Dear Sirs

Re: Application no. 16259/90 – Diogenous and Tseriotis v Turkey, Judgment (Just Satisfaction) dated 26 October 2010, FINAL 11 April 2011 (“Judgment”)

Thank you for circulating copy of the Applicants' letter dated 22 October 2025 under reference DH-DD(2025)1370.

Further to that, we set out the following:

- (1) The Respondent continues to deny access and use of the Applicants' properties since August 1974 and in any event since the date of the above-mentioned Application and same are being used by the top brass of the Respondent's military in Cyprus.
- (2) As suggested by the Respondent in its letter dated 22 June 2023 under reference DH-DD(2023)811 the Applicants have on 17 December 2024 applied to the Respondent's Immovable Property Commission (“IPC”).
- (3) The Respondent in its defense, finally filed 10 months later, on 9 October 2025, has generally denied the Applicants' claim including the fact that there was Judgment by the Court and does not even accept to pay same.
- (4) It is important to note that the amount, which the Applicants' property has been valued today by the Respondent for purposes of buying it (namely, £490,000), is very low when compared to the amount (plus interest up to date of filing) awarded by the Court for loss of use for 20 years in the Judgment (namely, €313,856). In any event, no global offer has been made by the Respondent.
- (5) Furthermore, the application before the IPC had been fixed on (i) 30 October 2025, (ii) 27 November 2025, (iii) 15 January 2026 (iv) 29 January 2026 and (v) 26 February 2026 (namely, for more than 4 times) and without any real justification it was adjourned and is now fixed for 26 March 2026.

- (6) In view of the above, we find it very difficult to understand how in this case the IPC is an effective remedy when even the facts of the Judgment are not accepted and no reasonable amount is offered to be paid even for the Judgment which has been pending for more than 15 years.
- (7) The Applicants are thus still without a remedy (after nearly 52 years of dispossession) and CM(DH) should be made aware of this in order to take appropriate steps to enforce the Judgment.
- (8) Given the Respondent's failure to meet its unconditional obligations under Article 46 (1) and to pay the just satisfaction awarded (even after some of the Applicants' concession to be paid in escrow to the Council of Europe) the Applicants respectfully make a request for the procedure under Article 46(4) to finally commence.
- (9) It is unfair, to say the least, for the Respondent to enjoy for more than 16 years the procedural advantage of the Demopoulos Decision while it fails to pay the just satisfaction awarded and/or proceed with the Applicants' IPC application.

Thanking you in advance for your cooperation and would be grateful if this letter is brought to the attention of the Members of the Committee of Ministers, prior to their forthcoming meeting 2 – 4 December 2025 pursuant to Rule 9 of its Rules for the Supervision of the Execution of Judgments.

I remain at your disposal should you require any clarifications.

Yours sincerely

Achilleas Demetriades
