

Participation/Gender Equality/Diversity

Projects supported by the European Youth Foundation

The European Youth Foundation supports activities, studies, research, materials and documentation in line with the Council of Europe values and work. Here are some examples of EYF-supported projects. “Art 4 Change” is a pilot activity. Pilot activity is an “intervention”, i.e. an activity addressing a contextual societal challenge affecting young people at local level. “Bridges for the future” supports one of the Council of Europe’s priorities “building capacities for dialogue”.

“Art 4 Change”-PORA

Project aimed to empower youth to take an active role in society through creating community art.

“Youth for gender equality”- Aequitas

Participants were inspired and empowered by the activity to promote gender equality.

Bridges for the future-YMCA

Project focused on living in balance in a multi ethnic and multi religious society. It challenged youth to find common ground.

Participation/Diversity/Roma

Projects supported by the European Youth Foundation

“Media advocacy for independent living” responds to the “strengthening social cohesion” priority. “Training course for young Roma activists on combating online Anti-Gypsyism” corresponds to Council of Europe’s priorities “strengthening participation” of Roma and “building capacities for dialogue”. “Restart peace” supports the “building capacities for dialogue” priority.

“Media advocacy for independent living” - YMCA Parthenope
Project aimed to increase awareness about the rights of people with disabilities.

“Restart peace”-Educational Center Krusevac
Aimed to strengthen the role of young people in building and promoting peace as the initiators of conflict resolution.

“Training course for young Roma activists on combating online Anti-Gypsyism”
Aimed to train how to identify and react to hate speech online.
