The Council of Europe is the continent's leading human rights organisation. It comprises 47 member states, 28 of which are members of the European Union. All Council of Europe member states have signed up to the European Convention on Human Rights, a treaty designed to protect human rights, democracy and the rule of law. The European Court of Human Rights oversees the implementation of the Convention in the member states.

The European Youth Centre Strasbourg (EYCS) is part of the Council of Europe. As young people help to shape the future of Europe, the Council of Europe has introduced a set of programmes to get them to play an active part in strengthening European civil society and upholding human rights, cultural diversity and social cohesion.

The European Youth Centres in Strasbourg and Budapest and the European Youth Foundation are vital in this respect, because:

- ▶ they help young people find solutions to everyday problems;
- ▶ they support and encourage young people's development and participation in European youth policy.

To maximise exchanges of information and experience, the programmes consist of training and language courses, study sessions, seminars and meetings of experts, which take place at the Strasbourg EYC.

WHO MAY USE THE EUROPEAN YOUTH CENTRE?

Are you an organisation, association, institution or youth group or network that shares and upholds the values of the Council of Europe?

Are you looking for accommodation or meeting rooms for a conference, a seminar, a symposium, a meetings of experts, a language course, an international training course, a study session or another group of activities?

The EYC in Strasbourg can offer you a venue in a parkland setting at the heart of the "European" district.
