BACKGROUND AND JUSTIFICATION

Cybercrime and other cyber-enabled offences involving electronic evidence remain major challenges for societies of the EaP region. Likewise, attacks against and by means of computers emanating from those countries are of concern to other geographical areas including the EU Member States.

These crimes consist, inter alia, of the theft of personal data, fraud and other types of financial crime, distributed denial of service attacks or website defacements against media, civil society, individuals or public institutions, as well as attacks against critical infrastructure and others. In this regard, cooperation at all levels is essential.

Countries of the EaP have committed to implement the Budapest Convention on Cybercrime as a framework for domestic measures and for international cooperation on cybercrime and access to electronic evidence. All countries – with the exception of Belarus – are Parties to the Budapest Convention on Cybercrime and are thus members of the Cybercrime Convention Committee (T-CY).<sup>1</sup> It is therefore an international obligation for them to implement and comply with it.

Furthermore, the EaP countries adopted in October 2013 (Kyiv, Ukraine) a Declaration on Strategic Priorities for the Cooperation against Cybercrime in the EaP Region. They committed to pursue the necessary actions in key areas, such as procedural law, safeguards and guarantees, data protection and protection of children against online sexual abuse and exploitation with the objective of adopting an overarching effective framework to combat cybercrime on the basis of the Budapest Convention.

The European Union and the Council of Europe supported Eastern Partnership countries between 2011 and 2014 through the CyberCrime@EaP I project. Two follow up projects, CyberCrime@EaP II and CyberCrime@EaP III, were launched in May and December 2015, with focus respectively on international cooperation and public-private partnerships on cybercrime and electronic evidence. CyberCrime@EaP 2018 project, launched in January 2018 as one-year extension Cybercrime@EaP II and III projects, focused on the same subjects of international and public-private cooperation on cybercrime and electronic evidence.

<sup>1</sup> Belarus participates in the T-CY as ad-hoc observer and has expressed its commitment to implement this treaty.

The projects implemented helped the EaP countries mutual legal assistance and police cooperation authorities to significantly increase their capabilities to deal with the cybercrime and electronic evidence-related requests for cooperation; all cooperation authorities received international cooperation training tailored directly to their needs to increase and make uniform relevant skills and knowledge across the region; they are now able to utilize the tools developed with their own input during the project, such as the International Cooperation advanced information sections under the Octopus Cybercrime Community, international cooperation training materials developed under the project, and standard templates for Article 29-30 (data preservation) and Article 31 (MLA requests for subscriber information) requests under the Budapest Convention.

In order to enhance public-private cooperation between the law enforcement and Internet service providers for efficient access to data, capacity building efforts focused on four necessary elements of public-private cooperation: clear regulatory framework; identified and engaged counterparts; voluntary compliance mechanisms; and efficient access to data beyond national jurisdictions. The project pursued strong focus on legislation, with five out of six EAP states engaged in review of their procedural and related legislation - namely, introduction of less intrusive procedural powers required by the Budapest Convention on Cybercrime whilst ensuring compliance with safeguards and guarantees requirements under Article 15 of the treaty. To strengthen trust and engage partners, technical cybercrime exercises, contribution to industry-driven international forums of discussion and bringing country teams into direct contact with multinational service providers was practiced. A number of regional studies on various aspects of cooperation supported EaP countries in improving the public-private cooperation frameworks.

However, despite progress made, the following concerns and challenges have been identified:

- Criminal procedural law powers to secure electronic evidence and obtain data from private sector service providers. Specific provisions in criminal procedural law enabling the powers for criminal law enforcement and judicial authorities to secure electronic evidence in accordance with rule of law and fundamental rights conditions and safeguards will enhance trust and will contribute to improve public/private and international cooperation.
- Build confidence and trust to allow for and enable cooperation between criminal justice authorities and the private sector, as well as between public institutions and between countries. Improving trust is an overriding theme for the project.
- Need to improve the operational capacities of specialised cybercrime units.
- Addressing and reducing conflicts of competence; and strengthening interagency, international and public/partnership cooperation.
- Sharing of relevant data held by Computer Security Incident Response Teams (CSIRTs) on incidents and attacks with all concerned authorities. This information sharing may be most valuable to law enforcement and judicial authorities for follow-up investigation and prosecution purposes. Without this cooperation, it is difficult to determine the scale and trends of cybercrime and threats to cybersecurity and thus to inform cybercrime and cybersecurity strategies in this region.

Thus, further capacity building efforts are necessary to remedy these problems in the region.

APPROACH

CyberEast project is a direct follow-up to previous capacity building efforts in the Eastern Partnership and continues to build upon similar themes – strong legislative framework implementing the Budapest Convention on Cybercrime, enabling efficient regional and international cooperation, and improving public/private cooperation regarding cybercrime and electronic evidence in the Eastern Partnership region. However, the project also features new and strong focus on enhancing the operational capacities of cybercrime units, increasing accountability, oversight and public visibility of action on cybercrime, as well as strengthening interagency cooperation on cybercrime and electronic evidence, in particular by improving information sharing between Computer Security Incident Response Teams (CSIRTs) on incidents and attacks with all concerned authorities.

Immediate Outcome 1 of the project aims at adoption and further improvement of legislative and policy frameworks compliant to the Budapest Convention as well as related standards, such as Istanbul and Lanzarote Conventions. The Outputs under this Outcome focus on the development of national action plans or similar strategic documents regarding the criminal justice response to cybercrime and electronic evidence; revision and improvement of substantive criminal law (where necessary) in line with Articles 2 to 12 of the Budapest Convention with additional focus on Istanbul and Lanzarote Conventions; and improvement of procedural law for the purposes of domestic investigations in line with Articles 16 to 21 of the Budapest Convention. Human rights and rule of law approach is ensured, primarily but not exclusively, by supporting reform of regulatory framework on the basis of updated Study on Article 15 Safeguards in the Eastern Partnership region.

Immediate Outcome 2 of the project seeks to reinforce the capacities of judicial and law enforcement authorities and interagency cooperation, seeking to encompass all criminal justice stakeholders in the EaP countries into coherent, sustainable and skills-oriented experience sharing and training framework. To achieve this, the Outputs under this Outcome aim at strengthening skills and institutional setup of operational cybercrime units in law enforcement authorities, as well as improving interagency cooperation of relevant law enforcement and criminal justice authorities, agencies and bodies including through improved data sharing. Being a new and administratively complex element of the project different from previous activities in scope and reach, an inception period will be allocated at the beginning of the project to assess and plan action under this Outcome accordingly.

Immediate Outcome 3 of the Project pursues the increase of efficient international cooperation and trust on criminal justice, cybercrime and electronic evidence, as well as trust between criminal justice and private entities. As a continuation of the previous capacity building efforts in the EaP on international and public/private cooperation, the Outputs under this outcome strive to further strengthen skills, set up and competencies of the 24/7 points of contact, putting in place guidelines and procedures for mutual legal assistance and data requests, strengthening operational skills for international judicial and police authorities cooperation on cybercrime, and implementing existing agreements on public/private cooperation while concluding such agreements in the remaining countries. This Outcome overall seeks to increase the capacity of state authorities, tasked with cooperation in criminal cases, to effectively handle increased workload and complexity of cases related to cybercrime and electronic evidence. Human rights and rule of law component is addressed through continued public-private dialogue, work with ISP regulators and data protection authorities, and review of cybercrime reporting systems in terms of their focus on citizens' security.

The project will be managed by the Cybercrime Programme Office of the Council of Europe (C-PROC) in Romania by the project team involving a core group of project staff from previous Cybercrime@EaP projects, aided by two new staff members (second Senior Project Officer and a Communications Officer) responding to increased scope and volume of the project.
