Intercultural Learning Exchange through Global Education, Networking and Dialogue

Funded by the European Union and the Council of Europe

Implemented
by the Council of Europe

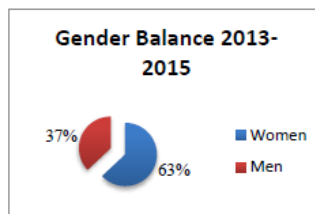

Strengthening Global Development education in EU member states and candidate countries through advocacy, capacity building and networking

Previous experience 2013-2015

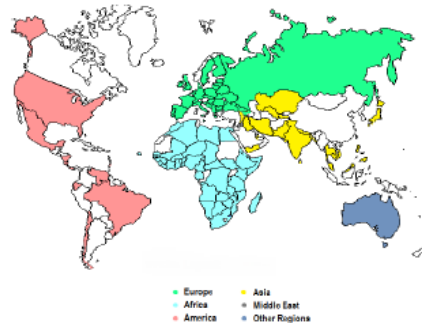

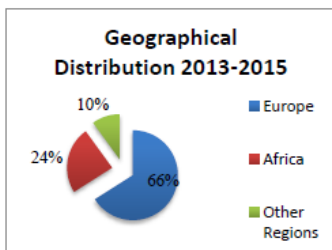

The JMA 2013-2015 highlights

➔ A total of 1411 participants - gender balanced – including participants from vulnerable groups and with fewer opportunities.

➔ A total of 26 capacity-building activities reaching out to almost 1050 multipliers

➔ While the geographical focus of the Action was Europe, peer-learning was indeed global w participants from all five continents

➔ 11 activities were implemented in the framework of the Africa-Europe Youth Co-operation and 24 projects were funded under the Africa-Europe seed-funding scheme

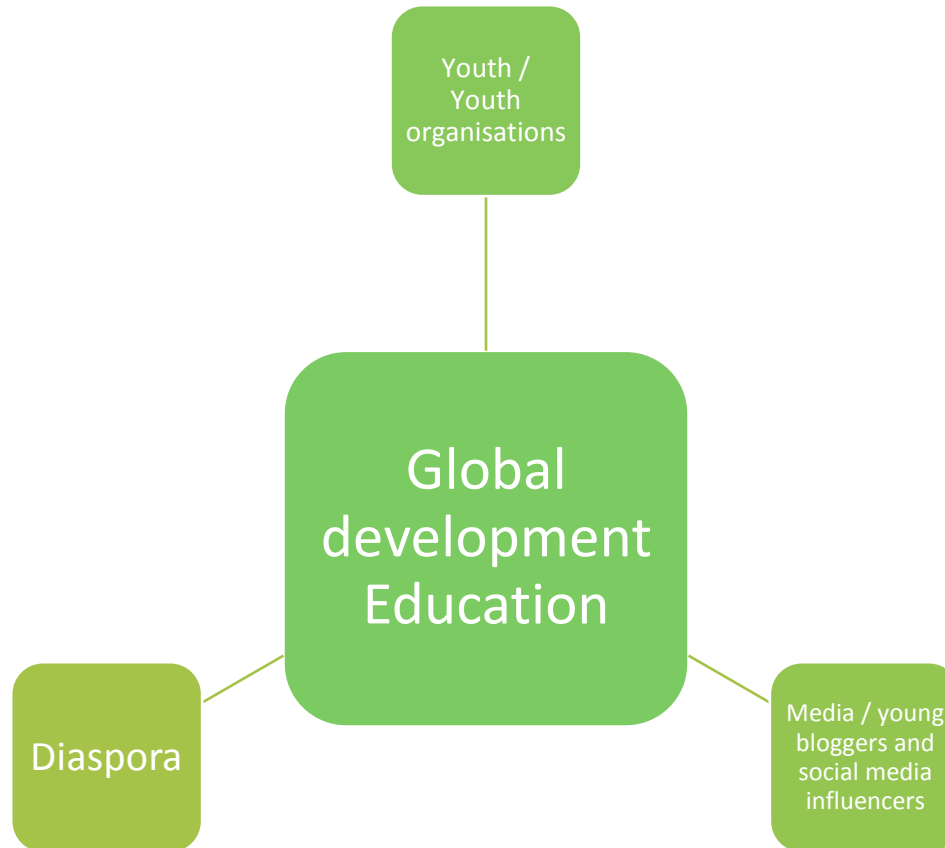

➔ The usefulness and appropriateness of the Global Education Guidelines as a pedagogical tool is attested by the total number of downloads of the online versions in different languages from 2013-2015: 66 659 downloads

➔ 14 meetings encouraging peer-learning and the sharing of good practices (regional and kick-off seminars) contribute to the implementation of national strategies and action plans and culminated in the 3rd Global Education Congress that put forward a new set of policy recommendations.

➔ 2 online platforms/resource centres were created and launched to serve as tools for knowledge exchange, sharing best practices and learning opportunities and collect pedagogical tools: the On-line Resource Centre for Africa-Europe Youth Co-operation (AYECO) and the Global Education Resource Centre.

➔ From 2013-2015 the Global Education Week reached out to approx. 3900 schools and youth organisations, 18000 teachers/youth trainers, 750 000 pupils/youth
