AGENDA

Thursday, 3 November 2022
9h00	Opening session • Margarita Šniutytė-Daugėlienė, Vice President, EUROJUST • Edvardas Sileris, Head of Department, European Cybercrime Centre, EUROPOL • Alexander Seger, Head of Cybercrime Programme Office (C-PROC), Council of Europe
9h30	Session I - Threats, trends and impact of ransomware attacks • Edvardas Sileris, Head of Department, European Cybercrime Centre, EUROPOL • Carlos Castro Sojo, Prosecutor, Public Ministry of Costa Rica • Edmond Koloshi, Prosecutor, General Prosecutor's Office, Albania • Miroslav Turkovic, Special Prosecutor's Office, Montenegro • Discussion
11h00	Coffee break
11h30	Session II - Criminal justice response: criminalisation, procedural powers, investigative tools and instruments and initiatives for cross-border cooperation • Marian Behn, Police Dusseldorf, Germany • Alexander Seger, Head of Cybercrime Programme Office, (C-PROC), Council of Europe • Timothy C. Rank, US Department of Justice - ICHIP • Edvardas Sileris, Head of Department, European Cybercrime Centre, EUROPOL • Discussion: Experience of countries participating in the workshop
13h00	Lunch break
14h30	Session III - Conducting criminal investigations of ransomware attacks: lessons learned and best practices Case studies: • Paul Johnstone, European Judicial Cybercrime Network's (EJCN) member, Ireland • Knut Jostein Sætnan, Police prosecutor and EJCN member, Norway • Dr Albert Antwi-Boasiako, Acting Director-General of the Cyber Security Authority, Ghana • Discussion: Experience of countries participating in the workshop • Presentation of the "Guide for conducting criminal investigations in ransomware", prepared by the Cybercrime Programme Office of the Council of Europe (C-PROC)
16h30	End of Day 1

Friday, 4 November 2022
9h30	Session IV - Public-private partnership against ransomware attacks Sharing of knowledge and intelligence, reporting challenges, security measures and preventive campaigns - Catalin Cosoi, Council of Europe expert - Edvardas Sileris, Head of Department, European Cybercrime Centre, EUROPOL - Experience of countries participating in the workshop
10h30	Coffee break
11h00	Session V - Capacity building support to counter ransomware attacks Needs assessment, actors involved, training activities, guides and tools - Cybercrime Programme Office (C-PROC), Council of Europe - Ionut Stoica, Head of Cybercrime Academy, CEPOL - Alexandre Oliveira, Judge, European Judicial Training Network - Discussion: needs of countries participating in the workshop
12h30	Closing remarks - EUROJUST - Dan Rotenberg, Deputy Head of Unit – Security in the Digital Age, European Commission - Denise Mazzolani, Programme Manager, Cybercrime Programme Office, Council of Europe
13h00	Lunch – End of Day 2