ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

On the results of the work conducted on implementation of paragraph 44 of recommendations of the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment following the visit of representatives of CPT to Ukraine in period from 9 till 16 September 2014 to Oleksiivska correctional colony (№ 25) and Temnivska correctional colony (№ 100) of the SPtS of Ukraine in Kharkiv region

To paragraph 44 with regard to continuation of efforts on prevention in the fight against abuse and intimidation in all penitentiary establishments.

On July 3, 2015 it was launched a new two-component project of the Council of Europe and the European Union "Further support of penitentiary reform in Ukraine" for 2015-2017 (hereinafter - Project of CoE and the EU).

The purpose of the Project of CoE and the EU is implementing to the activities of the bodies and institutions, belonging to the management of the SPtS of Ukraine, the mechanisms of applying the rehabilitation approach during the execution of criminal penalties in accordance with European standards and European experience, improvement of procedures and practice of prison inspections and review mechanism of complaints from prisoners.

Initiation of the Project of CoE and the EU due to the need to better implementation of the recommendations of the European Committee for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment, decisions of the European Court of Human Rights and the recommendations of the CoE Committee of Ministers on human rights.

To ensure proper cooperation of the SPtS of Ukraine with the Office of the Council of Europe on implementation of the tasks of the Project of CoE and the EU on July 20, 2015 a Memorandum of Understanding between the State Penitentiary Service of Ukraine and the Council of Europe Office in Ukraine on implementation of the project "Further support of penitentiary reform in Ukraine" was signed

By Order of the SPtS of Ukraine on 31.08.2015  $\mathbb{N}$  458 identified six pilot agencies and four pilot regions for optimisation of standards of the Council of Europe: Bilotserkivska ( $\mathbb{N}$  35), Chernihivska ( $\mathbb{N}$  44), Naderzhynschynska ( $\mathbb{N}$  65) and Stryzhavska ( $\mathbb{N}$  81) correctional colonies, Prylutska and Kremenchutska juvenile correctional facilities in Kyiv, Vinnytsia, Chernihiv and Poltava regions.

It is planned to test in practice "Four principles of effective prison", that used in advanced European penitentiary systems, in six pilot institutions.

The first principle provided to ensure a safe environment for staff and inmates. This principle requires evidence, that confirming support and adhere the interests of prisoners, especially, when they are most vulnerable, prevent violent incidents and bullying. It also needs efficient, well understood and fair security measures and disciplinary processes. This principle covers such areas as physical and dynamic security, surveillance, investigation procedures, protection, disciplinary actions and the prevention of suicide.

The second principle provides an understanding that with the prisoners behave politely and respect their human dignity. This principle includes checking the conditions in which prisoners are held, and attitudes on the part of prison staff. It covers areas such as accommodation, hygiene, clothing, food, health care and relationship staff / prisoner.

The third principle means that prisoners have the opportunity to participate in purposeful activity. This principle provides for appropriate targeted activities such as work, education and training for all inmates through the best use of all available resources. This principle covers areas such as education, work, training, the work program on illegal behavior, religious activities, physical education.

The fourth and final principle - the prisoners are ready for rehabilitation and release from prison. Prisons play an important role in an effort to rehabilitate prisoners and reducing the risk of committing repeated crimes. This principle includes supporting of family relationships, correspondence, visits, telephone calls, the outside life, employment opportunities and social ties.
