I. INTRODUCTION

This call for proposals is launched in the framework of the Council of Europe Project “Youth for Democracy in Ukraine: Phase IV”. It aims to co-fund national and local projects aimed to support actions of civil society organisations in Ukraine at ensuring access of young people to youth work activities.

Project proposals shall aim to produce an added value to the Council of Europe efforts in this domain.

II. BACKGROUND INFORMATION ON THE COUNCIL OF EUROPE PROJECT

The project “Youth for Democracy in Ukraine: Phase IV” was launched within the framework of the Council of Europe Action Plan for Ukraine for 2023-2026. The project is built on the results and experience of the Council of Europe project “Youth for Democracy in Ukraine” in 2020-2024. The project “Youth for Democracy in Ukraine: Phase IV” aims to ensure that young people in Ukraine benefit from participatory youth policies and quality youth work to strengthen their own resilience and well-being in order to realise their human rights in wartime and post-war times and play an important role in Ukraine’s reconstruction efforts.

Central to the project are support measures and capacity-building activities in the fields of youth policy, youth work, and democratic participation in Ukraine. These efforts are based on Council of Europe youth sector standards and tools and take into account the specific needs of young people in war and post-war context.

The project directly responds to the priorities set by the Reykjavik Summit, in particular the Reykjavik Principles for Democracy, which emphasises that ensuring a democratic future for all in Europe requires investment in the participation of young people in democratic life and decision-making processes, including through education about human rights and core democratic values such as pluralism, inclusion, non-discrimination, transparency, and accountability.

The project remains rooted in the Council of Europe Youth Strategy 2030, which places a specific emphasis on: increasing the capacity of youth civil society to advance participatory democracy and democratic citizenship within and beyond their memberships; conducting more policies and governance processes in a meaningful, participatory manner, involving diverse groups of young people and their representatives/organisations; and strengthening youth policy and youth work in removing barriers to youth participation. Furthermore, the strategy also sets out youth work as one of its priorities, with focus on: strengthening, recognising and advancing youth work policies and practices by embedding youth work within youth policy frameworks, improving the quality of youth work delivered by both volunteer and paid youth workers, and extending the access and attractiveness of youth work and non-formal education/learning for the benefit of wider populations of young people.

The project reflects the youth policy reforms in Ukraine, notably the National strategy of the State Youth Policy 2030, the State Target Social Programme “Youth of Ukraine” 2021-2025, and the State Target Social Programme 2026-2030. The project engages youth policy stakeholders and youth work providers in Ukraine in the dissemination and implementation of the Committee of Ministers recommendations on access to rights for young people (CM(2016)7), youth work (CM(2017)4), access of young people from disadvantaged neighbourhoods to social rights (CM (2015)3), on protecting youth civil society and young people, and supporting their participation in democratic processes (CM/Rec(2022)6), on Roma youth participation (CM/Rec(2023)4) and on the social, economic and political participation of rural youth (CM/Rec (2025)3).

The Project is implemented within three main components that are implemented in parallel and have cross-cutting measures:

- participatory youth policy
- recognition of youth work in wartime;

- support for youth CSOs, youth councils, student self-government bodies, youth centres as platforms for civic engagement and democratic participation.

Project partners include the Ministry of Youth and Sports of Ukraine, the All-Ukrainian Youth Centre, the Ukrainian Youth Foundation.

The indicative available budget under this call for proposals is 18 000.00 EUR (eighteen thousand Euros). The Council of Europe intends to award 4 grants of a maximum amount of 4 500.00 EUR (four thousand five hundred euros) each.
