

Copy

DECISION

on the declaration of the state of emergency

In accordance with art. 66 sub-para, m) of the Constitution of the Republic of Moldova and art. 12 of Law no. 212/2004 on the regime of the state of emergency, siege and war, taking into account the proposal of the Government of the Republic of Moldova, based on the Report of the Commission for Exceptional Situations of the Republic of Moldova on the necessity to declare the state of emergency, considering as well, the situation related to the regional security and the menace to the national security,

The Parliament adopts this decision.

Art. 1 - The state of emergency shall be declared throughout the territory of the Republic of Moldova for a period of 60 days.

Art. 2 - During the period of the state of emergency, the Commission for Exceptional Situations of the Republic of Moldova shall issue provisions with a view to implementing the following measures:

- 1) establishing a special regime for entry in and exit out of the country;
- 2) establishing a special regime for the use of the airspace;
- 3) establishing a special regime of movement on the territory of the country, including of the movement and control of merchandise;
- 4) expelling from the territory of the country people whose presence may affect the ensuring of the public order and security;
- 5) temporary evacuation of the citizens from the areas that pose menace to life and the obligatory provision of permanent or provisional accommodation for them;
- 6) allocating financial means for the enforcement of the directives of the Commission for Exceptional Situations of the Republic of Moldova, if it is necessary;
- 7) establishing a special working regime for the economic agents and public institutions, solving other issues related to their activities, necessary for carrying out rescue and extrication operations and other urgent operations;
- 8) prohibition on holding rallies, public demonstrations and other mass actions;
- 9) prohibition on the creation and activity of paramilitary formations of persons on the territory of the state;
- 10) ordering, as needed, the rationalisation of the consumption of food and other products of strict necessity;
- 11) ordering, as needed, the temporary disruption of gas, energy and drinking water supply;
- 12) adoption of the necessary decisions to undertake swift actions to supply natural gas, electricity and other energy sources, including by derogation from the normative provisions;
- 13) coordination of the activity of mass media regarding:
 - a) informing the population about the causes and the scale of the exceptional situation, the measures undertaken to prevent the danger, the liquidation of the consequences of this situation and the protection of the population;
 - b) informing the population about the rules of conduct during the exceptional situation;
 - c) introduction of special rules for the use of telecommunications, the fight against misinformation, fake news and hate speech;
- 14) prohibition of the dismissal of employees, except for the cases provided by the normative acts, for this period;
- 15) modification of the procedure for the appointment and dismissal of the heads of economic agents and public institutions;
- 16) involvement of citizens in the provision of services in the public interest in accordance with the law;
- 17) carrying out, in the manner provided by law, the requisition of goods in order to prevent and liquidate the consequences of the situations that imposed the declaration of the state of emergency;

- 18) carrying out necessary actions to protect the critical infrastructure, as well as to ensure cyber security;
- 19) carrying out other necessary actions in order to prevent, mitigate and liquidate the consequences of the situations that imposed the declaration of the state of emergency;
- 20) taking the necessary measures for the management of the migration flows;
- 21) accessing and managing the international assistance for the duration of the state of emergency.

Art. 3. - The directives of the Commission for Exceptional Situations of the Republic of Moldova are mandatory and enforceable for the managers of the Central and Local Public Administration Authorities, of economic operators, of public institutions, as well as for citizens and other persons within the territory of the Republic of Moldova.

Art. 4. - The directives of the Commission for Exceptional Situations of the Republic of Moldova enter into force upon issue.

Art. 5. - The Parliament of the Republic of Moldova shall inform, within three days, the UN Secretary General and the Secretary General of the Council of Europe about this decision and the reasons for its adoption.

Art. 6. - The Parliament Decision No. 1/2022 on the declaration of the state of emergency is abrogated, with effect for the future.

Art. 7. - This decision shall enter into force on the date of its adoption, shall be immediately brought to the attention of the population through mass-media and published in the Official Journal of the Republic of Moldova.

PRESIDENT OF THE PARLIAMENT

IGOR GROSU

Chişinău, 24 February 2022.
No. 41.