Draft Concept

Background

Serious human rights violations including corruption, human trafficking, racism and discrimination persist across Europe, according to a report published in May 2014 by Thorbjørn Jagland, Secretary General of the Council of Europe. Unemployment and poverty in many countries are nurturing extremism and conflicts. That report represents the first consolidated analysis of human rights, democracy and the rule of law in Europe, based on the findings of the Council of Europe's monitoring bodies.

The report points out in particular "The member States widely supported the Council of Europe Charter on Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education, adopted in 2010. However, two years after its adoption, one third of countries had not yet begun its implementation. In many cases, this results from a lack of financial support due to the economic crisis. However, we often see political prioritization on "education for employability". If this is not balanced with education on democratic citizenship, it can promote a concept of students as a labour force, rather than as active citizens".

The aim of the present meeting is to further explore the current challenges in the area of citizenship and human rights education, and in particular the role and contribution of local authorities. The participants will discuss possible avenues for future action and for strengthening cooperation and networking at different levels.

This meeting will also provide an opportunity to take stock of the preliminary results of the 2014 cycle of the EU/CoE Pilot Projects Scheme "Human Rights and Democracy in Action" and to identify priority areas for cooperation in 2015. This cooperation platform set up in May 2013 constitutes an innovative means for the implementation of the Charter on Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights Education in the participating countries. It also helps strengthen cooperation among and between the states party to the European Cultural Convention in the area of citizenship and human rights education.

Participants

This meeting will bring together the Council of Europe network of coordinators for citizenship and human rights education (officially nominated representatives of the States Party to the European Cultural Convention) and Heads of Education Departments of the European Capitals of the States Party to the European Cultural Convention.

This initiative is a follow-up to the meeting of the "Pedagogical Club of European Capitals", which was held in Kyiv in 2013. The Pedagogical Club was founded in 1999 to facilitate exchanges and cooperation among Heads of Education Departments of European capitals, "with a view to supporting development of and improving the quality of education in Europe" (Declaration of the Pedagogical Club of European Capitals, 1999). Since then, conferences of the Club were organised in 11 capitals, and representatives of 36 capitals took part in these events. Many prominent leaders and personalities attended the conferences, their proceedings contain valuable information about the latest trends, achievements and concerns in the participating countries, and numerous bilateral projects were initiated.

One of the recommendations of the meeting in Kyiv was to organise the next meeting of the network in cooperation with the Council of Europe in Strasbourg, to promote synergies and cooperation. This proposal was submitted to and agreed by the Bureau of the Steering Committee for Educational Policy and Practice (CDPPE) at their meeting in December 2013. Moreover, it was decided to organise this meeting in conjunction with the network of the EDC/HRE coordinators.

Aims and objectives

1. To share information on the latest developments in the States party to the European Cultural Convention, and in the Council of Europe in the field of Education for Democracy
2. To support the implementation of the Council of Europe Charter on Education for Democratic Citizenship and Human Rights
3. To discuss possible synergies and cooperation, in preparation of the Council of Europe programme of activities 2016-2017
4. To facilitate partnerships and networking among and within the States party to the European Cultural Convention
5. To provide a platform for discussion on the future of the Pedagogical Club of European Capitals
