Agenda item 1. Opening of the meeting and adoption of the agenda

1. The Committee of the Parties to the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence (hereinafter referred to respectively as “the Committee” and “the Convention”) held its 6th meeting in Strasbourg on 25 January 2019.
2. The meeting was opened by the Chair of the Committee Ambassador Elisabeth Walaas.
3. The members of the Committee were invited to adopt the draft agenda of the meeting. The Committee adopted the draft agenda as it appears in document IC-CP(2019)OJ6prov. The agenda, as adopted by the Committee, is set out in Appendix I. The list of attendees is set out in Appendix II.

Agenda item 2. Administrative and Budgetary Information

4. The Chair introduced the new Executive Secretary of the monitoring mechanisms of the Convention Ms Liri Kopaçi-Di Michele and invited her to provide information regarding the administrative and budgetary situation. The Executive Secretary informed the Committee that all activities are taking place as foreseen under the biannual programme and budget (2018-2019). Preparations for the new biannual programme and budget (2020-2021) are underway. Proposals will take into account the developments with regard to ratifications of the Istanbul Convention and the need to ensure the effective functioning of the monitoring processes, monitoring bodies and other relevant activities.
5. The delegation of Belgium informed the Committee that the government has earmarked 23.000€ to support the activities of GREVIO. The Chair thanked the Belgian authorities and encouraged parties to consider making voluntary contributions to the Council of Europe and particularly to the cause of the Istanbul Convention with a view to ensuring the effective functioning of GREVIO.

Agenda item 3. State of signatures and ratifications of the Istanbul Convention

6. The Chair gave the floor to the Executive Secretary to provide information on the state of signatures and ratifications. The Executive Secretary drew attention to the state of signatures and ratifications of the Convention as it appears in the website of the Treaty Office: <https://www.coe.int/en/web/conventions/full-list/-/conventions/treaty/210/signatures>. Five state parties ratified the Convention in 2018: Croatia, Greece, Iceland, Luxembourg and the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia.

- a. Action taken by member States of the Council of Europe towards ratification of the Istanbul Convention

7. Representatives of member states reported on the latest developments regarding promotion, ratification and implementation of the Convention. A parliamentary debate on the ratification of the Convention by Lithuania is hoped to take place in June 2019. France informed the committee that promotion of gender equality and ending violence against women, including the launch of a campaign aimed at securing the universal adoption of the Council of Europe Istanbul Convention, will be among the priorities of the French Presidency of the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe and the G7. In view of GREVIO's evaluation visit, Belgium is preparing the state report on the implementation of the Convention. Albania highlighted the importance of regional gatherings such as the “Regional forum taking stock of the implementation of the Istanbul Convention in the Western Balkans and Turkey” (Skopje, 27 and 28 November 2018). They provide working and networking opportunities to exchange on progress and challenges with the implementation of the Convention. In preparation for the GREVIO evaluation visit, Spain is working on the finalisation of the state report. The Spanish delegate pointed out that the preparation of the state report is both an ambitious but also an interesting learning process as it enables a detailed analysis of the situation, progress made and what remains to be done. Serbia will receive GREVIO in March 2019. The process leading to the preparation of the state report involved several meetings with all relevant stakeholders: state authorities, parliamentarians, academia and NGOs. Italy will receive GREVIO in March 2019. The Italian delegate informed the Committee about action taken by the Italian authorities with regard to the implementation of the Convention.

- b. Action taken by the European Union towards signature and ratification of the Istanbul Convention

8. The representative from Austria informed the Committee that promotion of the Istanbul Convention had been among the priorities of the Austrian Presidency of the European Union but despite efforts and progress, there was no decision with regard to the ratification of the Convention by the EU. The representative from Romania informed the Committee that the Romanian Presidency will support the promotion of the Convention at EU level including during numerous events on gender equality and women's rights promoted by the Presidency.

- c. Declarations and reservations

9. The Chair recalled that the Treaty Office has issued letters asking those member states that ratified the Convention in 2014 and made a reservation at that time, whether they want to renew them. The Chair encouraged state parties' representatives that have made declarations or reservations at the moment of ratifying the Convention to lift them and apply the Convention in full.

Agenda item 4. Recommendations on the implementation of the Istanbul Convention by:

- Montenegro [IC-CP(2019)1 prov]
- Portugal [IC-CP(2019)3 prov]
- Sweden [IC-CP(2019)4 prov]
- Turkey [IC-CP(2019)2 prov]

10. The Chair recalled the discussions held during the 4th meeting of the Committee of the Parties which took place in Strasbourg on 30 January 2018 on the adoption of Recommendations by the Committee of the Parties in light of GREVIO's reports and proposals/suggestions (IC-CP(2018)6). During that meeting, the Committee agreed to adopt a standard approach to recommendations in light of GREVIO's reports and proposals/suggestions, namely:

- a) to endorse GREVIO's report in its entirety and,
- b) to issue recommendations combined with a request to the state party concerned to report back after a period of three years with respect to those proposals/suggestions in the report which are either qualified by an "urge" or, as regards Chapters I and II, by a "strongly encourage".

11. In the exchange that ensued, the delegate from Montenegro welcomed the publication of the GREVIO report and informed the Committee that ratification of the Convention has resulted in the adoption of numerous laws and regulations to ensure compliance with the Convention. Further progress and changes are expected as a result of the implementation of the Committee's recommendations. The delegate from Portugal highlighted the importance of the process leading up to the preparation of the state report in regard of the evaluation of the implementation of the Istanbul Convention. The process included several government structures and ministries, representatives of NGOs and other civil society representatives, media (including social media debates) etc. Portugal welcomed the Committee's recommendations on the implementation of the Istanbul Convention and will ensure periodical evaluation of progress with their implementation. The Portuguese delegate pointed out excellent coverage of the GREVIO evaluation report by national media, including mainstream media. The delegate from Sweden welcomed the publication of the GREVIO report and drew attention to the positive impact of the state report with regard to co-operation and co-ordination among the state authorities, civil society representatives and other relevant institutions. The Committee recommendations on the implementation of the Istanbul Convention in regard of Sweden will be translated and widely disseminated among all relevant stakeholders. Sweden looks forward to cooperation with the Council of Europe to ensure their full implementation. The delegate from Turkey welcomed co-operation with GREVIO, the country rapporteurs and the Secretariat in the process of preparing and implementing the evaluation visit and all the way to the finalisation of the evaluation report on the implementation of the Istanbul Convention by Turkey. Authorities have identified five priority areas for action: legislation, awareness raising and changing mentalities, prevention, measures in the area of health and co-ordination. These priority areas of action are framed in the Gender Equality Women's Empowerment Strategy (2018-2023). The authorities look forward to close co-operation with the Committee of the Parties and GREVIO to ensure full implementation of the Convention.

12. The Committee adopted the draft recommendations for Montenegro, Portugal, Sweden and Turkey, based on the standard approach agreed during the 4th meeting of the Committee of the Parties which took place in Strasbourg on 30 January 2018 on the adoption of Recommendations by the Committee of the Parties in light of GREVIO's reports and proposals/suggestions (IC-CP(2018)6).

Agenda item 5. Exchange of views with the President of the Group of Experts on Action against Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (GREVIO)

13. The Chair recalled that based on the rules of procedure, the Committee regularly meets with the President of GREVIO to hear about the state of the work of GREVIO and progress in preparing its reports and conclusions concerning the measures taken by the Parties to implement the provisions of the Convention, as well as any other issue relating to the functioning of the monitoring mechanism of the Convention. In this context, she welcomed the President of GREVIO Professor Feride Acar on behalf of the Committee.

14. In her intervention, the President of GREVIO focused on progress with the signature, ratification and implementation of the Convention; the work of GREVIO including the preparation and publication of evaluation reports; drew attention to the backlash against women's rights and the Convention; reported on co-operation and synergies with other regional and international mechanisms and concluded with the importance of the election of the 10 new members of the GREVIO by the Committee. In regard to the latter, she drew attention to the importance of ensuring continuity in the work and functioning of GREVIO.

15. In the exchange that ensued, several representatives (Albania, Belgium, France, Finland, Malta, Montenegro, Portugal, Romania, Serbia, Slovenia, Sweden and Turkey) took the floor to thank GREVIO and the President for the excellent work. They highlighted in particular the preparation of the evaluation visits and the baseline evaluation reports which are done through a "transparent, co-operative and constructive dialogue between GREVIO and the Parties to the Convention". GREVIO's approach to the evaluation process was described as "aiming to deliver knowledge and expertise, based on mutual goodwill and the wish to see countries progress in their efforts to eradicate gender based violence". Parties do not see GREVIO baseline evaluation reports as sanctions but rather as constructive and useful feedback to address gaps in legislation and policies and ensure implementation of the Convention including through co-operation and exchange of experience among the Parties. Speakers stressed the importance of providing GREVIO with the necessary budgetary and staff resources to ensure it continues to carry out its work and activities effectively. Speakers also drew attention to the "monitoring fatigue" and the importance of co-ordination with other regional and international mechanisms to avoid they undergo monitoring or evaluation at the same time. This is in particular important as regards monitoring under UN CEDAW and reporting on Beijing +25.

Agenda item 6. Information on the procedure for the election of five new GREVIO members

16. The Chair informed the Committee that, in accordance with Rule 9 of the Committee of Ministers Resolution [Res(2014)43 on rules on the election procedure of the members of the Group of Experts on Action against Violence against Women and Domestic Violence (GREVIO)], a letter requesting nominations for GREVIO candidatures had been sent to those state parties which do not yet have a national serving as an independent expert in GREVIO and to those ten state parties who have a national serving expert whose mandate is about to expire¹ on 31 May 2019. A total of 28 state Parties were thus eligible to nominate candidates. The deadline for the submission of candidates is 1 February 2019.

17. The Chair drew attention to the importance of ensuring a balanced representation in terms of gender, geography and professional expertise.

18. Lastly, she informed the Committee that the elections to fill the ten seats on GREVIO will take place at the 7th meeting of the Committee of the Parties, scheduled to take place in April 2019 with a view to the newly elected GREVIO members taking up office as of 1 June 2019.

Agenda item 7. Opinion on the draft resolution on the financial modalities concerning the participation of non-state parties to the Council of Europe Convention on preventing and combating violence against women and domestic violence [IC-CP(2019)5].

19. The Chair recalled that the Istanbul Convention is open to the signature and ratification by Canada, the Holy See, Japan, Mexico, the United States of America, as well as the EU, while it is open to accession to any other non-member state based on an invitation from the Committee of Ministers. She further recalled that the participation of a non-member State or of the European Union to the Convention would entail costs for the Organisation, in particular in relation to the follow-up mechanism of the Convention which is covered by the Organisation's budget. In view of the need to introduce a mechanism for covering such costs, the Organisation's relevant services had prepared a draft resolution concerning financial arrangements for participation of non-member States in the Council of Europe Istanbul Convention for adoption by the Committee of Ministers. The Committee took note of the draft resolution as presented by the Secretariat and expressed its favourable opinion in this regard.

Agenda item 8. Informal discussion on trends challenges and good practice at the level of States Parties [IC-CP(2019)6].

20. Following informal discussions on this item, the Committee agreed on two thematic areas for discussion at its next meeting: 1) Custody and Divorce (presentation by Belgium) and 2) Comprehensive and Co-ordinated policies (presentation by Netherlands, Norway, Portugal and Spain).

Agenda item 9. Information on co-operation activities of the Council of Europe of interest to the Committee of the Parties

21. The Committee took note of the information provided by the Secretariat on the recently launched project in the Russian Federation "Co-operation on the implementation of the Russian Federation National Action Strategy for Women (2017–2022)". The project focuses on developing knowledge and skills in two areas of the Russian National Action Strategy (NASW): 1) prevention of social disadvantage of women and violence against women and 2) women participation in public and political life.

¹ The current 10 members whose mandate expires on 31 May 2019 are eligible for re-election for another mandate.

Agenda item 10. Election of Bureau members
