

Biographies

Jenneke Lokhoff is senior policy officer at Nuffic responsible for international projects to support fair recognition, and President elect of the ENIC Network.

Luca Lantero is the Director General of CIMEA, the Italian Information Center on Academic Mobility and Equivalence. He is one of the leading experts at the Italian and international levels on higher education, bogus diplomas, and accreditation mills, foreign higher education systems degrees, TNE institutions and accreditation, digitalization of processes and blockchain technology applied to recognition. From 2018 and 2020 he was the Head of the Bologna Follow-Up Group (BFUG) Secretariat of the European Higher Education Area (EHEA). Since 2019 he has been the President of the Lisbon Recognition Convention Committee and the current Head of the ASEM Education Secretariat. In 2022 he was elected member of the Bureau of the Ethics, Transparency, and Integrity (ETINED) platform of the Council of Europe.

Baiba Ramiņa is director of Academic Information Centre of Latvia already for 22 years and has more than 30 years professional experience in education system. Baiba Ramiņa is responsible for the management of activities in the field of recognition of qualifications for academic and professional purposes, European and national qualification framework and Europass activities in Latvia. From 2015 Baiba Ramiņa is responsible for the management of Latvian Quality Assurance Agency activities as well. She is a member of the Lisbon Recognition Convention (LRC) Committee Bureau since 2013.

Allan Bruun Pedersen is a Senior Adviser at the Danish Ministry of Higher Education and Science. Former Vice-president and President of the ENIC-Network. Expert missions on recognition to Germany, Georgia, the Western Balkans and USA. Responsible for the Danish Contact Point for the EQF and national Correspondent of the EHEA-framework. He is also First Vice-President at Lisbon Recognition Convention Committee Bureau