

Informal meeting:

The future of cybercrime and training needs for judges and prosecutors

Lisbon, 6 July 2009

Agenda

09:30 Opening

Presentation of the CEC, by the Director of CEJ

10:00 Training of judges and prosecutors: towards a concept paper

Issues to be discussed:

- The purpose of the concept paper
- Overview of replies to the questionnaire received
- Experience in the training of judges and prosecutors to date
- The role of the Lisbon Network
- The role of the CEJ
- The role of the private sector
- Preparing for the 3-4 September 2009 meeting in Strasbourg

- Moderator: Alexander Seger (CoE)

12:00 Practical issues of concern to judges and prosecutors

Session on practical and procedural concrete questions (e.g. jurisdictional and national competence to investigate and to prosecute crimes, procedure questions referring data retention and interception of communications)

- Moderator : Esther George (Prosecutor, UK)

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Cooperation/networking of judges, prosecutors and the private sector

Issues to be discussed:

- Networking among specialised cybercrime judges and prosecutors (e.g. GPEN)
- Private sector support to the training of judges and prosecutors
- Cooperation/networking of judges and prosecutors with the private sector: risks, opportunities, options

- Moderator : Roger Halbheer (Microsoft)

15:30 Towards a project to support the training of judges and prosecutors

In this session, the question of designing/launching a project to support the implementation of the training concept and networking among cybercrime judges and prosecutors is to be discussed.

- Moderator: Cristina Schulman (CoE)

16:30 Conclusions

