FIRST NEGOTIATION MEETING BETWEEN THE CDDH AND
THE EUROPEAN COMMISSION ON THE ACCESSION OF THE EUROPEAN UNION TO THE EUROPEAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS

Meeting report

Strasbourg, Thursday 21 June 2012

Agora, Room G03
Council of Europe

1. The first negotiation meeting between the CDDH and the European Commission on the accession of the European Union to the European Convention on Human Rights was held on 21 June 2012, in Strasbourg, under the chairmanship of Ms Tonje Meinich (Norway). The list of participants appears in Appendix.
2. The representative of the European Commission made a statement recalling the importance of a swift accession of the European Union to the Convention, and presented a number of amendments that the European Union proposes to the draft accession instruments transmitted by the CDDH to the Committee of Ministers after their extraordinary meeting of 12-14 October 2011. The representative of the European Commission explained that the proposed amendments aim at better reflecting the specific legal nature of the European Union, at clarifying certain aspects of the co-respondent mechanism, and also touch upon the participation of the European Union in the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe, notably in particular cases. The statement of the representative of the European Commission shall be distributed to the members of the negotiation group. The representative of the European Union also expressed his availability to provide further clarification and examples in order to better understand some of the amendments proposed.
3. During a first exchange of views, a number of delegations reiterated that the negotiation shall not be limited to the amendment proposals put forward by the European Union, and indicated that they would submit their own proposals. Several delegations expressed the wish that the representatives of all 47 member States in the negotiation group would actively contribute to future discussions.
4. As regards the working methods of the negotiation group, the delegations agreed to use as a basis for future discussion the draft instruments appended to the CDDH report to the Committee of Ministers (document CDDH(2011)009). Delegations wishing to present other proposals for amendment or comments on the European Union proposals are invited to submit them in writing by 1 September 2012 at the latest.
5. Concerning publicity of documents, the delegations agreed that the meeting reports and their annexes should be publicly available and published on the Council of Europe website. As regards working document submitted by delegations, no decision was taken for the time being, it being understood that any delegation could indicate whether it wishes to make public the documents presented. With respect to the presence of civil society at the negotiation meetings, it was agreed that at its second meeting the negotiation group will discuss the invitation of representatives of the civil society to the third meeting for a hearing.
6. As regards the order of discussion of the various issues in the next meetings, delegations agreed that discussion should focus first on questions related to the scope of the accession and on other general issues (Articles 1, 2, 4, 5, 9-13 of the draft Accession Agreement), then on the co-respondent mechanism (Article 3) and, finally, on institutional questions (Articles 6, 7 and 8).
7. The Chair recalled that the second negotiation meeting will be held in Strasbourg from 17 to 19 September 2012, and that the third meeting will be held in Strasbourg from 7 to 9 November 2012.
