Subject: RE: EXEC - Transmission regarding the case of Đakovic v. Serbia (Application No. 30749/22)

Dear Madam/Sir,

Regarding the letter submitted by the applicant`s legal representative of 24 August 2026, I hereby inform you that the authorities have taken concrete steps with a view to securing the payment of the just satisfaction awarded by the Court.

Since the expenditure arising from the judgment was not foreseeable at the time of preparation of the 2026 budget, the necessary funds had not initially been allocated. The War Crimes Prosecutor`s Office consequently approached the Ministry of Finance with a request for funding from the current budget reserve.

In order to overcome this budgetary constraint and ensure full compliance with the judgment, the War Crimes Prosecutor`s Office renewed its fourth request to the Ministry of Finance again on 25 August 2026, seeking the allocation of RSD 1,612,000 from the current budget reserve.

The authorities are therefore actively pursuing the necessary budgetary arrangements for the payment and remain committed to discharging the financial obligation arising from the judgment in full.

The Republic of Serbia complies with the deadlines for paying the just satisfaction awarded by the Court and is fully committed to the execution of the Court's judgments and to the obligations arising from the Convention.

Yours sincerely,

Zorana Mladar
