Council of Europe: the 2nd report on the evaluation of European judicial systems is made public

Strasbourg, 08.10.2008 – The Council of Europe's Commission for the Efficiency of Justice (CEPEJ) has just brought out the 2nd report on the evaluation of European judicial systems during a press conference in Paris.

The report, comprising data for 45 European states (*), provides the Council of Europe with a real snapshot of justice in Europe. The CEPEJ has tried to identify some main European trends and conclusions concerning the application of fundamental principles and European standards in the field of justice.

The report provides comparative tables and analysis of key indicators including : public spending on the judicial system, the legal aid system, the organisation of jurisdictions, judicial personnel, length of proceedings, lawyers and notaries.
