

Linguistic integration of adult migrants

Policy and practice

Presentation of the draft report of the 3rd
Council of Europe Survey (part 1 – 4)
Reinhilde Pulinx (Ghent University)

2 June 2014

ORGANISATION OF THE 2013 SURVEY

1. Organisation of the 2013 survey

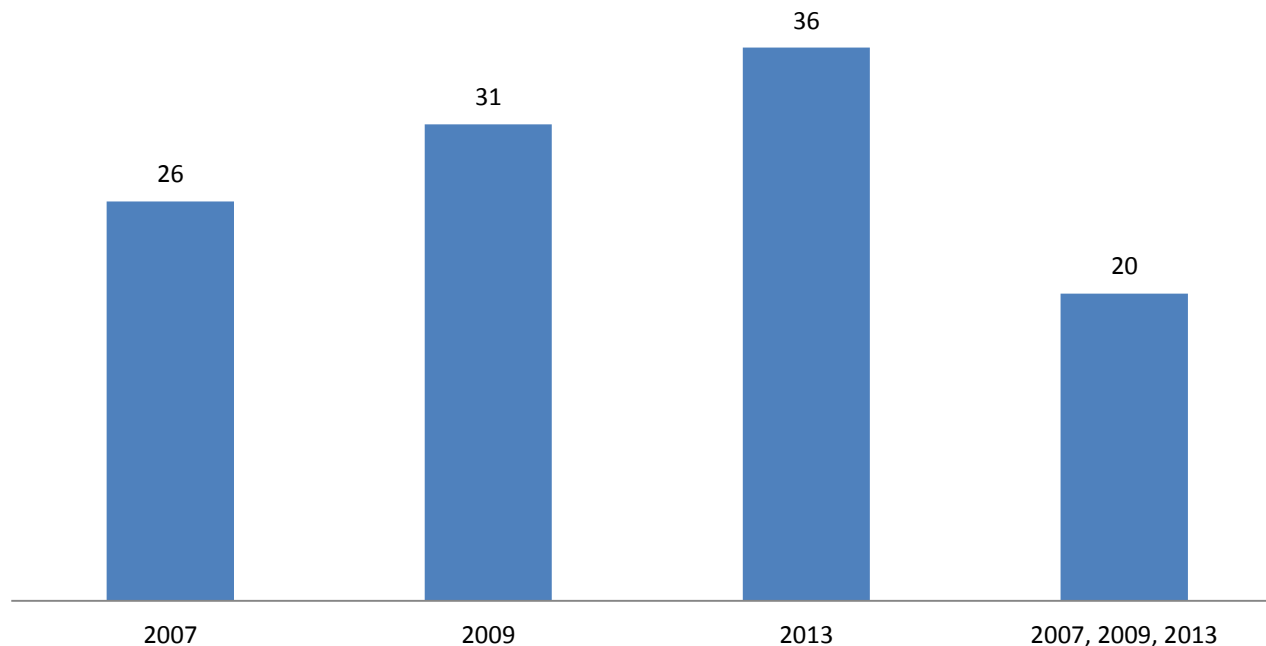

- 2007 – 2009 – 2013
- Online survey
- Four sections:
 - Legislation and its impact
 - Language requirements (courses and tests)
 - Before entering the host country (A)
 - For residence (B)
 - For citizenship (C)

1. Organisation of the 2013 survey

- Indicators included in the 2013 survey
 - Language tests prior to entry
 - Optional/compulsory integration programme
 - Optional/compulsory official language classes
 - Use of CEFR proficiency levels to define requirements
 - Cost to migrants
 - Sanctions for non-attendance or low attendance at language courses
 - Quality of courses
 - Optional/compulsory knowledge-of-society course
 - Optional/compulsory testing of language proficiency and knowledge of host society
 - Cost to candidates
 - Sanctions if test not taken or failed
 - Course curriculum
 - Is the effectiveness of programs measured?

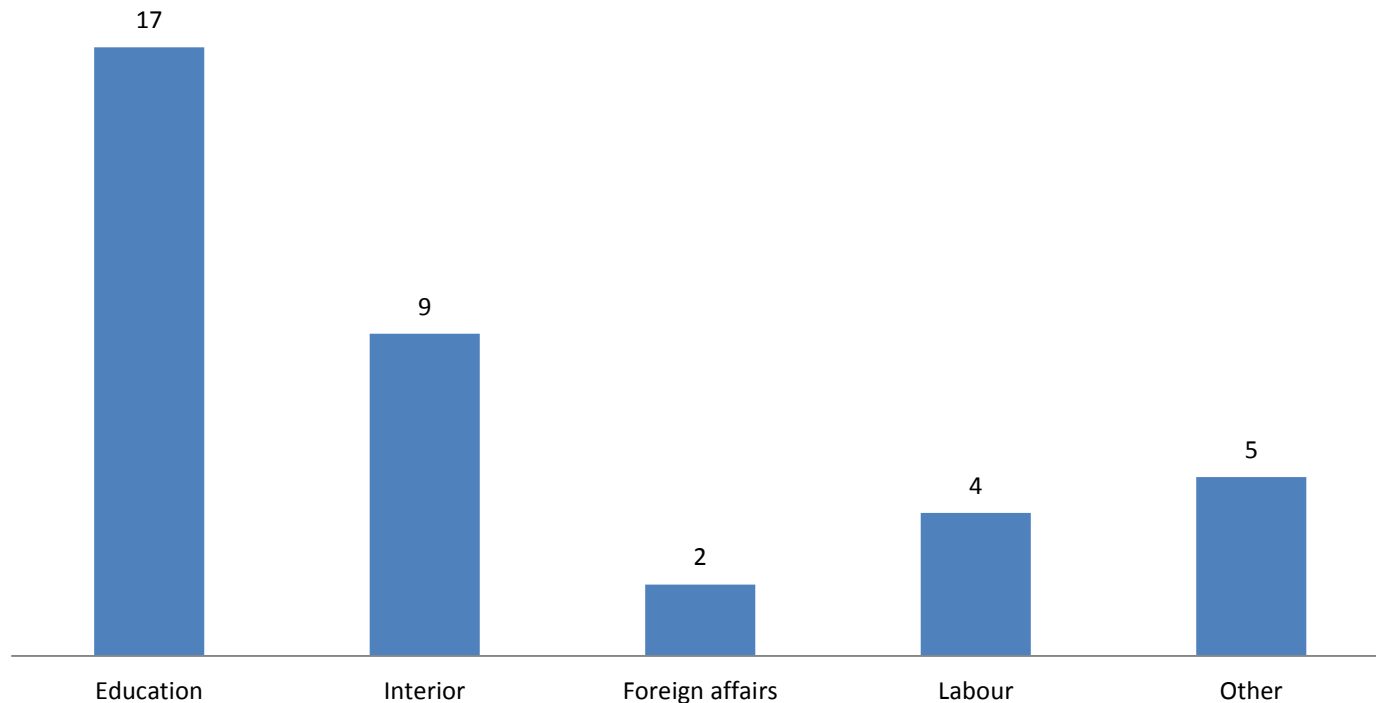

2. Countries responding to the survey

- Number of countries responding to the 2007, 2009 and 2013 survey

2. Countries responding to the survey

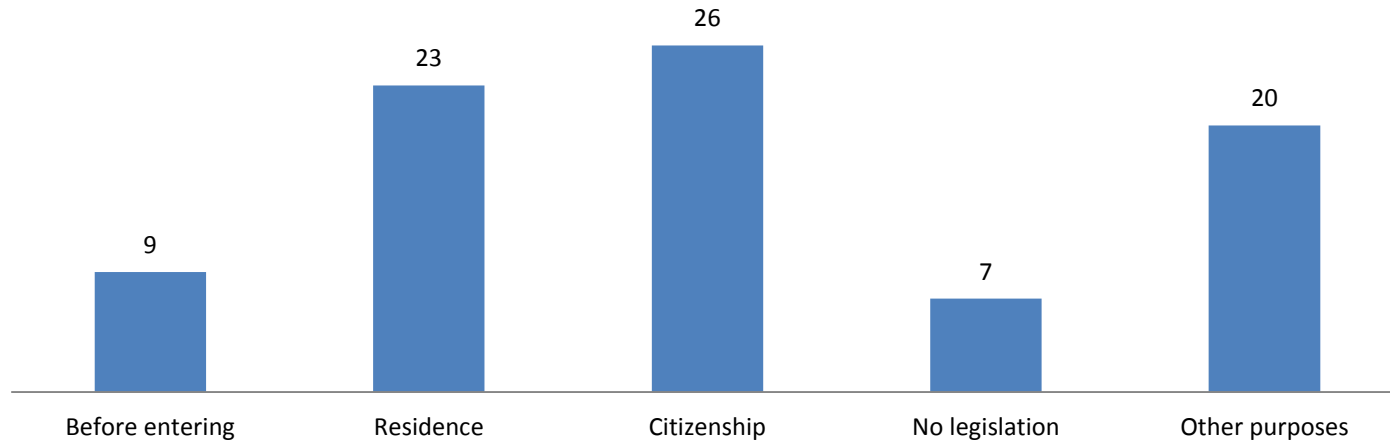

- Administrative background of officials who completed the 2013 survey

ANALYSIS OF THE 2013 DATA

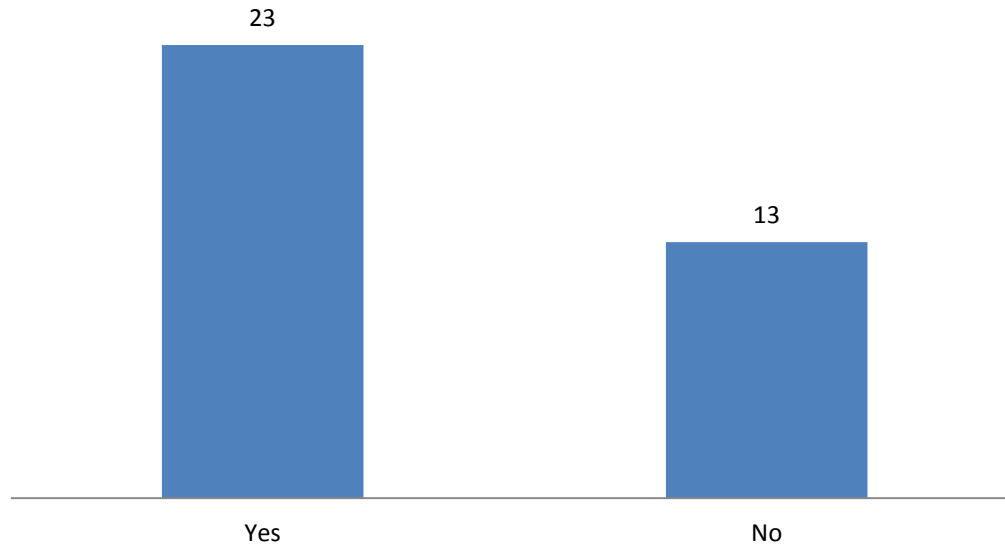

3. Legislation and impact

- Number of countries participating in the 2013 survey, that reported language requirements for entry, residence, citizenship

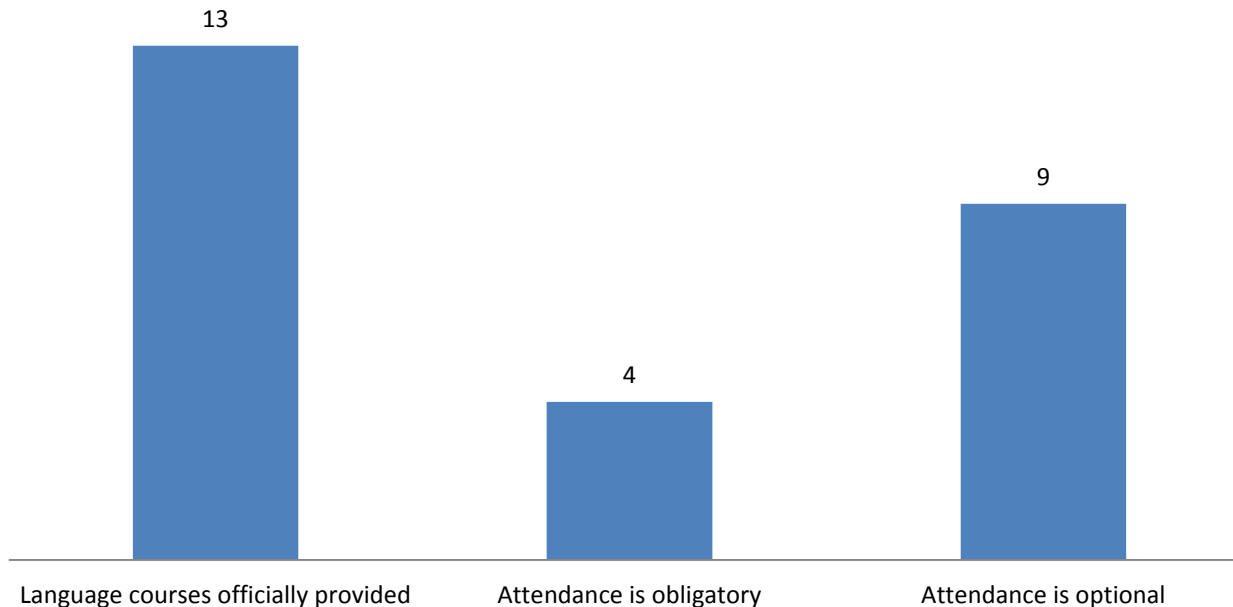

4. Language requirements for residence

- Number of countries participating in the 2013 survey that reported language requirements for residence

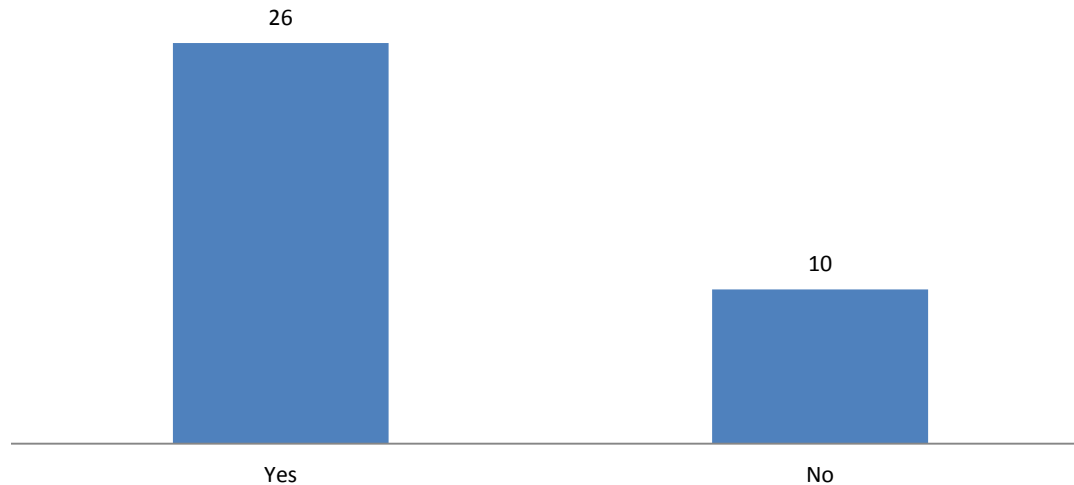

4. Language requirements for residence

- Language requirements for residence and providing language courses (obligatory and optional attendance)

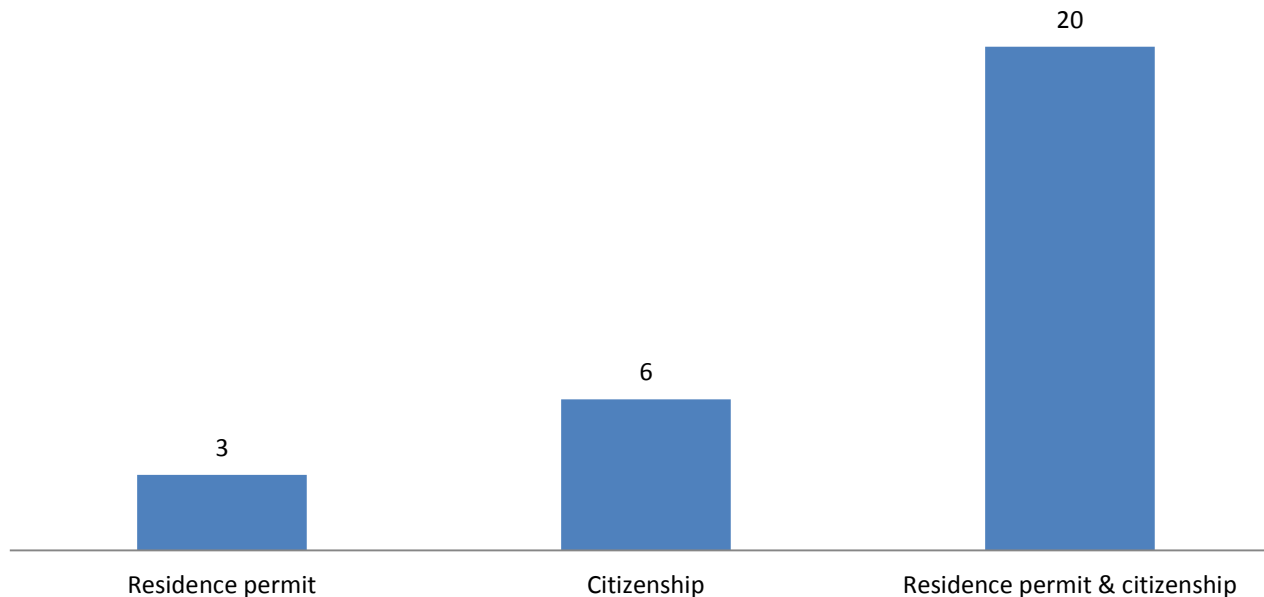

5. Language requirements for citizenship

- Number of participating countries with language requirements for citizenship

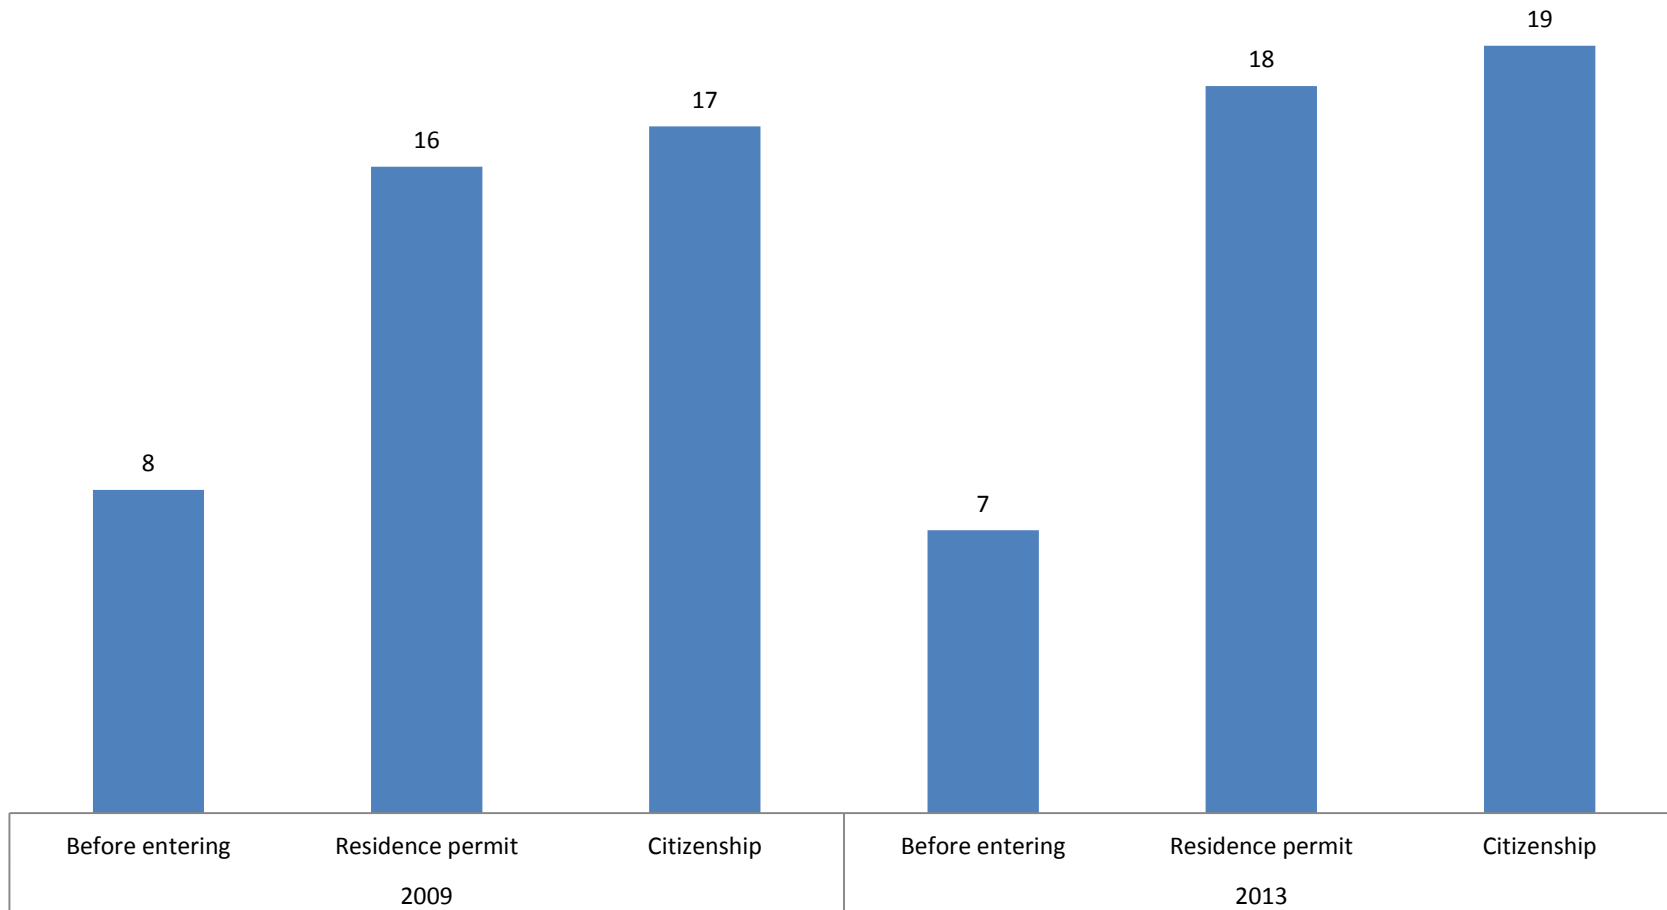

5. Language requirements for citizenship

- Number of participating countries with language requirements for residence and/or citizenship

DEVELOPMENTS BETWEEN 2009 – 2013
(27 COUNTRIES)

6. Legislation regarding language requirements for adult migrants

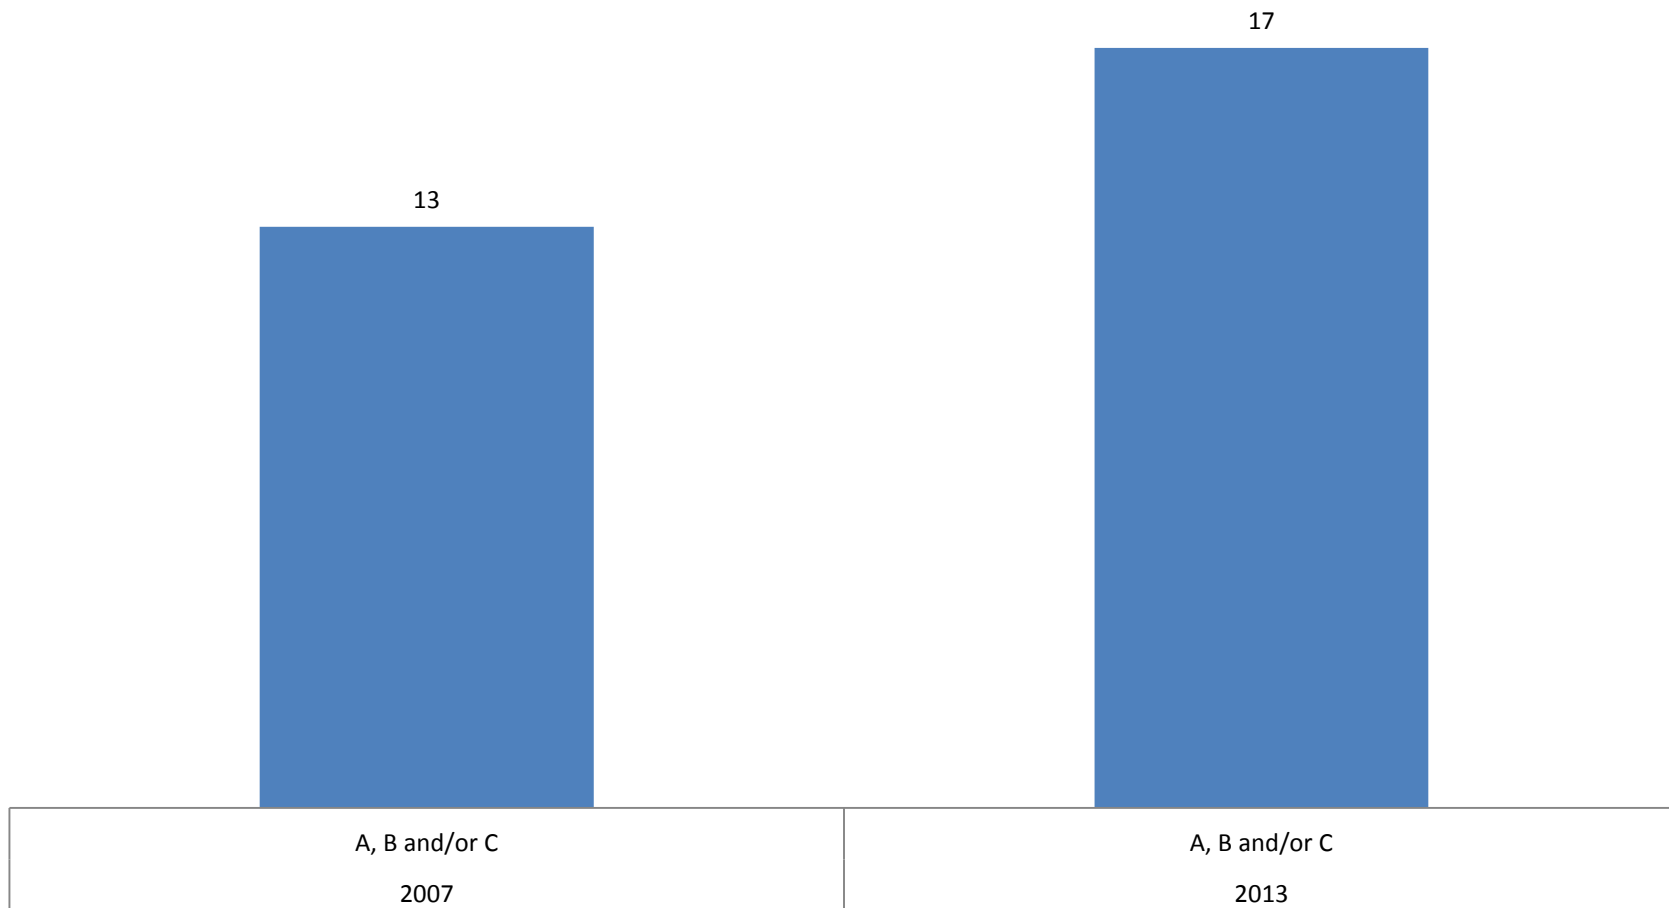

6. Language requirements and official language courses

DEVELOPMENTS BETWEEN 2007 AND 2013
(20 COUNTRIES)

Language requirements for adult migrants

Language requirements for residence or citizenship

Official language courses (reported in 2007, 2009 and 2013)

	2007	2009	2013
Residence permit	Only general information: 8	8	9
Citizenship		4	9

Thank you!

Reinhilde.pulinx@ugent.be

Piet.vanavermaet@ugent.be