ACTION REPORT

Çakı and Others v. Türkiye* (no. 41822/07)

Judgment of and final on 22 January 2019

SERVICE DE L'EXECUTION
DES ARRETS DE LA CEDH

I. CASE DESCRIPTION

1. The case concerns complaints of an alleged violation of the applicants' right to respect for their property under Article 1 of Protocol No. 1 to the Convention.

2. On 7 September 2018 and 21 November 2018, the European Court ("the Court") received friendly settlement declarations signed by the parties. Under the terms of the friendly settlement, the applicants agreed to waive any further claims against Türkiye in respect of the facts giving rise to their applications. In return, the Government undertook to pay the applicants the amounts specified in the appended table.

II. MEASURES TAKEN IN RESPECT OF UNDERTAKINGS

3. As the applicant Osman Kahyaoğlu passed away before the Court delivered its decision, the payment could not be made in the absence of a revision decision. All other amounts specified in the appended table have been paid to the other applicants. (see Annex)

4. The authorities undertake to make the outstanding payments to the persons entitled to receive them following the Court's revision decision, provided that the necessary documents are submitted to them.

5. In the light of the above, the authorities consider that the terms of the friendly settlement have been complied with in respect of the other applicants and reiterate their undertaking to fulfil the outstanding payment obligation in respect of the deceased applicant.

Translation and Dissemination of the Judgment

6. The judgment was translated into Turkish and published on the Court's official website.

7. In addition, the Turkish authorities ensured that the translated text of the judgment, with an explanatory note, was circulated to the relevant domestic courts and the Court of Cassation.

III. CONCLUSIONS

8. In view of the above, the authorities consider that the terms of the friendly settlement have been complied with in respect of the other applicants and reiterate their commitment to fulfilling the remaining payment obligation.

9. The authorities respectfully invite the Committee of Ministers to take note of the measures taken and the undertakings given in the present case and to close its examination of the case.
