made between the hours of 23:00 and 07:00 or if the journey has been made in particularly arduous circumstances.

840. OFFICIAL HOLIDAYS

840.1 There shall be 16.5 days of official holidays per calendar year, which shall be set by decision of the Secretary General, having consulted the Staff Committee, for each duty station and communicated to staff members during the preceding calendar year. The dates of official holidays shall be decided upon taking due account of public holidays in the country in which the duty station is located.

840.2 No compensation shall be granted for an official holiday missed due to sick leave or part-time work.

850. ANNUAL LEAVE

850.1 Staff members shall be entitled to 2.5 days' paid leave for each calendar month worked, and a further 2 days' paid leave per calendar year.

- 850.2 Entitlement to annual leave shall accrue on the basis of the total length of service, including any periods of maternity leave or adoption leave as well as periods of sick leave not exceeding the limits set out in the Staff Rule on social security; but excluding any periods of unpaid leave or parental leave.
- 850.3 A staff member working part-time shall be entitled to annual leave on the same basis as a staff member working full-time, pro-rated in accordance with their working time. A staff member whose part-time working arrangement entails a shorter working day than that described at paragraphs 810.1 and 810.2 above is entitled to the same number of days' leave as a staff member working full-time.

Long service leave

- 850.4 Staff members who have completed at least 20 years of service with the Organisation, including on temporary contracts, shall be entitled to additional days of annual leave, as follows. For the purposes of calculating the length of service, periods of parental leave or part-time work shall be treated as periods of full-time work.
- 850.4.1 1 day per year as from the 20th year of service;
- 850.4.2 2 days per year as from the 25th year of service;
- 850.4.3 4 days per year as from the 30th year of service.
- 850.5 Long service leave may be taken as from 1 January of the year in which the requisite number of years of service is reached.

Conditions applicable to annual leave

- 850.6 The timing of leave shall be subject to the needs of the staff member's entity, which may also require that the leave is taken in several parts. The staff member must obtain the approval of their direct manager before taking leave.
- 850.7 A staff member's annual leave entitlement shall normally be used during the course of the year in respect of which it has accrued or, at the latest, before the end of the following year. A maximum of 5 days of annual leave which has not been taken at the end of the year following the year in which such leave was accrued may be placed in a leave savings account. Any accumulated leave in excess of these 5 days shall be forfeited, unless the staff member was prevented from taking it in time by a long illness; maternity, adoption or parental leave; or other duly justified circumstances of an exceptional nature.
- 850.8 The number of days in a staff member's leave savings account shall not exceed 25 days.

Termination of service

- 850.9 Staff members should, in principle, take all of their annual leave, including any leave days in the leave savings account mentioned at paragraph 850.7 above, prior to the expiry of their contract.

850.10 A staff member who was prevented, by health reasons, from taking all of their annual leave prior to the expiry of their contract shall receive an amount corresponding to the number of days of leave not taken.

850.11 In the event that a staff member's contract is terminated by the Organisation prior to its expiry, for reasons other than disciplinary reasons, the staff member shall take as much of the annual leave to which they are entitled as possible before their departure from the Organisation. In the event that not all of the annual leave to which the staff member is entitled can be taken prior to their departure, the staff member shall be compensated.

850.12 If, on leaving the Organisation, a staff member has not completed the number of months of service corresponding to the number of days of leave already taken, an amount corresponding to the number of days' leave taken in excess of the accrued entitlement shall be deducted from the final salary of the staff member.

860. HOME LEAVE

860.1 Staff members who receive an expatriation allowance or residence allowance, or whose expatriation allowance has been reduced to zero within the meaning of paragraph 730.3.2 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances, shall be entitled to four days of home leave per calendar year of service, pro-rated where applicable by the number of months of service. No entitlement to home leave shall accrue during unpaid leave or parental leave.

Travel time

860.2 Staff members who are entitled to home leave under the foregoing paragraph shall also be entitled to travel time, as set out below, pro-rated where applicable by the number of months of service in the relevant calendar year.

860.2.1 Staff members recruited before 1 January 2005 shall be entitled to travel time in accordance with the legal provisions applicable at the time of their recruitment.

860.2.2 Staff members recruited between 1 January 2005 and 31 December 2011 shall be entitled to travel time, in accordance with the following table, provided that the place registered as their home is more than 80km, as the crow flies, from their duty station:

Distance, as the crow flies, between the staff member's home and duty station	Travel time, in days, per calendar year
80-300 km	1
301-600 km	2
601-900 km	3
more than 900 km	4

- 860.2.3 Staff members recruited as from 1 January 2012 shall be entitled to travel time, in accordance with the following table, provided that the place registered as their home is more than 350km, as the crow flies, from their duty station:

Distance, as the crow flies, between the staff member's home and duty station	Travel time, in days, per calendar year
350-600 km	1
more than 600km	2

- 860.3 A change in duty station shall entail a recalculation of the travel time to which a staff member is entitled.

Definition of a staff member's home

- 860.4 A staff member's home shall be determined by the Directorate of Human Resources at the time of their entry into service and shall correspond to the place with which the staff member has the closest ties, taking into account as applicable the staff member's country of citizenship; the place of residence of their parents or closest relatives; and their last place of permanent residence.
- 860.5 For staff members recruited after 1 January 2005, their home must be located in one of the Organisation's member states.
- 860.6 A staff member's home may be changed in duly justified circumstances, provided that the new home is located in one of the Organisation's member states.
- 860.7 Notwithstanding the two directly preceding paragraphs, if at the time of recruitment or thereafter a staff member has no ties, familial or other, to their country of citizenship but only to a non-member state of the Organisation, the staff member may request that such non-member state be considered as their home. In such a case, the travel time and costs reimbursed shall be limited to those that would have applied to the capital city of the staff member's country of citizenship.

870. SPECIAL LEAVE

- 870.1 Staff members may be granted authorisation to be absent with maintenance of remuneration in the specific circumstances listed below, upon production of the relevant supporting evidence. Authorisation must be requested in advance of the absence, except where paragraph 870.3 below applies. In the event that the relevant supporting evidence is not produced within the 3 months following the absence, a corresponding number of days shall be deducted from the staff member's annual leave entitlement. The authorised duration of the absence, entitlement or otherwise to travelling time and possibility of splitting the absence are as set out in the table below.

Grounds for absence	Number of days	Travelling time	Possibility of splitting the days
a) The staff member's marriage, civil union or registered partnership.	4 days	NO	YES
b) A child's marriage, civil union or registered partnership.	3 days	NO	YES

p) Appearance as a witness in court proceedings.	1 day per year	YES	NO
q) Leave for trade union purposes.	1 day per year	YES	YES

Duration of travelling time

870.2 Where, according to the table above, travelling time is authorised, it shall be calculated as follows. If the distance, as the crow flies, between the place of the event in respect of which the absence is authorised and the staff member's duty station is between 350 and 600 km, the staff member shall be granted one day of travelling time. Where the distance is more than 600 km, the staff member shall be granted two days of travelling time. No travelling time shall be granted for events taking place less than 350 km from the duty station.

Bereavement during annual leave

870.3 Where a staff member's family member, belonging to one of the categories mentioned in the table above, dies whilst the staff member is on annual leave, the staff member may request the special leave provided above and the corresponding number of days will be restored to their annual leave entitlement.

Other grounds

870.4 Where authorisation to be absent is requested for reasons other than those set out in the table above, the Secretary General shall decide, on a case-by-case basis having regard to the particular circumstances, whether the request is justified and whether remuneration should be maintained during the absence.

Leave to care for a sick child

870.5 A staff member may be granted short periods of leave to care for a dependent child under the age of 16 who is living with them and who contracts a minor illness, undergoes a course of medical treatment, or otherwise requires the staff member's presence. Up to six days per year, pro-rated in accordance with the staff member's working time, may be granted in respect of each of the staff member's dependent children. The staff member must produce a medical certificate attesting to the child's illness as from the second day of absence.

870.6 Attendance at a medical consultation in respect of the child shall not be deemed to justify an absence under the foregoing paragraph. Staff members shall, in principle, arrange absences for children's medical or dental appointments outside the core hours set out at paragraph 810.2 above. Where this is not possible, a staff member may be authorised by their direct manager to accompany the child to a medical or dental consultation during core time up to twice per month, each time for one hour, provided that the absence is compatible with the needs of the Organisation and the staff member makes up the time. Attendance at a medical examination entailing a full or half-day's absence (such as a full medical check-up) shall be considered as giving entitlement to leave to care for a sick child, provided that the attendance and its duration is duly certified.

870.7 The age limit referred to in paragraph 870.5 above shall not apply to children who have been recognised by the Organisation as disabled pursuant to paragraph 760.2.1 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances.

- 870.8 Where recommended by the Disability Board referred to at paragraph 760.4 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances, the number of days provided for in paragraph 870.5 above shall be doubled. These days may only be taken to care for the child in respect of whom the Disability Board has issued its recommendation.
- 870.9 Where the parents of the child are both staff members of the Council of Europe, the entitlement to leave to care for a sick child shall, in principle, be split between them.

Training leave

- 870.10 A staff member may be granted up to 15 days' leave per year for the purposes of undertaking further study, research or professional training or participating in an examination which is in the interests of the Organisation. The decision as to whether and how many days of such leave shall be granted shall be taken by the Director of Human Resources, having regard to all the circumstances of the case.

880. PARENTAL LEAVE

- 880.1 A staff member shall be entitled to take parental leave of up to 12 months' duration following the birth of a child or the arrival in the staff member's household of a child as a result of an adoption procedure.
- 880.2 In the event of childbirth, parental leave must begin immediately after the maternity leave of the staff member or the maternity leave or parental leave of the staff member's spouse or partner or, as the case may be, of the staff member's new parent's leave. In the event of adoption, it must begin immediately after the adoption leave. As an exception to the foregoing, where staff members have annual leave outstanding, such leave may be taken between maternity, new parent's or adoption leave and parental leave.
- 880.3 A staff member who intends to take parental leave must notify their direct manager and the Directorate of Human Resources accordingly, at least one month prior to the proposed start of the parental leave. The intended duration of parental leave must be specified.
- 880.4 Parental leave must be taken as one continuous period. Any request to extend parental leave must be submitted to the staff member's direct manager and the Directorate of Human Resources at least two months before the end of such leave and may not result in a total duration of parental leave of more than 12 months. Any request to shorten parental leave once such leave is underway must be made at least two months before the end of such leave and will be granted only in exceptional circumstances.
- 880.5 Where both parents of the child are staff members of the Council of Europe, or of the Council of Europe and another Coordinated Organisation, the parental leave may be shared between them, but may not exceed 12 months per child. The parents may not both take parental leave at the same time but must take it in turn.
- 880.6 In the event that a staff member appointed under the Junior Professional Programme or Turnover Workforce Scheme takes parental leave, such leave shall be counted as time worked, for the purposes of determining the staff member's total duration of employment. The staff member's contract may be prolonged by a period equal to the duration of their parental leave but may not exceed the maximum total length of employment foreseen at paragraph 4100.4 or 4110.4, as applicable, of the Staff Rule on entry into service.

- 880.7 In the event that a staff member, not appointed under the Junior Professional Programme or Turnover Workforce Scheme but holding a fixed-term contract, takes parental leave, such leave shall not count towards the staff member's total duration of service for the purposes of paragraph 470.2 of the Staff Rule on entry into service. It shall, however, not interrupt the staff member's continuity of service for the purposes of paragraph 470.4 of the same Staff Rule.
- 880.8 Periods of parental leave shall not count towards step or grade advancement. In the event that the staff member is entitled to the expatriation allowance pursuant to paragraph 730.2 or 730.3 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances, no expatriation allowance shall be payable during parental leave. However, the expatriation allowance shall, where applicable, continue to reduce in accordance with the relevant scale during parental leave, unless the exception provided for at paragraph 730.4.2 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances applies.
- 880.9 A staff member on parental leave shall not be entitled to any remuneration, with the exception of the allowance or supplement for a dependent child and, where applicable, the indemnity for a disabled child or supplement for a disabled or severely disabled child, referred to at paragraphs 760.1.2 and 760.2.2 of the Staff Rule on salaries and allowances, respectively. Such allowances shall be payable during parental leave for a maximum period of six months. Where both parents of the child are staff members of the Council of Europe, or of the Council of Europe and another Coordinated Organisation, the allowance or supplement for a dependent child shall be payable to the staff member who is not on parental leave, or where applicable, to the staff member who was already in receipt of the aforementioned allowance or supplement.
- 880.10 A staff member who has taken parental leave may request that a maximum period of six months of parental leave be credited to the pension scheme to which they are affiliated as if it had been service with the Organisation. In order for the first two months, or part thereof, of their parental leave to be credited, the staff member must pay an amount corresponding to their personal contribution to the relevant Pension Scheme. In order for the subsequent four months, or part thereof, to be credited, the staff member must pay both their personal contribution and the Organisation's contribution to the relevant Pension Scheme.
- 880.11 A staff member shall return from parental leave to the same job which they held prior to their parental leave.

890. UNPAID LEAVE

General provisions

- 890.1 A staff member who has been confirmed in employment and holds an open-ended contract or an indefinite-term contract may request unpaid leave. In duly justified exceptional circumstances, a staff member holding a fixed-term contract or undergoing their probationary period may be granted unpaid leave. In the case of a staff member undergoing their probationary period, the limitations contained in paragraph 4120.8 of the Staff Rule on entry into service shall apply.
- 890.2 Unpaid leave may be taken for a maximum total duration of four years over the course of a staff member's employment with the Organisation. Parental leave, or secondments as defined in Article 5110 of the Staff Rule on career development, shall not count towards this maximum duration.
- 890.3 In the event that a staff member appointed under the Junior Professional Programme or Turnover Workforce Scheme is exceptionally granted unpaid leave pursuant to paragraph 890.1, such leave shall be counted as time worked, for the purposes of determining the staff member's total duration of employment. The staff member's contract may be prolonged by a period equal to the duration of their unpaid leave but may not exceed the maximum total length of employment foreseen at paragraph 4100.4 or 4110.4, as applicable, of the Staff Rule on entry into service.
- 890.4 In the event that a staff member, not appointed under the Junior Professional Programme or Turnover Workforce Scheme but holding a fixed-term contract, is exceptionally granted unpaid leave pursuant to paragraph 890.1, such leave shall not count towards the staff member's total duration of service for the purposes of paragraph 470.2 of the Staff Rule on entry into service. It shall not, however, interrupt the staff member's continuity of service for the purposes of paragraph 470.4 of the same Staff Rule.
- 890.5 Any request for unpaid leave must be made at least four months before the proposed start date and must specify the proposed duration of such leave. The proposed duration may not be less than one year.
- 890.6 In deciding whether or not to grant a request for unpaid leave, the Secretary General shall have regard to the needs of the Organisation and the reasons for which unpaid leave is sought. Any refusal shall be duly justified in writing.
- 890.7 Any request to extend the duration of unpaid leave shall be made at least four months before the end of such leave, must extend the unpaid leave for a minimum of one year, and may not result in the total duration of the unpaid leave exceeding the maximum set out in paragraph 890.2 above. Any request to reduce the duration of unpaid leave shall be made at least four months before the end of such leave and shall be granted only in exceptional circumstances.
- 890.8 A staff member must take any accrued annual leave, including any leave in the savings account referred to at paragraph 850.7 above, before beginning unpaid leave.

- 890.9 During unpaid leave, there shall be no entitlement to any remuneration.
- 890.10 Periods of unpaid leave shall not count towards length of service or step or grade advancement.
- 890.11 A staff member who intends to resume their duties at the end of their unpaid leave shall confirm this intention, in writing, at the very latest four months before their unpaid leave is due to end. The Secretary General shall then make best efforts to identify a job within the Organisation that corresponds to the competencies, qualifications and experience of the staff member concerned, before their date of return. Paragraphs 670.3 and 670.4 of the Staff Rule on termination of service shall apply mutatis mutandis. If a suitable job is identified and accepted by the staff member, they shall resume their duties in the new job following the end of their unpaid leave. If no suitable job can be identified or if the staff member has refused one or more job offers, the staff member's employment shall terminate at the end of their unpaid leave. The Secretary General shall consult the Committee on Staff Matters in accordance with paragraph 1340.5 of the Staff Rule on staff participation and the staff member shall receive, as applicable, the indemnity for loss of job calculated in accordance with Article 690 of the Staff Rule on termination of service.
- 890.12 A staff member who does not resume their duties at the end of their unpaid leave shall be deemed to have resigned from the Organisation as of the date on which they should have resumed their duties.

Pension rights

- 890.13 A staff member who has had paid employment during their unpaid leave may request that the amount corresponding to the pension rights accrued during such employment be paid into the pension scheme to which they are affiliated by the Council of Europe, on the same terms as those set out in paragraph 5110.3 of the Staff Rule on career development.
- 890.14 A staff member who has not undertaken any paid activity during their unpaid leave may request that a maximum period of six months of unpaid leave be credited to the pension scheme to which they are affiliated as if it had been service with the Organisation. In order for the first two months, or part thereof, of their unpaid leave to be credited, the staff member must pay an amount corresponding to their personal contribution to the relevant Pension Scheme. In order for the subsequent four months, or part thereof, to be credited, the staff member must pay both their personal contribution and the Organisation's contribution to the relevant Pension Scheme.

Provisions applicable to unpaid leave for military training or service

- 890.15 A staff member who is called up for military training or service or who volunteers for the same shall be placed on unpaid leave for the duration of such training or service. The provisions above regarding unpaid leave shall not apply, with the exception of paragraphs 890.9, 890.10 and 890.11.
- 890.16 The placement of a staff member on unpaid leave for military training or service shall suspend the staff member's status as an international civil servant.

890.17 During unpaid leave for military training or service, the staff member's affiliation to the Organisation's social insurance scheme and pension scheme shall be suspended.

8100. UNJUSTIFIED ABSENCE

8100.1 Absence of a staff member at a time at which their presence is required under the present Staff Rule and in respect of which no prior authorisation has been granted shall be considered as unjustified absence. Any unjustified absence shall be compensated by a corresponding deduction from the staff member's annual leave entitlement or from their salary and may give rise to disciplinary proceedings.

8110. TELEWORK

8110.1 Telework is work which would normally be carried out on the Council of Europe premises but is performed elsewhere, at a defined location. Its aim is to contribute to a flexible, productive and result-oriented working environment and to a positive work-life balance for staff members. Telework is not a right of staff members, nor can it be imposed on staff members by the Organisation, except in the specific circumstances provided in paragraphs 8110.22 – 8110.24 below.

8110.2 The suitability of a job for telework will depend on the duties and responsibilities set out in the relevant job description.

8110.3 Subject to the foregoing paragraph, all staff members may telework, including staff members undergoing their probationary period and those working part-time.

8110.4 Presence in the workplace is required for at least 50% of a staff member's working time in any given two-week period. The two-week period shall be calculated on a rolling basis, disregarding any days not worked.

Authorisation

8110.5 Any telework requires the prior authorisation of the staff member's direct manager. A staff member whose job is suitable for telework may submit a request to telework.

8110.6 Requests for telework must be treated in a fair and consistent manner, without discrimination on any ground. Authorisation to telework shall be granted only if all of the following criteria are met:

8110.6.1 The staff member's tasks can be carried out away from Council of Europe premises;

8110.6.2 The requested telework is compatible with the needs of the service and would not have a negative impact on the staff member's team; and

8110.6.3 In the opinion of the direct manager, the staff member has the requisite organisational skills and capacity to work autonomously to enable them to meet their objectives whilst teleworking.

8110.7 Any refusal of a request to telework shall be given in writing and duly justified by reference to the provisions of the present Staff Rule.

8110.8 Telework at the duty station

Telework shall in principle be carried out at the staff member's place of residence, as declared to the Directorate of Human Resources. It may, however, be carried out in another suitable place in the vicinity of the staff member's duty station, provided that the place is located within two hours' travel, door to door, from the staff member's workplace.

8110.9 Telework away from the duty station

Staff members may, by way of exception to the foregoing paragraph and within the limit set out at paragraph 8110.4 above, telework away from the duty station for a total maximum of 50 days per calendar year. Telework away from the duty station may only be carried out in a member State of the Organisation or in a country in which the Organisation enjoys the privileges and immunities required to fulfil its mission. Staff members bear sole responsibility for any additional liabilities, including but not limited to those of a fiscal or social contribution nature, resulting from their telework away from the duty station.

8110.10 Working hours

Staff members who are teleworking shall observe the working hours set out at paragraphs 810.1 and 810.2 above, according to the time zone of their duty station.

8110.11 Telework within teams

Managers shall discuss with the members of their teams, at least annually, the team's framework for telework. Such discussions shall cover inter alia the anticipated frequency of telework by each team member and the times at which presence in the office is required.

Obligations of staff members

8110.12 Staff members must ensure that their place of teleworking is conducive to the effective exercise of their duties. They must not be subject to distractions and, in particular, must not act as primary caregiver to any person whilst teleworking.

8110.13 Staff members must ensure that their teleworking environment is ergonomically suitable and that they comply, whilst teleworking, with any health and safety guidance issued by the Organisation.

8110.14 Aside from the tools provided by the Organisation, staff members shall bear any costs incurred in setting up and maintaining their telework environment, as well as any travel, utilities, tax implications or other incidental costs associated with teleworking.

8110.15 Whilst teleworking, staff members must comply with all Council of Europe Regulations, Rules and Policies. They must take particular care to ensure that no unauthorised persons have access to confidential or sensitive information or any personal data. Any incident involving confidential or sensitive information or personal data should be reported immediately to the entity of the Directorate of Information Technology concerned with information security or the Data Protection Officer, as applicable.

- 8110.16 A staff member may occasionally be required to make arrangements to return to the office or to change their teleworking schedule, where their direct manager deems it necessary. This shall not give rise to any compensation to the staff member concerned. The direct manager shall request the arrangements referred to in this paragraph, in writing, at least one day in advance if the staff member is teleworking at the duty station and at least two days in advance if the staff member is teleworking away from the duty station.

Rights of staff members

- 8110.17 Staff members who telework shall not be discriminated against as regards allocation of tasks, career development, or any other matter.
- 8110.18 Staff members, whether teleworking or not, have the right to fully participate in all relevant meetings and to receive all information necessary for the successful completion of their tasks.
- 8110.19 Teleworking, as a means to reconcile professional and private life, shall not result in an increased workload for staff members and shall not hamper their right to disconnect from work during non-working hours.
- 8110.20 Staff members shall enjoy all the rights set out in the Council of Europe's Regulations, Rules and Policies whilst teleworking, to the extent that such rights do not depend on the staff member's presence on Council of Europe premises.

Telework for medical reasons

- 8110.21 Telework may be approved by the Organisation's doctor for medical reasons, where the need to telework is duly justified by a medical certificate. The staff member's direct manager must validate the request to telework for medical reasons, on the basis of the approval of the Organisation's doctor. The limit set out at paragraph 8110.4 shall not apply. In the event that the medical certificate authorises the staff member to reside at a place other than their home address, the limit on days of telework away from the duty station set out at paragraph 8110.9 shall not apply.

Telework for special reasons

- 8110.22 The Secretary General may exceptionally, where the duly justified personal situation of the staff member so requires, authorise a staff member to telework in a manner which derogates from one or more of the provisions of this Article.

- 8110.23 In the event of a crisis or in other exceptional circumstances where the needs of the Organisation so require, the Secretary General may order all or certain staff members to telework to the extent strictly required by the circumstances. In so doing, the Secretary General may decide to derogate from one or more of the provisions of this Article.
- 8110.24 In special circumstances involving a temporary departure from the usual ways of working, the Director General of Administration may, after having consulted the Staff Committee, authorise derogation from one or more of the provisions of this Article, in respect of a limited number of staff members and for a limited time.
- 8110.25 In applying paragraphs 8110.22 – 8110.24, no derogation shall be made from paragraphs 8110.17 – 8110.20.

STAFF REGULATIONSARTICLE XII*Discipline

12.1 A staff member who acts or omits to act, whether deliberately, recklessly or negligently, in breach of these or any other Regulations, Staff Rules, Instructions or Policies; who fails to observe the established standards of conduct; or who fails to perform assigned tasks without reasonable excuse, may be subject to one of the following disciplinary sanctions, to be determined by the Secretary General:

12.1.3 relegation in up to three steps;

12.1.4 suspension without pay of up to six months' duration;

12.1.5 downgrading;

12.1.6 dismissal.

12.2 Prior to imposing any disciplinary sanction, with the exception of a written warning, the Secretary General shall consult the relevant standing joint advisory committee.

12.3 The Secretary General may summarily dismiss a staff member for gross misconduct, without first consulting the relevant standing joint advisory committee.

12.4 A single case of misconduct shall not give rise to more than one disciplinary sanction.

12.5 The severity of the disciplinary sanction imposed must be commensurate with the seriousness of the misconduct.

12.6 No disciplinary sanction may be imposed until a staff member has been informed of the allegations against them and given the opportunity to make oral or written representations.

12.7 A staff member or former staff member may be required to reimburse the Organisation either partially or in full for any financial loss suffered by the Organisation as a result of the staff member's breach of these or any other Regulations, Staff Rules, Instructions, Policies or established standards of conduct.

STAFF RULE ON DISCIPLINE

1210. INSTIGATION OF DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

- 1210.1 Reports of alleged wrongdoing made to the Directorate of Internal Oversight (DIO) pursuant to Speak Up: Council of Europe Policy on reporting wrongdoing and protection from retaliation will be handled by that entity in accordance with the aforementioned Policy and the Rule on investigations. Where an investigation report resulting from such a report, or from an allegation of wrongdoing which has come to the attention of the DIO by a different means, discloses misconduct on the part of a Secretariat member, the report shall be transmitted by the DIO to the Secretary General for possible disciplinary follow-up.
- 1210.2 Formal complaints of harassment made to the Director of Human Resources pursuant to the Policy on respect and dignity in the Council of Europe will be handled in accordance with the aforementioned Policy. Any investigation into such a complaint will be conducted by external investigators in compliance with the Rule on investigations. Where an investigation report resulting from such a formal complaint discloses misconduct on the part of a Secretariat member, the report shall be transmitted by the Director of Human Resources to the Secretary General for possible disciplinary follow-up.

1220. INTERIM MEASURES

- 1220.1 If, following a preliminary assessment or at any stage prior to the submission of an investigation report to the Secretary General, the DIO or the Director of Human Resources, as applicable, is of the view that any of the following conditions are met, a recommendation may be made to the Secretary General that specific interim measures be taken in the interests of the Organisation:
- 1220.1.1 indications that a Secretariat member has perpetrated gross misconduct; and/or
 - 1220.1.2 a credible risk that the continued presence of the Secretariat member suspected of wrongdoing would endanger the investigation, the interests of the Organisation, or a harmonious work environment.
- 1220.2 The Secretary General shall, upon receipt of such a recommendation, decide whether or not a specific interim measure shall be taken.
- 1220.3 Interim measures include, but are not limited to:
- 1220.3.1 temporary suspension of a Secretariat member;
 - 1220.3.2 temporary exclusion of a Secretariat member from access to certain files or certain premises;

 - 1220.3.5 revision of the duties and responsibilities of a Secretariat member; and/or
 - 1220.3.6 imposition of any other limits on a Secretariat member's official activities.
- 1220.4 Interim measures are without prejudice to the rights and entitlements of the person concerned and do not constitute a disciplinary measure.
- 1220.5 If the recommended interim measure involves the suspension of a Secretariat member, the Secretary General shall, at the same time as taking the decision referred to in paragraph 1220.2 above, decide whether the person shall continue to receive their full remuneration during their suspension or, if not, what part of the remuneration shall be withheld. The part of remuneration withheld shall in no case be more than half of the Secretariat member's basic salary. The duration of suspension of a Secretariat member shall depend on the duration of the preliminary assessment and investigation, as well as any subsequent disciplinary proceedings.
- 1220.6 A decision to impose interim measures shall be reviewed when necessary and at least monthly. At the end of disciplinary proceedings or, as the case may be, when a decision is taken by the Secretary General not to institute disciplinary proceedings, any interim measure imposed shall be lifted. Where the interim measure involved suspension of the Secretariat member and no disciplinary sanction more severe than a written reprimand has been imposed, the Secretariat member shall resume their duties and any sums withheld from their remuneration shall be paid to them.

1230. ACTION BY THE SECRETARY GENERAL

- 1230.1 The Secretary General, upon receipt of an investigation report from the DIO or the Director of Human Resources, shall decide:
- 1230.1.1 that no further action is warranted, in which case the person concerned shall be informed accordingly;
 - 1230.1.2 to refer the matter to the Director of Human Resources for non-disciplinary follow-up, which may include oral or written communication with the person concerned; or a proposal of training, coaching or other follow-up which the Director of Human Resources considers to be appropriate;
 - 1230.1.3 that the appropriate disciplinary sanction to be imposed upon the person concerned appears, in the view of the Secretary General, to be a written warning, in which case the Secretary General will ask the Director of Human Resources to hear the person;
 - 1230.1.4 to refer the matter to the Joint Advisory Committee on Discipline with a view to the possible imposition of a disciplinary sanction provided for by Article 12, paragraphs 1.2 – 1.6 of the Staff Regulations; or

- 1230.1.5 to hear the person concerned in accordance with paragraph 1250.3 below, with a view to determining whether summary dismissal is warranted.

With the exception of cases referred to at paragraph 1230.1.5 above, the Secretary General shall take the aforementioned decision within one month of receipt of the investigation report.

- 1230.2 The Secretary General may seek clarification and/or additional information on specific points from the DIO or from the external investigators via the Director of Human Resources, as necessary.
- 1230.3 When so requested by the Secretary General pursuant to paragraph 1230.1.3 above, the Director of Human Resources will hear the person concerned so as to ascertain their version of events and the existence or otherwise of any mitigating factors. The person concerned may be accompanied to the hearing before the Director of Human Resources by a Secretariat member of their choosing, whose role shall be to observe the proceedings and to provide moral support. The accompanying staff member must not participate in the proceedings in any way but shall have the right to make comments at the end of the interview, including on the manner in which the interview was conducted, and have their comments recorded in the report of the hearing. Following the hearing, the Director of Human Resources will transmit a written report of the hearing to the Secretary General together with a recommendation as to whether or not a written warning should be imposed.

1240. JOINT ADVISORY COMMITTEE ON DISCIPLINE

- 1240.1 The Chair and members of the Joint Advisory Committee on Discipline (the Committee) shall be entirely independent and impartial in the performance of their duties. The Committee's proceedings shall be secret.
- 1240.2 In the event that the Secretary General decides to seek the opinion of the Committee, pursuant to paragraph 1230.1.4 above, a request for an opinion, together with the relevant investigation report and the comments thereon by the person concerned, will be transmitted to the Secretariat of the Committee. The request shall also include a deadline for the Committee's opinion, which shall not be more than 2 months from the date of transmission of the request.
- 1240.3 Upon receipt of a request for an opinion, the Committee's Secretariat shall promptly inform the Chair of the Committee and shall establish the provisional composition of the Committee. This shall be done by taking the first two names from each of two alphabetised lists, the first showing members appointed by the Secretary General and the second showing members appointed by the Staff Committee. If a member selected in this manner is in any of the following situations, they shall be excluded from participation in the Committee and the next person on the respective list shall be selected in their place:

- 1240.3.1 A person in the same Major Administrative Entity as the person concerned, with the exception of the Directorate General of Administration; Directorate General Human Rights and Rule of Law; or Directorate General of Democracy and Human Dignity;
- 1240.3.2 A person who is or has been the N+1 or N+2 of the person concerned; or
- 1240.3.3 A person whose current or former N+1 or N+2 is the person concerned.

The Secretariat may, if necessary, check with the person concerned whether a member selected pursuant to this paragraph is in a situation described at paragraphs 1240.3.2 or 1240.3.3 above.

- 1240.4 The provisional composition of the Committee shall be notified to the Chair and to the members selected to participate. The name of the person concerned shall not be disclosed at this stage. A person selected to participate who is not available, for reasons of sick leave, annual leave, or official travel in the time before the deadline for the Committee's opinion shall inform the Secretariat accordingly, and the Secretariat shall select the next person on the respective list to replace them. Once the Secretariat has established that all selected members are available to participate, the Secretariat shall inform the selected and available members of the name of the person concerned. Any member who considers themselves to be in a situation of conflict of interest shall notify the Chair accordingly and recuse themselves from participation. Any member who recuses themselves in this manner shall be replaced by the next person on the respective list.
- 1240.5 Once the Secretariat has established the provisional composition of the Committee, as provided in the foregoing paragraphs, the names of the members shall be notified to the person concerned, who shall have the right, if they wish, to object to one member of the Committee, without any obligation to give reasons for this objection. In the event of such an objection, the member shall be replaced by the next member on the respective list and both the member removed and the member added to the Committee's composition, as well as the person concerned, shall be notified accordingly. The person concerned may object to the newly selected or any other selected members of the Committee but must provide reasons for such a further objection to the Chair of the Committee, who shall evaluate the reasons given and decide whether or not to replace the member(s) to whom the person concerned has objected.
- 1240.6 For the purposes of selecting the members on the next occasion the Committee is requested to provide an opinion, a member of the Committee who has been selected and actually participated in the Committee's examination of a file shall move to the bottom of the list on which their name appears. A member who was initially selected but was excluded; unavailable; or recused themselves, pursuant to the foregoing paragraphs, shall remain at the top of the list on which their name appears.
- 1240.7 The person concerned shall be summoned to a hearing before the Committee. The purpose of the hearing shall be to ascertain the version of events of the person concerned and the existence or otherwise of any mitigating factors. The person concerned may be accompanied by a person of their choosing, provided that the accompanying person has no connection with the matter under consideration.

1240.8 In the event that, at the time at which the summons is sent, the person concerned is absent by reason of medically certified illness for a period of 10 calendar days or less, or on approved annual leave of any duration, the hearing may be postponed by a period of time corresponding to the duration of sick leave or annual leave. In such an event, the Committee may ask for an extension to the deadline referred to at paragraph 1240.2 above. In the event of absence by reason of medically certified illness for a period exceeding 10 calendar days, the person concerned shall be given the option of either providing written comments in place of attending the hearing or being represented at the hearing by a person of their choosing. Any claimed inability to provide comments or to instruct a representative shall be supported by a statement from a medical practitioner which confirms the inability to do so. The Chair of the Committee shall decide whether it is possible for the Committee to formulate its opinion, without hearing the person concerned.

1240.9 The Committee shall not conduct its own fact-finding but shall base itself on the facts as established in the investigation report. In the event that the Committee considers that the investigation report does not provide a sufficient basis for its opinion, it may request that the Secretary General seek further information or clarification from the DIO or the Director of Human Resources on any specific points where the Committee considers it necessary. In such an event, the Committee may ask for an extension to the deadline referred to at paragraph 1240.2 above.

1240.10 The Committee shall, after its hearing of the person concerned, formulate its opinion including a reasoned recommendation as to the most appropriate disciplinary sanction to be imposed. This opinion shall be transmitted to the person concerned by the Committee's Secretariat.

1240.11 The person concerned shall be given 10 working days to review and comment on the Committee's opinion. In the event that, at any time between the date of transmission of the opinion and the deadline for comments thereon, the person concerned is absent by reason of medically certified illness for a period of 10 calendar days or less, or on approved annual leave of any duration, the time given for comments shall be extended by a period of time corresponding to the duration of sick leave or annual leave. In the event of absence by reason of medically certified illness for a period exceeding 10 calendar days, the person concerned shall be required to provide their comments if they are able to do so. Any claimed inability to provide comments shall be supported by a statement from a medical practitioner which confirms the inability to do so. Where such a statement is provided, the Secretary General shall decide whether it is reasonable and fair in all the circumstances of the case to take a decision as to the sanction to be imposed, in the absence of the comments of the person concerned.

1250. IMPOSITION OF A DISCIPLINARY SANCTION

1250.1 Upon receipt, from the Committee's Secretariat, of the Committee's opinion and the written comments thereon by the person concerned, the Secretary General shall, within 10 working days, take a decision whether to impose a sanction or not and, where applicable, the appropriate sanction to be imposed, which shall be proportionate to the wrongdoing which gave rise to it. The Secretary General, in imposing the sanction, shall provide reasons for the choice of sanction, which shall take due account of the written comments of the person concerned. Where the Secretary General decides to depart from the Committee's recommendation, the reasons for such departure shall be indicated.

1250.2 In cases where the Secretary General has asked the Director of Human Resources to hear the person concerned, with a view to imposing a written warning, pursuant to paragraph 1230.1.3 above, the decision as to whether or not to impose the written warning shall be taken after receiving the Director of Human Resources' report of the hearing and recommendation. The written warning shall include the reasons for which it is being imposed. The Secretary General may also decide, following receipt of the hearing report:

1250.2.1 To take no further action, in which case the person concerned will be informed accordingly; or

1250.2.2 To refer the matter to the Committee for its opinion, as per paragraph 1230.1.4 above.

1250.3 In cases where the Secretary General is of the view that the wrongdoing established in the investigation report may amount to gross misconduct, as defined below, and that summary dismissal may be warranted, the person concerned shall be invited to a hearing before the Secretary General, with a view to determining whether termination of contract would indeed be the most appropriate sanction. The invitation to the hearing shall be transmitted within 10 working days of the receipt of the investigation report and the hearing shall take place as soon as practically possible thereafter. The person concerned may be accompanied to the hearing by a person of their choosing, the purpose of which shall be to ascertain the version of events of the person concerned and the existence or otherwise of any mitigating factors. Following the hearing, the Secretary General shall take a decision as to whether summary dismissal is warranted and, if so, shall impose the sanction by way of a duly reasoned decision. The Secretary General may, in the alternative, decide:

1250.3.1 To take no further action, in which case the person concerned will be informed accordingly; or

1250.3.2 To refer the matter to the Committee for its opinion, as per paragraph 1230.1.4 above.

1250.4 Gross misconduct shall be understood to mean a breach of the staff member's obligations of such gravity as to fundamentally undermine the relationship of trust between the staff member and the Organisation. The following acts, when perpetrated in the context of a staff member's professional duties, are examples of gross misconduct: physical or sexual violence or threats of violence; harassment; theft or wilful destruction of property; fraud; or corruption.

1250.5 A decision by the Secretary General to impose a disciplinary sanction may be challenged in accordance with Article 14 of the Staff Regulations on grievance procedures and the Staff Rule on grievance procedures.

 - 1260.1.2 Relegation in steps, suspension without pay, or downgrading: 6 years;

The Director of Human Resources may also inform any other person of the imposition of a disciplinary sanction, provided that such information is necessary for the effective implementation of the sanction and its follow-up. The information communicated shall be limited to the absolute minimum necessary.
- 1260.3 Where the disciplinary proceedings resulted from an allegation of harassment, the Director of Human Resources shall inform the person who made the formal complaint or report of harassment whether or not the disciplinary proceedings have resulted in the imposition of a sanction, but shall not disclose the type of sanction.
- 1260.4 Where an investigation report has not established a breach of any of the Organisation's regulations, rules, policies or standards of conduct, or where an investigation report has found such a breach but the Secretary General has decided to take no further action, no mention of the investigation shall be made in the personal administrative file of any staff member.
- 1260.5 No mention shall be made in the personal administrative file of a staff member who has participated in a preliminary assessment or investigation as a potential witness or alleged victim of wrongdoing.

1270. CONFIDENTIALITY OF PROCEEDINGS

Information regarding sanctions imposed shall be shared on a need-to-know basis in conformity with these and any other applicable rules, regulations and policies.

1270.2 The unauthorised disclosure of any information pertaining to or garnered as a result of the procedures described in the present Staff Rule, whether by the persons conducting the procedures or any other person, shall amount to wrongdoing and may result in a disciplinary sanction.

1280. PARALLEL CRIMINAL PROCEEDINGS

1280.1 Where the person concerned is subject to criminal proceedings before the relevant national authorities for the same acts, omissions or conduct that gave rise to proceedings under this Staff Rule, the Secretary General may decide to suspend the proceedings under this Staff Rule until such time as the criminal proceedings have reached their conclusion.

1290. REOPENING DISCIPLINARY PROCEEDINGS

STAFF RULE ON GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

1410. PURPOSE OF THE GRIEVANCE PROCEDURES

1410.1 The grievance procedures are set up with the following purposes:

- To ensure fair, consistent, lawful and impartial decision-making;
- To ensure that officials entrusted with administrative or managerial powers are responsible and accountable for their decisions;
- To protect the rights of staff members;
- To provide a framework enabling the exercise of a right to review, including judicial review; and
- To redress abuses of administrative power.

1420. DEFINITIONS

1420.1 An administrative decision is any decision, action or implicit decision, taken by an official with administrative powers or a staff member's manager, which affects a staff member's terms and conditions of employment or rights under the Staff Regulations or Rules or any applicable legal provisions.

1420.2 An "implicit administrative decision" shall be deemed to have been taken where a staff member has made a request concerning their terms and conditions of appointment or rights under the Staff Regulations or Rules or any applicable legal provisions and has not received a response thereto within the relevant deadline if any or, where no such deadline is specified, within 60 days of the date of the request. The request shall be deemed to have been refused on the date on which the deadline expired or, as the case may be, 60 days after the date on which the request was made.

1420.3 The term "original decision-maker" refers to the official who took the administrative decision.

1420.4 The term "reviewer" refers to a manager of the staff member who took the administrative decision.

1420.5 The term “complainant” refers to a staff member, or a person referred to in Article 14.10 of the Staff Regulations, who has lodged a formal complaint with the Secretary General pursuant to Article 14.4 of the Staff Regulations.

1420.6 The term “appellant” refers to a staff member, or a person referred to in Article 14.10 of the Staff Regulations, who has lodged an appeal with the Administrative Tribunal of the Council of Europe pursuant to Article 14.5 or 14.6 of the Staff Regulations.

1430. CALCULATION OF TIME LIMITS

1430.1 All time limits in this Staff Rule are expressed in calendar days and shall run from the day following the day on which the relevant event occurred and shall expire at midnight (Paris time) on the last day of the time limit. Calculation of time limit shall include Saturdays, Sundays and public holidays. Where the last day of a time-limit is a Saturday, Sunday or a public holiday or non-working day in the Organisation’s headquarters, the time-limit shall expire on the next working day. All time limits shall be suspended during the annual closure of the Council of Europe headquarters fixed by decision of the Secretary General.

1430.2 Any request for management review or any formal complaint not submitted within the specified time limit shall be rejected as being out of time, save for exceptional cases where, for duly substantiated reasons, a request for management review or a formal complaint lodged outside the specified time limit may be declared admissible. The failure to abide by the time limits must result from reasons beyond the control of the staff member seeking management review or the complainant, as the case may be, and the length of the delay must be reasonable having regard to the circumstances of the case.

1440. MANAGEMENT REVIEW

1440.1 Staff members who consider that an administrative decision is:

- prejudicial to their interest; and
- conflicts with their terms and conditions of appointment, or with any relevant provisions of the Staff Regulations or Staff Rules or any other applicable legal provisions;

may request a review of the decision by the manager of the original decision-maker in accordance with Article 14.3 of the Staff Regulations.

1440.2 A request for management review must be filed with the original decision-maker within 30 days from the date on which the contested administrative decision was notified to the staff member or, in the absence of notification, from the date on which the staff member became aware of the decision. Where the contested decision is an implicit administrative decision, the request for management review must be made within 30 days from the date on which the implicit administrative decision is deemed to have been taken, pursuant to paragraph 1420.2 above.

- 1440.3 A request for management review must be made in writing, submitted electronically and contain a brief explanation of the reasons for the request. The original decision-maker must acknowledge receipt of the request and promptly transfer it to the reviewer.
- 1440.4 If, having reviewed the administrative decision, the reviewer finds that it was improperly taken, the reviewer must correct it. If the reviewer concludes that the administrative decision was properly taken, a reasoned explanation for this finding must be provided to the staff member. The reviewer must notify the staff member of the outcome of the management review, in writing, within 30 days from the date on which the request was received by the original decision-maker.
- 1440.5 The following administrative decisions are not subject to management review:
- 1440.5.1 A decision to impose a disciplinary sanction;
 - 1440.5.2 A decision taken personally by the Secretary General, Deputy Secretary General or a Head of Major Administrative Entity;
 - 1440.5.3 A decision implementing a general legislative measure adopted by the Committee of Ministers.
 - 1440.5.4 A decision addressed to the persons referred to in Article 14.10 of the Staff Regulations.

1450. COMPLAINTS PROCEDURE

- 1450.1 A staff member who is not satisfied with the outcome of the management review or has not been notified of the outcome of the management review within the time limit, shall be entitled to lodge a formal complaint with the Secretary General pursuant to Article 14.4 of the Staff Regulations.
- 1450.2 The complaint must be lodged within 30 days from the date on which the outcome of the management review was notified or, in the absence of notification, within 30 days from the date on which the notification was due.
- 1450.3 A formal complaint may also be lodged:
- 1450.3.1 by a staff member who has been subject to a disciplinary sanction consisting of a written warning, within 30 days from the date on which they were notified of the decision to impose the disciplinary sanction;
 - 1450.3.2 by a staff member contesting an administrative decision taken personally by the Deputy Secretary General or a Head of Major Administrative Entity, within 30 days from the date on which the contested administrative decision was notified to them or, in the absence of notification, from the date on which they became aware thereof;
 - 1450.3.3 by those referred to in Article 14.10.1 to 14.10.3 of the Staff Regulations, within 30 days from the date on which the contested administrative decision was notified to them or, in the absence of notification, from the date on which they became aware thereof;

1450.3.4 by the Staff Committee, where the administrative decision directly affects the Staff Committee or its powers, within 30 days from the date on which the contested administrative decision was notified to the Staff Committee or, in the absence of notification, within 30 days from the date on which the Staff Committee became aware thereof. In case of a general act affecting the Staff Committee or its powers, a formal complaint must be lodged within 30 days from the publication of the act.

1450.4 A formal complaint must be made in writing and submitted to the Secretary General via the Director of Human Resources, who shall acknowledge receipt to the complainant.

1450.5 The complainant shall be notified of a reasoned decision on the complaint within 30 days from the date on which the complaint was received by the Director of Human Resources. Failure to notify the complainant within the time limit is deemed to be a rejection of the complaint by the Secretary General.

1460. APPEALS PROCEDURE

1460.1 The Secretary General's rejection, in whole or in part, of a formal complaint may be appealed to the Administrative Tribunal of the Council of Europe in accordance with the provisions of the Tribunal's Statute and Rules of Procedure.

1460.2 Appeals may also be lodged with the Administrative Tribunal of the Council of Europe against the following, without the requirement to lodge a formal complaint beforehand:

1460.2.1 the imposition of a disciplinary sanction, with the exception of a written warning;

1460.2.2 an administrative decision personally taken by the Secretary General;

1460.2.3 an administrative decision implementing a legislative measure of general character adopted by the Committee of Ministers, provided that the appellant has a direct and existing interest in challenging such a decision.

1470. MEDIATION

1470.1 Mediation may be sought by staff members of the Council of Europe with a view to reaching an amicable resolution of an inter-personal dispute with one or more staff member(s).

1470.2 Staff members may also consult the mediators on any issue which affects them and is covered by the Policy on respect and dignity at the Council of Europe, or which otherwise impacts upon their well-being or performance at work.

- 1470.3 Mediation can be sought at any time. In the context of alleged harassment, however, mediation cannot be sought while a formal complaint of harassment that has been lodged with the Director of Human Resources, in terms of the Policy on respect and dignity at the Council of Europe, is pending.
- 1470.4 Mediation is an entirely voluntary process, which will be entered into only with the consent of all participants.
- 1470.5 The mediation process is confidential.
- 1470.6 The mediation process will be conducted in conformity with the Guidelines on mediation.

The Mediators

- 1470.7 The Secretary General shall select two mediators, one of each gender, from a list, prepared jointly by the Director of Human Resources and the Staff Committee, which includes the names of at least two persons of each gender.
- 1470.8 The mediators shall be independent and, while in office, shall not hold any post or engage in any activity that might be considered to affect their independence or impartiality. They shall not be staff members of the Council of Europe.
- 1470.9 The mediators shall be selected for a period of five years, upon the expiry of which they shall not be selected again. Should a mediator be unable to serve for the full five-year period, a new mediator of the same gender as the outgoing mediator shall be selected in their place.
- 1470.10 The mediators shall have a secretariat, consisting of two staff members appointed by the Secretary General after consultation with the mediators and the Staff Committee.
- 1470.11 The mediators shall submit an activity report to the Secretary General every two years. The Secretary General shall publish the activity report, together with details of any follow-up action taken.
