Foreword

Intended as a free working tool to also accompany the reading of the IRIS Special on “Public service activities online: remit and financing” (http://www.obs.coe.int/en/shop/irisspecial/-/asset\_publisher/A0cy/content/iris-special-online-activities-of-public-service-media-remit-and-financing), this IRIS Bonus developed into something more comprehensive thanks to an idea of the European Broadcasting Union (there is therefore more to come...) and to the strong commitment of Marie Anne-Carole Josephine during her stay at the European Audiovisual Observatory in summer 2015.

The following tables provide an overview of the definition of the public service remit in the 40 countries that are members to the Observatory, and indicate:

- the adopting bodies,
- the concerned broadcasters,
- the legal sources defining the remit, with mention of the specific articles,
- the links to the texts in their original language and in English translation where available.

For practical reasons the countries are listed in two groups, members of the European Union and non EU members, and follow the alphabetical order of the ISO country codes.

As public service remit is an evolving concept, the tables also provide an indication of the date of adoption and expiry of the respective national sources. We would be grateful to our readers if they could flag up eventual changes in their national frameworks, so as to allow us keep the tables up-to-date.

A special mention goes to Sophie Valais for her thorough guidance and supervision of Marie Anne-Carole Josephine’s work during the drafting process.

The Hungarian Media Act has been amended numerous times since its introduction, the latest of which announces the unification of the three broadcasters (Hungarian Television, Hungarian Radio, Duna Television) in a new company named Duna Médiaszolgáltató Zrt. The amendment also announces the Hungarian PSM's obligation to prepare a strategic plan every year. The changes went into effect on 1 July, 2015. It was also established that the Code of Public Service Media, the main document that provides a detailed description of the Hungarian PSM remit, will be reviewed by the end of September 2015, in terms of the adopted changes to the law.
