Relevant qualifications summary ¹
Dr. Sergey Ghazinyan is a human rights lawyer, researcher and international expert specialising in action against trafficking in human beings, with more than ten years of professional experience in human rights, criminal justice and victim protection. He holds a PhD in Law, with a dissertation examining the protection of the rights of victims of trafficking in human beings. Dr. Ghazinyan has authored numerous academic publications and legal studies on trafficking, migration and human rights, and has led legislative, policy and comparative legal analyses for national authorities and international organisations, including the Council of Europe. From 2021 to 2024, Dr. Ghazinyan served as an elected member of the Council of Europe Group of Experts on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings (GRETA), including as Second Vice-President from 2023 to 2024. During his mandate, he acted as rapporteur for eight country evaluations, participated in country visits and the preparation of evaluation reports, contributed to GRETA's thematic work and guidance documents, and supported the monitoring and effective implementation of the Council of Europe Convention on Action against Trafficking in Human Beings. Dr. Ghazinyan is a Professor of International Human Rights Law at Yerevan State University and the American University of Armenia. He has authored numerous academic publications and legal studies on trafficking, migration and human rights, and has led comparative legal analyses, legislative reviews and policy development processes for national authorities and international organisations, including the Council of Europe. He regularly designs and delivers specialised training programmes for judges, prosecutors, law enforcement officials, labour inspectors, migration authorities, social workers and civil society organisations. Note: Sergey Ghazinyan does not hold any decision-making position as regards defining and/or implementing policies in the field of action against trafficking in human beings in government or in any other organisation or entity which may give rise to a conflict of interest with the responsibilities inherent to membership of GRETA.
