WHAT IS THE EXPERTISE CO-ORDINATION MECHANISM?

The Expertise Co-ordination Mechanism (ECM) is part of a co-operation programme between the European Union and the Council of Europe, called the Horizontal Facility for the Western Balkans and Turkey (referred to hereafter as the Horizontal Facility), which aims to support Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo*, "the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia", Montenegro, Serbia and Turkey in their compliance with European standards. The Horizontal Facility follows a complementary two-fold approach: technical co-operation tailored to achieve increased compliance with European standards and the provision of Council of Europe expertise to respond to requests for legislative expertise and policy advice. The latter component, legislative expertise and policy advice, is called the ECM.

WHICH ISSUES CAN A REQUEST FOR AN EXPERT OPINION UNDER THE ECM COVER?

The ECM covers requests for ad hoc expert advice on legislative and policy issues, such as providing assessments on whether certain pieces of legislation and/or policy documents are in line with Council of Europe standards (as linked to European Union enlargement-related reforms) in the following areas:

- ensuring justice;
- fighting economic crime;
- anti-discrimination and the protection of the rights of vulnerable groups;
- freedom of expression and the media;
- constitutional issues, falling within the area of competence of the European; Commission for Democracy through Law (better known as the Venice Commission).

^{*} This designation is without prejudice to positions on status, and is in line with UNSCR 1244 and the ICJ Opinion on the Kosovo Declaration of Independence.

WHO CAN MAKE A REQUEST FOR AN EXPERT OPINION UNDER THE ECM?

Ministers (and other members of the government) or the speaker of parliament of Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, "the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia", Montenegro, Serbia and Turkey can make a request for an expert opinion under the ECM. Requests for amicus curiae briefs by the Venice Commission can also be made by constitutional courts.

HOW CAN A REQUEST FOR AN EXPERT OPINION UNDER THE ECM BE MADE?

Requests can be addressed in writing by letter or fax to the Secretary General of the Council of Europe, Mr Thorbjørn Jagland and will subsequently be processed by the relevant Council of Europe entity. Requests involving Venice Commission expertise can also be addressed directly to the President of the Venice Commission, Mr Gianni Buquicchio. Requests should preferably include as many details as possible, including the name and type of legislation or policy document on which expertise is being sought, the reasons for seeking expertise or for amending legislation or policy documents (or amendments to existing legislation and policy documents), following the provision of this expertise.

WHAT ARE THE CRITERIA FOR GRANTING A REQUEST?

An ECM request must meet all of the following criteria:

- the request must be made by a member of the government or speaker of the parliament or, under certain conditions, by the constitutional court of Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Kosovo, "the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia", Montenegro, Serbia or Turkey;
- the request must fall within an area of expertise of the Council of Europe;
- the request must fall within the following thematic areas: ensuring justice, fighting economic crime, anti-discrimination and the protection of the rights of vulnerable groups, freedom of expression and the media and/or constitutional issues falling within the area of competence of the Venice Commission;
- the request cannot be provided within the format of one of the ongoing actions/ projects of the technical co-operation component of the Horizontal Facility;

HOW LONG DOES IT TAKE BEFORE THE EXPERTISE IS PROVIDED?

The length of time for the Council of Europe to provide expertise on any type of policy document or legislation can vary and depends on the length and complexity of the document on which expertise is sought. It may take anywhere from one month to up to a year to provide. The time frame will be decided on in consultation with the requesting authorities.

WHO SHOULD AN ECM REQUEST BE SENT TO?

The Council of Europe is the continent's leading human rights organisation. It comprises 47 member states, 28 of which are members of the European Union. All Council of Europe member states have signed up to the European Convention on Human Rights, a treaty designed to protect human rights, democracy and the rule of law. The European Court of Human Rights oversees the implementation of the Convention in the member states.

The European Union is a unique economic and political partnership between 28 democratic European countries. Its aims are peace, prosperity and freedom for its 500 million citizens – in a fairer, safer world. To make things happen, EU countries set up bodies to run the EU and adopt its legislation. The main ones are the European Parliament (representing national governments) and the European Commission (representing national governments).
